Media Services

The Louisiana Tech Athletics Media Relations Office looks forward to working with any media outlets during the 2011 football season.

Any member of the office can answer your questions or direct you to someone who can, so please feel free to call us at (318) 257-3144.

Web Page

Louisiana Tech's official athletics web page has up-to-date information on all of Tech's varsity programs. Please visit www.LATechSports.com today.

CollegePressBox.com

CollegePressBox.com is the official media website for Western Athletic Conference and Louisiana Tech football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for Louisiana Tech, the Western Athletic Conference and each of its member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

Working Credentials

Requests for press box seating should be made directly to the LA Tech Media Relations Office before Monday of game week. Admission to the press box of Joe Aillet Stadium is by credential only and credentials are distributed to working members of the media only – no family members or friends. Passes will be mailed if time allows; otherwise, left at Will Call on the stadium's west side at the press box elevator entrance.

Radio/TV Policy

Permission to broadcast from Joe Aillet Stadium and Independence Stadium must be obtained through the LA Tech Athletics Media Relations Department. The visiting team's official network will be provided free broadcast rights. For information concerning courtesy phone lines, contact Patrick Walsh at (318) 257-5305. Additional phone lines can be obtained by calling BellSouth directly at 1-800-866-6701 (outside Louisiana). The third level of the LA Tech Press Box offers an unobstructed view for television cameras.

Press Parking

Parking is limited and passes will be issued on a priority basis. The Joe Aillet Stadium press parking lot is located on the southwest corner of the stadium, just off West Alabama Avenue.

Press Box Services

All vital game information is provided by the LA Tech Stat Crew. An internal press box PA keeps members of the media informed of each play. Post-game quotes from head coach Sonny Dykes and selected players, as well as the visiting coach, are also available. Telephones and high-speed internet are available for media usage and a pre-game meal is served at each home game starting approximately two hours before kickoff. Level one provides working space for print and electronic media and the LA Tech Stat Crew along with LA Tech and visiting athletic director booths. Level two provides space for cameras and houses home and visiting radio booths and coaches' booths.

Directions to Joe Aillet Stadium

Will Call

Media Will Call is located at the press box elevator on the west side of the stadium.

CHRIS BRISTER

MAX CAUSEY

DAVE NITZ

BENNIE THORNELL

Louisiana Tech fans can tune into the LA Tech Sports Network this fall for all live game broadcasts for the Bulldogs 12-game schedule as well as 12 editions of Inside Bulldog Football with Sonny Dykes.

For the 13th straight year, the LA Tech Sports Network will team up with KXKZ-FM (107.5) Ruston as the flagship station for Tech Athletics.

In addition to KXKZ, the LA Tech Sports Network will consist of KLKL-FM 95.7 (Shreveport/Bossier City), KNBB-FM 97.7 (Ruston), KRUS-AM 1490 (Ruston), KJVC-FM 92.7 (Mansfield), KTKC-FM 92.9 (Springhill), KBEF-FM 104.5 (Minden), KTTP 1110 AM (Alexandria), KVCL 92.1 FM (Winnfield) and WUBR-AM 910 (Baton Rouge/Zachary).

All Bulldog football games can also be accessed online (audio for road games/video and audio for home games) by purchasing a subscription to LA Tech All-Access on latechsports.com. Cost of a subscription to LA Tech All-Access is only $9.95 per month or $79.95 for the entire year (which includes all live broadcasts for all of Tech's athletic teams).

This fall all of the Tech football broadcasts can be heard on the LA Tech Sports Network as Dave Nitz, Teddy Allen, Max Causey, Bennie Thornell, Mason Ellenberger and Chris Brister comprise the broadcast team.

Nitz enters his 37th year of calling Bulldog football games as the legendary Voice of the Bulldogs has been calling games since 1974 along with Tech men's basketball and baseball contests. Nitz, who was named the 2009 Louisiana Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association, was also recognized in 2010 as he called his 2000th Louisiana Tech sporting event.

Allen enters his first season behind the mic as he will serve as the color commentator for all 12 contests. The 1982 Tech journalism graduate is a well-known, highly-read award-winning Louisiana journalist having covered local sports for Shreveport, Monroe and New Orleans dailies from 1984 until 1990. He has written columns for the News-Star and the Times for the past 21 years.

Causey also enters his first year on the broadcast team and will serve as the sideline reporter for all five home games as well as the three Mississippi road trips. The former Bulldog quarterback has strong ties to Louisiana Tech football with numerous relatives playing and coaching in the program, including his father John, his cousin Mike, and uncles Walter and Tom. He is also the grandson of Bulldog coaching legend and Hall of Famer Maxie Lambright.

Thornell begins his 22nd year as a member of the LA Tech Sports Network as he will serve as the statistician for the majority of Bulldog football games this year while also moving down to the sideline for a selected number of contests. A 1969 graduate of the Louisiana Tech marketing department, Thornell began his association with the LA Tech Sports Network in 1990 as the statistician before moving down to the sideline in 1996 where he has spent the majority of his time.

Brister enters his second year as a member of the LA Tech Sports Network as he will serve as the engineer for all broadcasts throughout the year. He is in his first full year serving as account executive for LA Tech Sports Properties.

Mason Ellenberger is the general manager for LA Tech Sports Properties which maintains all the rights to the LA Tech Sports Network. Ellenberger, who enters his fourth year as a member of the LA Tech Athletics family, was instrumental in the growth of LA Tech Sports Properties which was recognized as the #1 new growth property in the Learfield Sports portfolio in 2009-10.

The LA Tech Sports Network team will host a one-hour pregame show prior to each kickoff and a 30-minute post-game show. Tech Gameday, a two-hour pre-pregame show, will also air prior to each home contest at Joe Aillet Stadium live from Tailgate Alley.

For more information on the LA Tech Sports Network, call Ellenberger at 318-257-5331 or email him at mellenberger@ltsportsproperies.com.

Daily Media Availability

The following is a general weekly schedule of media availability for the Louisiana Tech football team. Members of the media are expected to adhere to these policies at all times. All interview requests should be made to Louisiana Tech Associate Director of Media Relations Patrick Walsh at least 24 hours in advance. All media availability times are subject to change. Please contact Patrick Walsh for any changes in the schedule. (Note: First year players are not available to the media unless by special request.)

Monday: Sonny Dykes participates in the WAC's Weekly Coaches' Teleconference at 11:46 a.m. CT. LA Tech's weekly media luncheon starts with food served at 11:30 a.m. and statements/interviews beginning around noon. A few players will also be made available. Dykes' radio show airs from 5:30 p.m. – 6:30 p.m. live from the Dawg House in Ruston.
Tuesday: All coaches and players are available following practice.
Wednesday: All coaches and players are available following practice.
Thursday, Friday and Sunday: No availability.
Saturday: Post-game availability only. Members of the LA Tech Athletics Media Relations Staff will escort media representatives to the media room with five minutes remaining in the game. The Louisiana Tech locker room, home or away, is closed to the media at all times. Post-game interview requests should be submitted to Patrick Walsh before the five minute mark in the fourth quarter.

For games in Ruston, all Louisiana Tech post-game press conference will be held in the Jarrell Room located in the Charles Wyly Athletic Center after each game following a 10-minute cooling off period. No interviews will be allowed on the field with players and/or coaches immediately following games. Coach Dykes and selected Louisiana Tech players will be available in the press conference following games. Opposing coaches will be available outside the visiting locker room following a 10-minute cooling off period.

Social Media

Louisiana Tech fans can access the most in-depth information regarding all the University's programs through social media opportunities available online.

LA Tech All-Access – LA Tech All-Access is a subscription based platform that Tech fans can access live video/audio streams of almost every Tech home sporting event and live audio streams of road football, men's basketball, women's basketball and selected baseball and softball games plus press conferences and other special events. For only $9.95 per month or $79.95 for the year, Bulldog and Lady Techster fans can be a part of all of the action.

Facebook/Twitter – See page 6 for all the detailed information of Louisiana Tech's Facebook and Twitter accounts.

CoverItLive – Louisiana Tech will be conducting its own chat rooms during games this year for football, men's basketball, women's basketball and baseball. LA Tech fans can join in the chat throughout the in-game action for the majority of the contests for these sports. Simply log onto www.LATechSports.com 30 minutes prior to the start of the contests and click on the CoverItLive icon.

The one-hour show will air on Mondays from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. live from the Dawg House Sports Grill in Ruston as all Tech fans are encouraged to attend the event in support of LA Tech football.

The show can also be heard each week on the LA Tech Sports Network on ESPN Radio 97.7 FM and via the internet by purchasing a subscription for LA Tech All-Access at www.latechsports.com as Nitz and Dykes will review the previous contest while previewing the upcoming game.

LA Tech players and coaches will be special guests on the show along with former alumni and other members of the LA Tech Athletics family.

WE ARE LOUISIANA TECH UNIVERSITY

WELCOME TO THE FAMILY

" Louisiana Tech will be a top research university. And every top research university in the United States has a top athletic program. That's our goal. We're developing a road map for Tech athletics."

-- Tech President Dr. Dan Reneau

LOUISIANA TECH

- ☆ classified as a National University, the only Carnegie Doctoral/Research University and the only SREB Doctoral Four-Year 2 Research University in north Louisiana; also the only university in north Louisiana to earn a spot on the 2011 Best Colleges National Universities list.

- ☆ recognized by Small Times magazine as an industry leader in micro and nanotechnology for the third consecutive year, ranking Tech at No. 7 nationally for nanotechnology commercialization.

- ☆ ranked as one of the 100 Best Values in Public Colleges in the nation by Kiplinger's Magazine for the third consecutive year.

- ☆ boasts a retention rate of 84.5, which tops the averages of both the LSU System (79.3) and the UL System (77.7).

Louisiana Tech President Dr. Dan Reneau is known as one of the top collegiate presidents in the country and a staunch supporter of both academics and athletics.

"Louisiana Tech University is a family of students, instructors, staff, friends and alumni. We are teachers, doctors, engineers and artists. We are moms and dads, newlyweds, retirees and rookies on the job. Let us help you realize your dreams as we continue to realize the University's dreams together. Join the family."

-- Dr. Dan Reneau, University President

QUARTER SYSTEM – BIG ADVANTAGE FOR THE STUDENT-ATHLETE

Louisiana Tech has a unique advantage of being on the quarter system as opposed to the semester system. The quarter system provides significant advantages for the students:

- ☆ Lighter workload (take 3 classes instead of 5)
- ☆ Shorter academic sessions (12 weeks instead of 18)
- ☆ More frequent breaks during and between academic sessions
- ☆ More opportunities to withdraw or drop a class and still remain TOPS eligible

HELPING PUT THE STUDENT INTO STUDENT-ATHLETE

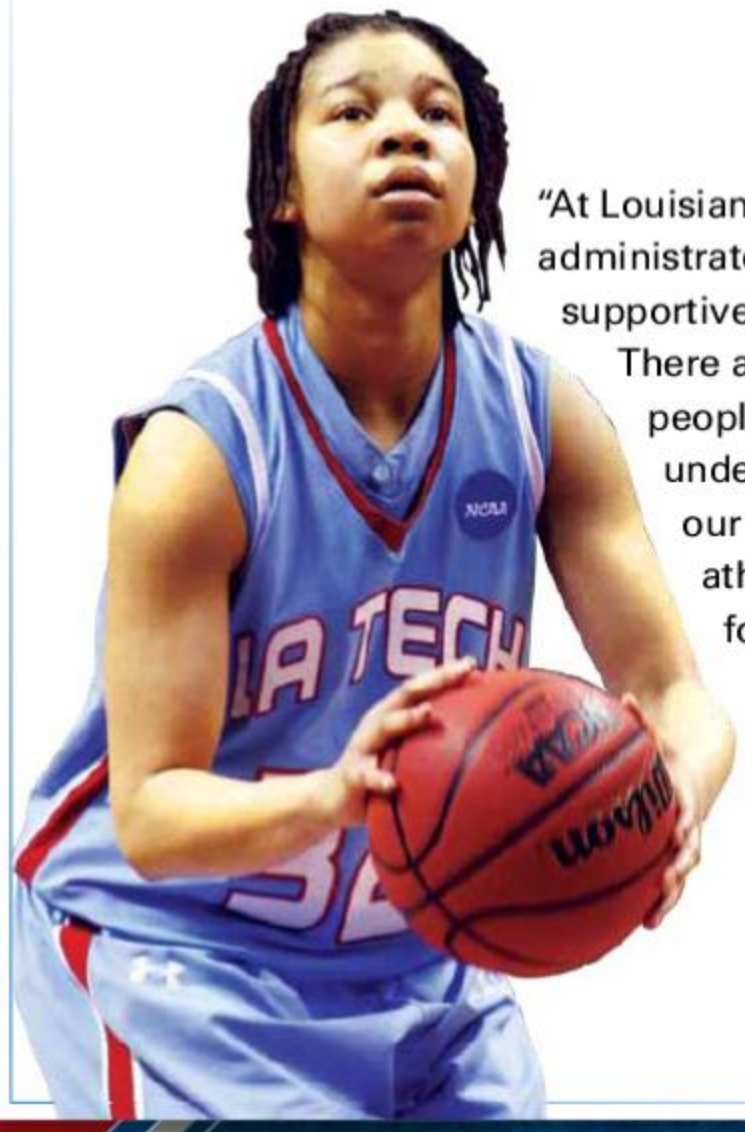
PROGRAMS PROVIDED BY BARC

- ☆ Tutoring and group help sessions in all subjects
- ☆ Supplemental instruction from students who have already successfully completed a certain course
- ☆ Writing assistance
- ☆ Advising opportunities
- ☆ Referral program for students needing additional assistance
- ☆ Computer labs and study hall space



"At Louisiana Tech, the professors, administrators and coaches are very supportive of us as student-athletes. There are so many wonderful people at this University who understand the importance of our education. As a student-athlete, I really couldn't ask for more."

– Jasmine Bendolph

RECENT SUCCESS STORIES

KIVA GRESHAM

Soccer standout Kiva Gresham was nominated for the NCAA Woman of the Year Award following her outstanding career at Louisiana Tech. As a senior Gresham led the Lady Techsters to their best season in history while garnering numerous athletic and academic awards. She earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology.

CLINT EWING

Louisiana Tech baseball letterwinner Clint Ewing earned his bachelor's degree in civil engineering, graduating with a perfect 4.0 grade point average. Ewing was named Academic All-American and was one of four runner-ups for the 2011 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award which goes to the nation's top senior who shows excellence in four areas – community, classroom, character and competition.

LISA MERRITT and BRAD HERMAN team up in the Louisiana Tech athletics academic center to help the University's student-athletes excel in the classroom and ultimately earn their degrees, something that is the No. 1 goal for the administration and coaches at Tech.

"One of the reasons I chose Louisiana Tech four years ago was because of its academic reputation, and it has more than lived up to my expectations. It's a first-class institution with first-class people."

– Matt Broha
Bulldog Football (Senior DE)

LOUISIANA TECH

- ☆ saw more than 800 student-athletes earn Academic All-WAC honors since joining the league in 2001, including more than 80 this past year.

- ☆ recorded a student-athlete Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 70 percent which was its highest ever and which ranked among the best in the nation (Federal Graduation Rate Report).

- ☆ recorded its highest four-year graduation rate ever, which ranks No. 1 in the state of Louisiana among Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) public institutions and second among Western Athletic Conference schools (Federal Graduation Rate Report).

- ☆ saw eight of its 16 NCAA sanctioned programs record their highest multi-year APR rates ever while four of the programs registered their highest single year APR score ever. All 16 of Tech's athletic teams were penalty free.

The National Football Foundation and the College Football Hall of Fame honored former Bulldog football player Quin Harris as a National Scholar-Athlete. Harris, who was a finalist for the coveted Draddy Trophy - considered the academic Heisman - was the first LA Tech player ever to receive the prestigious accolade.

LOUISIANA TECH

☆ boasts the University of Louisiana System's highest graduation rate at 53.2 percent.

☆ boasts the ULS' fastest time to completion for first time baccalaureates at 4.7 years.

DID YOU KNOW:

Louisiana is home to Mardi Gras, one of the largest carnival celebrations in the world. Held each February in New Orleans, the two-week party draws millions of tourists from around the world. It's also home to a number of professional franchises including the NFL's 2009 Super Bowl champion New Orleans Saints and the NBA's New Orleans Hornets.

LOUISIANA is the crawfish capital of the world, supporting a multi-million dollar-a-year industry. With speckled trout and large and small-mouth bass action that is unrivaled in the country, with clouds of ducks filling the skies most winters, with deer, rabbit and squirrels running wild, Louisiana is rightly nicknamed Sportsman's Paradise. It's a fisherman and hunter's dream-come-true.

DID YOU KNOW:

Lincoln Parish is home to three state parks, numerous lakes and ponds for fishing, boating and water skiing, a world-renowned mountain bike trail, the annual Peach Festival and one of the top golf courses in the South in Squire Creek Country Club.

Although there is plenty to do almost every weekend in Ruston including a multitude of LA Tech athletic events, Tech students have plenty of other options as Ruston is located within a five hour drive of some of the top entertainments cities in the South, including Dallas, New Orleans, Baton Rouge, Little Rock, Houston, Mobile and Birmingham.

SUCCESS BREEDS SUCCESS

LOUISIANA TECH'S ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT:

- ☆ recorded its highest finish ever in the Western Athletic Conference Commissioner's Cup in its 10th year of membership in the league.
- ☆ ranked sixth in the country in the Excellence in Management Cup, one of only four programs in the country to earn a top 10 spot in each of the past three years.
- ☆ won the NCAA Pack the House Challenge for the WAC for the fourth straight year, the only school in the country to win it four straight years.
- ☆ won the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award, given to the college that best exemplifies development in the four categories of Marketing/ Branding, Fan Development, Community Relations and Customer/ Client Service.

ON THE PLAYING FIELDS:

☆ Bulldog football set a single-season attendance record this year as 116,908 fans watched LA Tech in its six home games at Joe Aillet Stadium.

☆ Lady Techsters soccer recorded its best season in program history with 15 wins, including five in WAC play, as it finished third in the league and qualified for its first ever WAC Tournament.

☆ Lady Techster volleyball saw a program-record four players earn spots on the all-state team voted on by the Louisiana Sports Writers Association.

☆ Bulldog basketball saw the hiring of a new coach in highly-regarded Michael White, who spent the past seven years as an assistant in the Southeastern Conference at Ole Miss.

☆ Lady Techster basketball became only the second women's program to win 1,000 games while claiming the WAC regular season title and its 27th trip to the NCAA Tournament.

☆ Bulldog golf recorded its best season in more than two decades as it won two team titles during the year and earned its highest ranking ever.

☆ Lady Techster bowling found themselves ranked in the top 20 in the country during the season for the second straight year.

☆ Bulldog baseball recorded a winning season, saw three players selected in the MLB Draft and saw senior Clint Ewing named a finalist for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award.

☆ Lady Techster softball qualified for its sixth straight WAC Tournament and upset NCAA participant Fresno State on its own field in the first round of the event.

☆ Lady Techsters indoor and outdoor track won the WAC Championships, marking the sixth indoor title in seven years and the seventh straight outdoor title.

QUEST FOR EXCELLENCE – Meeting the Needs of Tech's Student-Athletes

The construction of a 90,000-plus square-foot multipurpose facility in the south end zone of Joe Aillet Stadium will benefit every student-athlete at Louisiana Tech University.

STUDENT-ATHLETE BENEFITS INCLUDE:

- ★ New academic center
- ★ New state-of-the-art sports medicine facility
- ★ New strength and conditioning complex
- ★ New coaches offices and locker rooms for football, baseball, soccer, tennis, softball, golf and track and field
- ★ Video room with state-of-the-art capabilities
- ★ New auditorium for team and departmental meetings

More than $12 million of the projected $20 million has already been committed as the project is moving forward and could break ground as soon as spring of 2012. Tech alums Steve Davison (pictured), Terry Bradshaw and Drake Mills form the Leadership Team that is spearheading the fundraising for the facility, along with Tech Athletics Director Bruce Van De Velde.

LOUISIANA TECH already ranks among the state and conference leaders in student-athlete graduation rate and in Academic Progress Report rate, and the new academic center will further enhance and emphasize the University's commitment to the classroom.

Since Louisiana Tech joined the WAC in 2001, its athletic programs have captured 28 team championships and dozens of individual titles.

Louisiana Tech has contracted with renowned sports architectural firm Populous to develop a master facility plan. Populous has created some of the most recognizable professional sports venues in the country:

- ★ Yankee Stadium
- ★ Busch Stadium
- ★ AT&T Park
- ★ Pepsi Center
- ★ PNC Park
- ★ PETCO Park
- ★ Oriole Park at Camden Yards
- ★ Reliant Stadium

"This project addresses many of the needs of our student-athletes, enhances recruiting and provides a source of pride for our alumni and fans. Our vision is a quest for excellence and a desire, focus and commitment to be an institution that values academic and athletic excellence."

– Tech Athletics Director Bruce Van De Velde

"Quest for Excellence is a watershed event in the history of our athletics program and, through the private contributions of our friends and supporters, will put our University shoulder-to-shoulder with some of the most progressive and respected programs in the nation."

- Tech President Dr. Dan Reneau

LA TECH IN THE COMMUNITY

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

LA Tech student-athletes volunteered more than 4,000 hours of community service this past school year with all 16 Division I sanctioned programs involved in some aspect of giving back to the community. Community service projects range from interaction with local schools to the Boys and Girls Club to the Methodist Children's Home to the local retirement/nursing homes to the DART Pumpkin Patch.

The LadyTechster basketball team participates in the annual NCAA "Think Pink" campaign to support awareness of breast cancer.

The LadyTechster soccer team helped the University earn a spot on the 2010 President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll while being recognized by the Corporation for National and Community Service (CNCS) for its leadership among institutions of higher education in Louisiana in supporting volunteerism, service-learning and civic engagement.

JOE AILLET STADIUM

The college football atmosphere in Ruston is filled with energetic fans, beautiful women and spicy food ... a taste of Louisiana and the South that all Bulldog fans have come to know and love.

SPIRIT OF '88

An icon at Joe Aillet Stadium, the Spirit of '88 is a bronze Bulldog statue in the south endzone of the stadium that commemorates the blood, sweat and tears of the 1988 Louisiana Tech team that blazed the path into Division I-A football. As a salute to that 1988 team, every Louisiana Tech player and coach touches the Spirit of '88 upon entrance onto the field prior to every home game.

THE WALK OF PRIDE

One of the newer traditions started in 2007 was the Walk of Pride, where Bulldog fans line the street and welcome the players as Tech arrives at Joe Aillet Stadium two hours prior to kickoff.

DAWGZILLA

The 1,400 square foot high definition video board – the largest in the WAC – has improved the fans' game-day experiences at Joe Aillet Stadium.

TECH XX

ESPN IS IN THE HOUSE!

ESPN Radio produces a 2-hour pre-game show live from tailgating alley for every Bulldog home game. The talent analyzes the contest while conducting interviews with representatives from both teams.

BAND OF PRIDE

Led by one of the all-time great band directors in Jim Robken, Louisiana Tech's Band of Pride brings the true sound of college football to Ruston with pre-game, halftime and post-game performances.

TAILGATING

Over the last decade, tailgating on game days at Joe Aillet Stadium has become the thing to do as Bulldog fans donned in blue start firing up the grills in preparation for kickoff. Bar-B-Q cook-offs, face painting, Tailgate Alley, the Kids Zone and all-around family fun exists for Bulldog fans of all ages.

THE BLUE

Louisiana Tech's super-rabid student organization that paint themselves blue from head to toe on game day helping make Joe Aillet Stadium a tough place for visitors to play.

BIG WINS GREAT PERFORMANCES SPECTACULAR PLAYS

LOUISIANA TECH'S football program has experienced numerous highs during the course of its 100-plus year history, claiming 22 conference titles, numerous bowl berths and a plethora of All-Americans and NFL players.

From the very first win in the program's history (a 6-0 victory over LSU in 1904) to winning the 2008 Independence Bowl title, Louisiana Tech football has always made its fans proud.

And since making the move from I-AA to I-A in 1989, Louisiana Tech has proven time after time it belongs among the big boys of college football defeating the likes of Alabama (twice), Michigan State, Oklahoma State, Mississippi State (twice) and California since the mid 90s.

DEFENSE

TOUGHNESS : GATA : RELENTLESS

TECH'S DEFENSE continued to be a quarterback's nightmare as the team finished 20th in the nation in sacks and ranking 44th in the nation in tackles for a loss.

- Louisiana Tech's line was led by Matt Broha who ranked third in the WAC in sacks and fourth in the league in tackles for a loss. Broha helped lead Tech's line to a top 20 ranking in the nation in sacks.
- Jay Dudley and Adrien Cole led a strong linebacking corps as the pair were ranked fourth and fifth, respectively, in tackles in the Western Athletic Conference.
- Josh Victorian was fourth in the nation and led the WAC in passes defended, notching 14 pass break-ups and two interceptions during the 2010 campaign.
- Chad Boyd led Tech with four interceptions, ranking 40th in the nation and second in the WAC. As a team, Tech ranked fourth in the league in interceptions.

SPECIAL TEAMS

AGGRESSIVE : GAME-CHANGING : SWARMING

NATIONAL LEADERS are born at Louisiana Tech. With one of the most prolific special teams in the country, Bulldog fans sat on the edge of their seats as Phillip Livas tied a national record for taking kicks back to the house.

- With two returns for a touchdown in 2010, Phillip Livas tied an NCAA record registering eight returns for a touchdown over his career.

OFFENSE

EXPLOSIVE : HIGH-OCTANE : VERSATILE

FAST-PACED, HIGH-OCTANE AND EXCITING are some of the few words used to describe Louisiana Tech's spread offensive attack in the first year under Sonny Dykes.

- Lennon Creer was the workhorse of Tech's running backs with 1,181 yards following a breakout game against Utah State midway through the season.
- Creer recorded five games with over 100 rushing yards including 147 yards at No. 2 Boise State, a number that only one of the Broncos' 13 opponents as an entire team could record against BSU last season.
- Tech's rushing offense ended the year ranked 40th in the nation while Creer was ranked 22nd in the nation in rushing.

- Louisiana Tech has become known as one of most dangerous return teams in the nation and that was no different in 2010 as Tech was ranked 10th in the nation in punt returns and 25th in the nation in kickoff returns.
- Phillip "Saturday Night" Livas ended his senior campaign ranked sixth in the nation and first in the Western Athletic Conference in punt returns and was ranked 49th in the nation in kickoff returns.

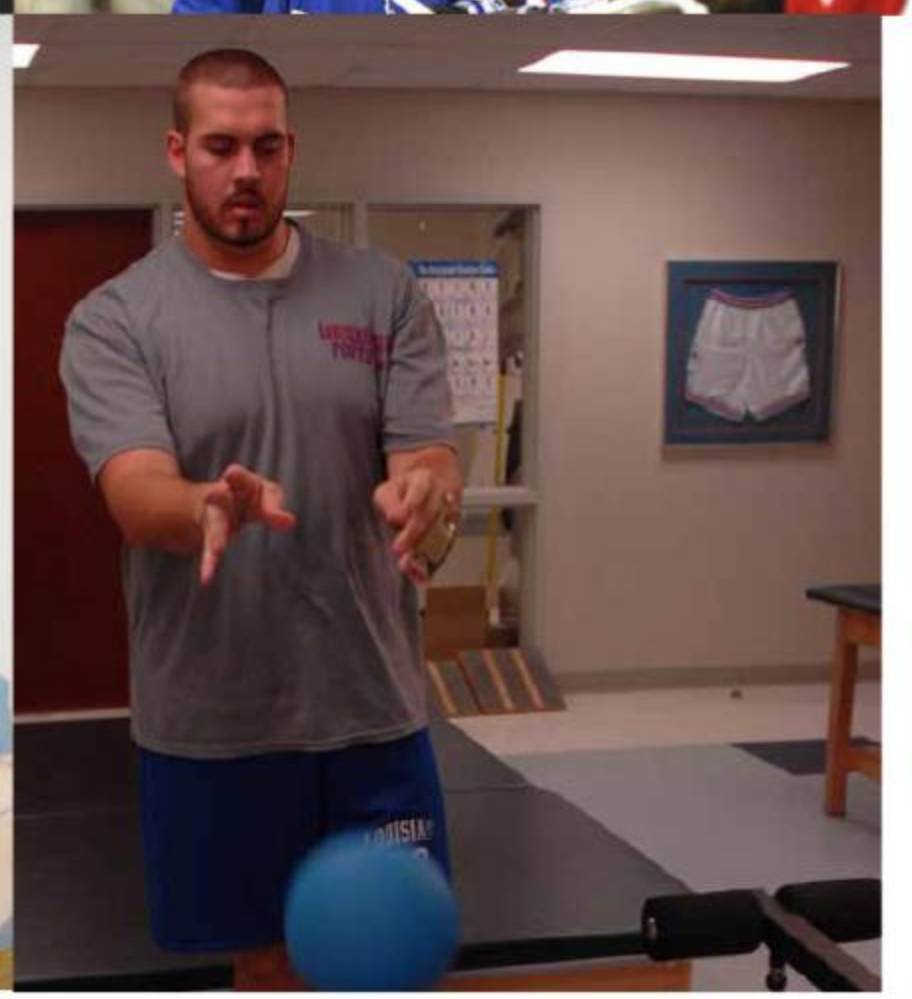
KEITH BUNCH is the head athletic trainer at Louisiana Tech University and is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association and the Louisiana Athletic Trainers' Association. He is in charge of the Dr. William Bundrick Sports Medicine Center and taking care of the Bulldog football players.



Louisiana Tech football can claim one of the top orthopedic surgeons in the country as one of its own. Dr. William Bundrick lettered for the Bulldogs in the late 1950s before graduating and moving on to the LSU Medical School in New Orleans. Today, he is not only the Bulldogs team physician, but he is also the benefactor of the Sports Medicine Department located in the Charles Wyly Athletic Center – home of the Tech football program.

KARL MALONE WEIGHTROOM

DAMON HARRINGTON is the head strength and conditioning coach at Louisiana Tech and is a certified member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association. During his six years at LA Tech, more than 25 of the Bulldogs strength and conditioning records have been broken.

NEW STATE-OF-THE-ART EQUIPMENT

- ☆ 8 powerlift nine-foot combo power racks with platforms
- ☆ 8 powerlift glute ham machines
- ☆ 15 hammer strength machines
- ☆ 2 sets of iron grip GX dumb bells (5 to 150 lbs)

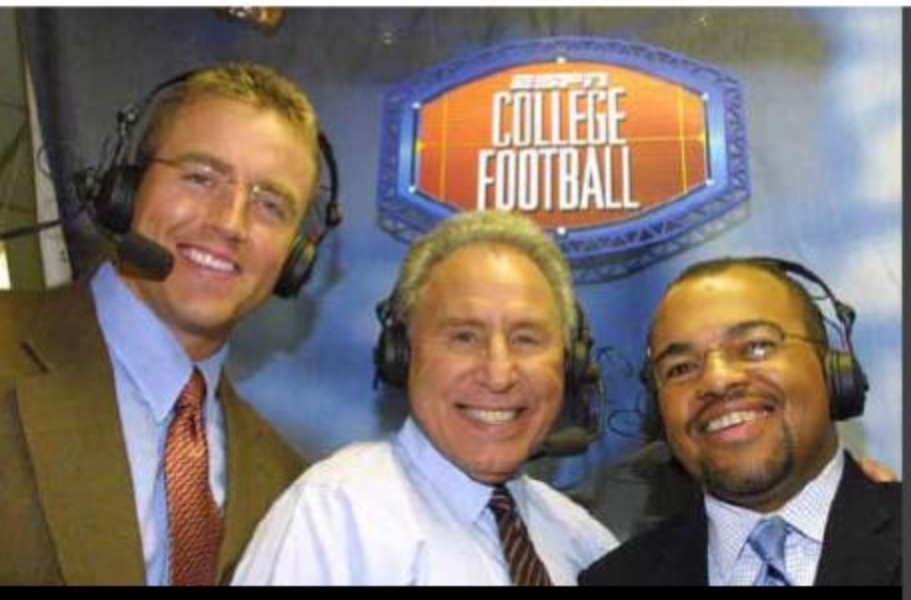
WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

The WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE is known for boasting some of the nation's top statistical leaders. During Tech's ten-year membership in the league, numerous Bulldogs have registered impressive numbers including former wide receiver Phillip Livas who tied the NCAA Division I record for career returns for touchdowns.

IN ITS 50TH YEAR, THE WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE CONTINUES TO EVOLVE AND FEATURES SOME OF THE NATION'S BEST INTERCOLLEGIATE COMPETITION.

The WAC provides its student-athletes the opportunity to travel to scenic destinations and gain exposure in some of the nation's most diverse markets, including two trips every four years to Hawai'i.

The Western Athletic Conference has sent a team to a BCS bowl game in three of the last five years. Boise State brought the eyes of the nation to the WAC in the 2006 Fiesta Bowl with their improbable come-from-behind victory over Oklahoma while Hawai'I played in the 2007 Sugar Bowl. Boise State claimed another Fiesta Bowl title in 2009 with a 17-10 win over TCU. Since the BCS' inception in 1998, only five non-BCS programs have played in a BCS game.



ESPN HAS SENT ITS "A" TEAM TO JOE AILLET STADIUM ON A NUMBER OF OCCASIONS TO TELEVISE BULLDOG FOOTBALL TO THE ENTIRE COUNTRY.

NATIONAL MEDIA EXPOSURE

In 2001, the WAC partnered with ESPN for coverage of football and basketball giving the conference national exposure from one of the most respected broadcast entities in the country. An extension was signed in 2008 that guarantees over 300 regular season WAC contests and 45 championship events will be aired on the ESPN networks through the spring of 2017.

Louisiana Tech has played 22 times on national television in the past 12 years, including 14 times on either ESPN or ESPN2. ESPN2 came to Ruston twice during the 2009 season, broadcasting the Bulldogs' games against Boise State on a Friday night and airing Tech's dominating RED OUT game against Hawai'i as Rece Davis, Mark May and Lou Holtz broadcasted the 27-6 win.

LOUISIANA TECH PRO DAY

PRO DAY gives NFL scouts an opportunity to view potential Louisiana Tech pro prospects each year by putting them through a series of strength, speed and agility tests prior to April's NFL Draft. The Karl Malone Weightroom and FieldTurf surface of Joe Aillet Stadium are the perfect settings, giving both the scouts and the participants an ideal environment to conduct the session.

Louisiana Tech head coach Sonny Dykes strongly believes that providing the opportunity for NFL scouts to get a firsthand look at Bulldog players ready to make the next step is an important factor in furthering playing careers on the next level.

EDUCATION PROGRAM

ANDREW WHITWORTH

NFL EDUCATION PROGRAM

As part of Louisiana Tech's commitment to educating its football players about managing the NFL Draft, the program has developed a top-rated NFL Education Program.

As part of this program, one day each spring Andrew Whitworth talks to the Bulldog seniors-to-be and their family members about his experiences during his time at LSU leading up to the NFL Draft.

DR. SELWYN ELLIS is the Senior Faculty Advisor for the Bulldog players and assists in mentoring, counseling and directing the young men on such things as agents, finances and other important issues.

In addition to Whitworth's talk, Tech brings in an NFL player agent to speak to the Bulldogs, addressing the player-agent relationships and the correct timetable for establishing it. The agents brought in stress the importance of college players following the correct timetable for signing with an agent and the severe eligibility penalties that can occur if they get involved too early.

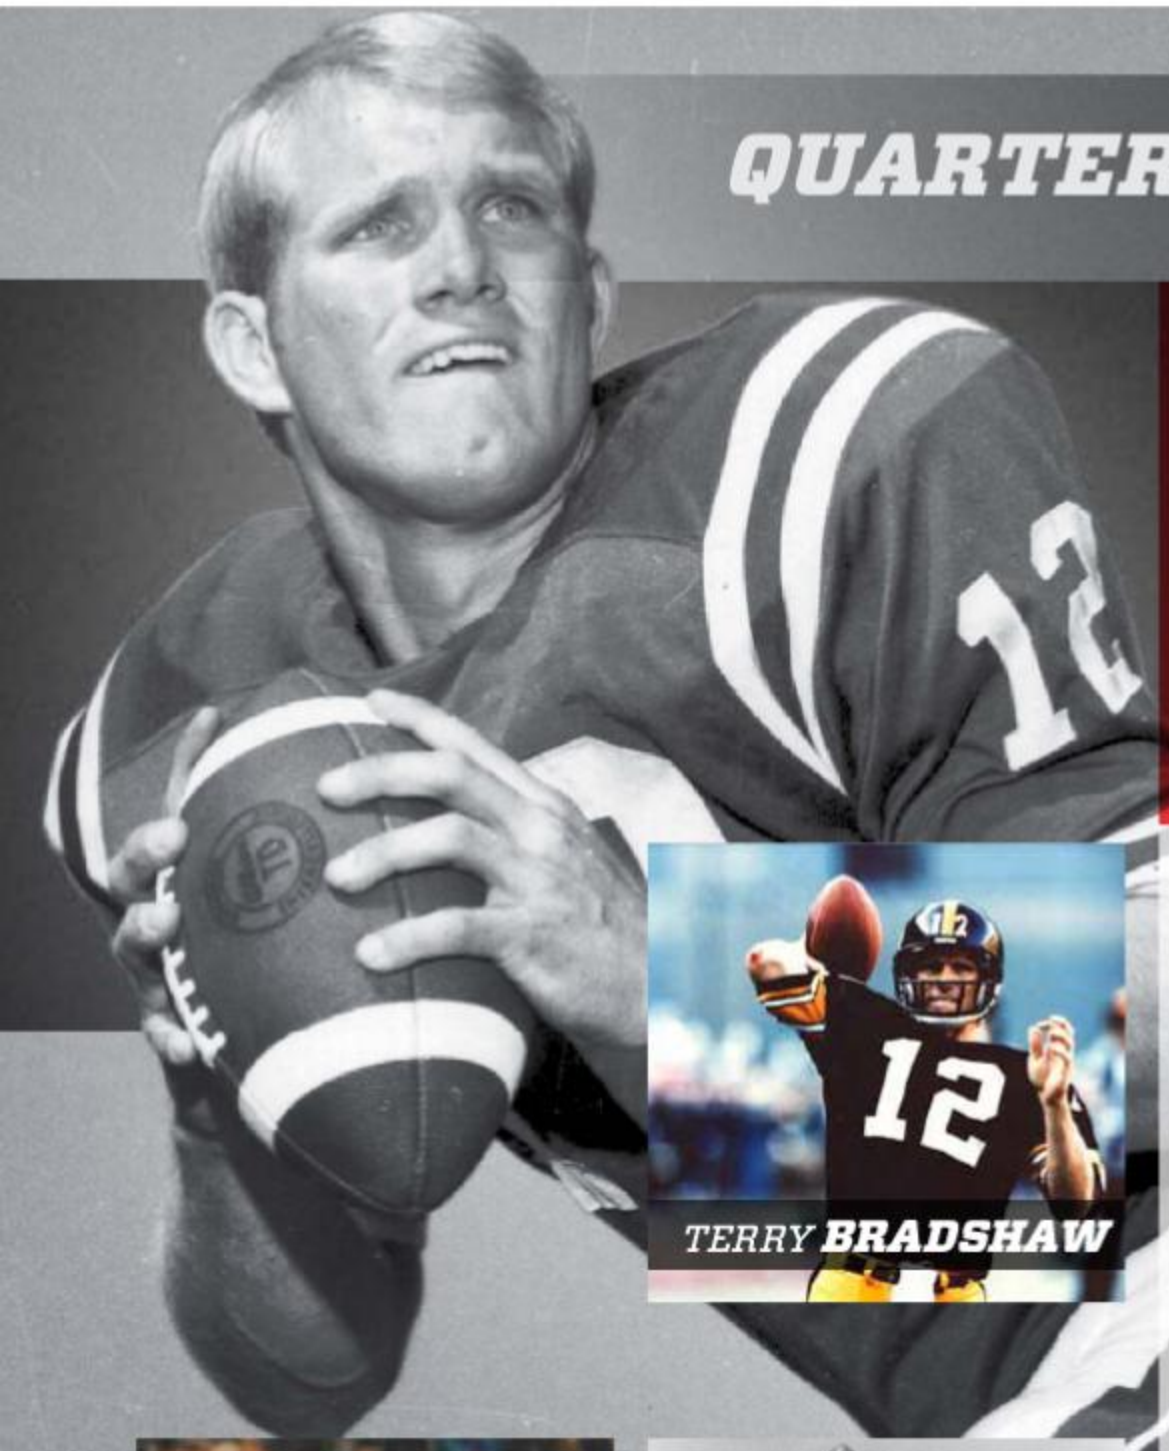
QUARTERBACK UNIVERSITY



LOUISIANA TECH has a long history of producing professional quarterbacks, including Hall of Famers Terry Bradshaw, Matt Dunigan, Mickey Slaughter and Tim Rattay. Most recently, Tech has boasted two NFL quarterbacks in Jacksonville's Luke McCown and the recently retired Tim Rattay.

TERRY BRADSHAW

TERRY BRADSHAW is one of only two quarterbacks to win four Super Bowl titles as the Blonde Bomber led the Pittsburgh Steelers during the 1970s and 80s. He is a member of the NFL and College Football Halls of Fame.

MATT DUNIGAN was inducted into the Canadian Football League Football Hall of Fame in 2006 after a stellar 14-year professional career. He finished his career with 43,857 passing yards and 306 touchdowns.

MATT DUNIGAN

MICKEY SLAUGHTER

MICKEY SLAUGHTER played for the Denver Broncos from 1963 through 1966 after being selected as the 50th overall pick in the 1963 draft. He is a member of the Louisiana Tech Hall of Fame.

TIM RATTAY spent nine years in the NFL with the San Francisco 49ers, Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Arizona Cardinals following a record-setting career at Louisiana Tech. Rattay ended his Bulldog career ranked in the Top 5 in NCAA history in passing yards and total offense.

TIM RATTAY

LUKE McCOWN

LUKE McCOWN begins his eighth season in the NFL, his third with the Jacksonville Jaguars. McCown was one of the most prolific passers in NFL history, ending his career ranked in the Top 10 in NCAA history in passing yards, total offense and passing touchdowns.

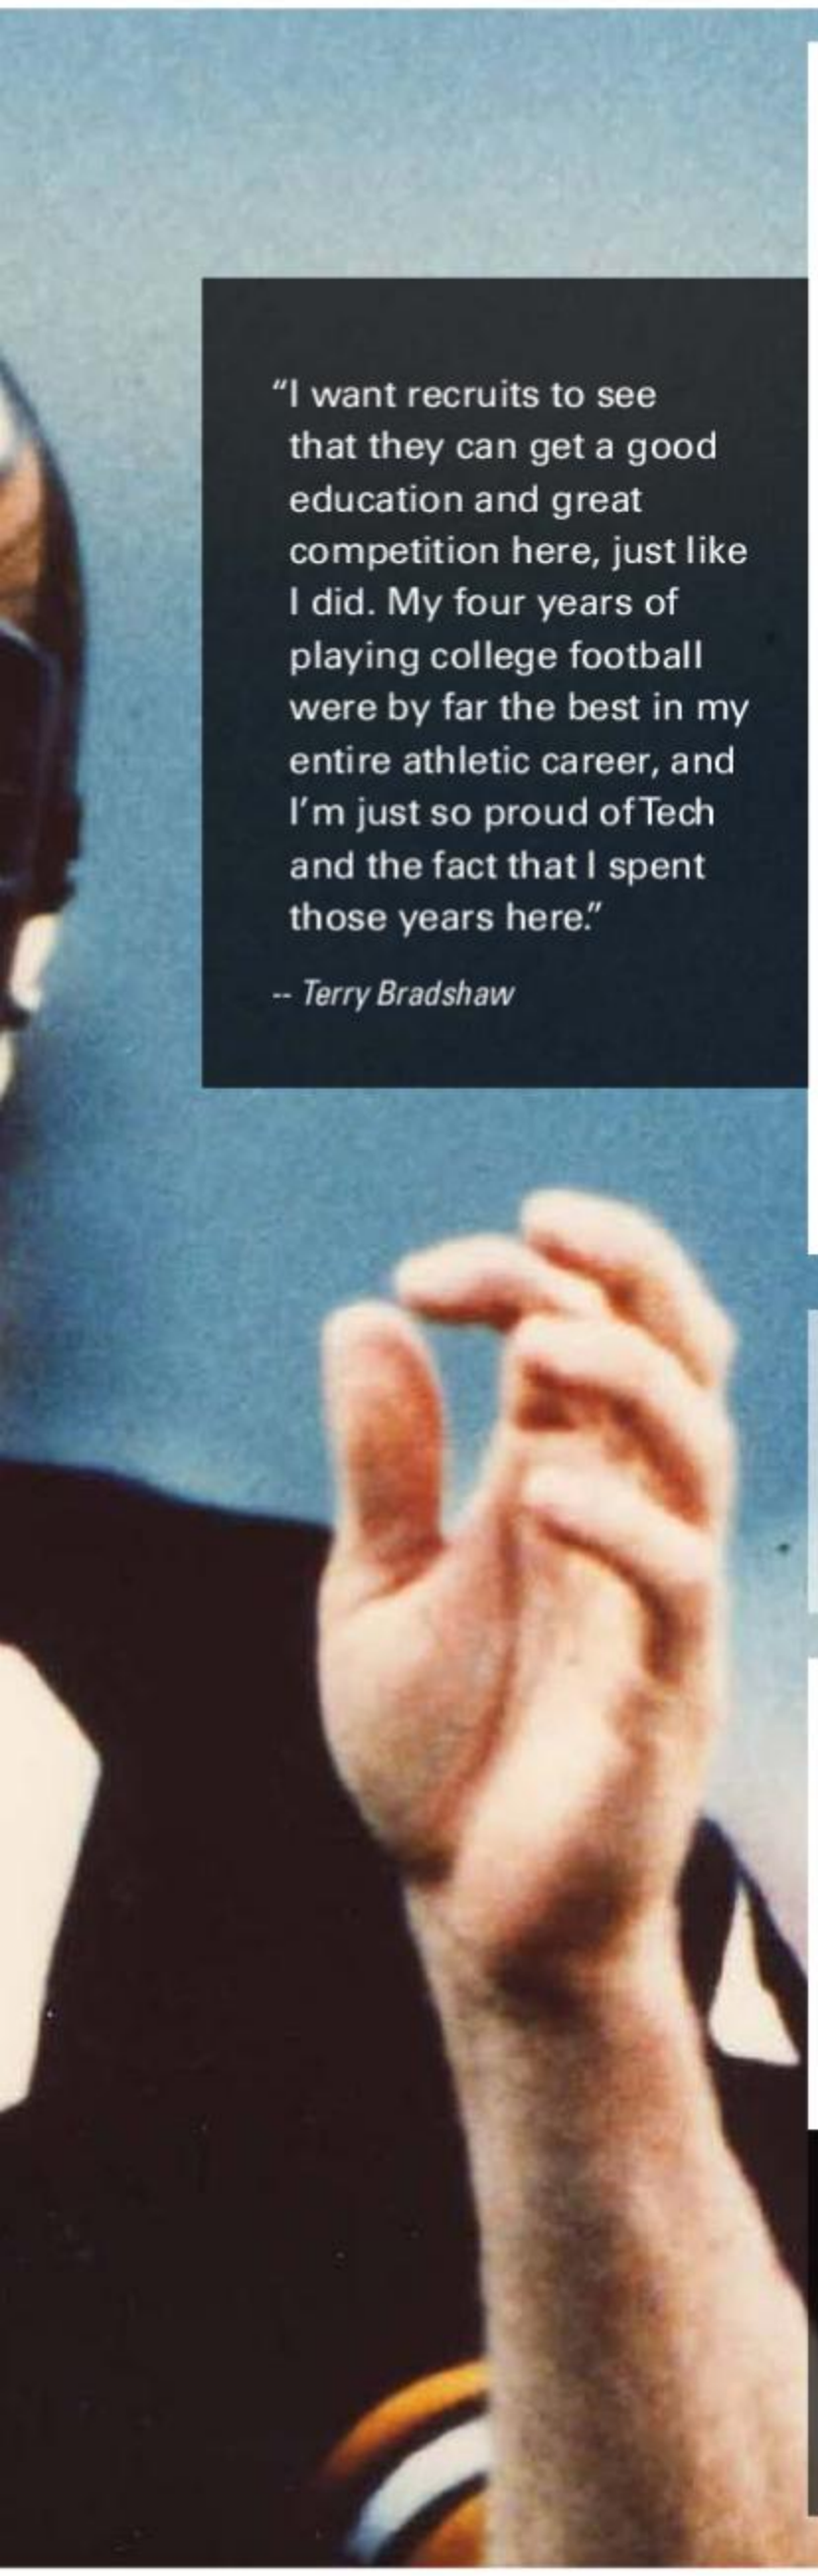
LOUISIANA TECH LEGEND
TERRY BRADSHAW

LOUISIANA TECH LEGEND

Terry Bradshaw, one of only two quarterbacks in NFL history to win four Super Bowls, donated priceless items of personal memorabilia to his alma mater. He also serves as one of the chairman for the Quest For Excellence campaign.

- ☆ Super Bowl championship rings from Super Bowls IX, X, XIII, XIV
- ☆ Miniature replica trophies from the four Super Bowls
- ☆ Professional Football Hall of Fame bust
- ☆ College Football and Professional Football Hall of Fame rings
- ☆ Helmet and jersey from Super Bowl victory

All of these items are secured and on display at the Charles Wyly Athletic Center, home of the Bulldog football program.



"I want recruits to see that they can get a good education and great competition here, just like I did. My four years of playing college football were by far the best in my entire athletic career, and I'm just so proud of Tech and the fact that I spent those years here."

-- Terry Bradshaw

FOX NFL Today Show host TERRY BRADSHAW, who returns to his alma mater every April to play in a golf fundraiser bearing his name, addresses the local media about his excitement over the direction of the Bulldog football program and the University.

Terry Bradshaw continues to support his alma mater, currently serving as a co-chairman for the Quest for Excellence capital campaign that is raising $20 million to elevate Tech's athletic facilities.

DAN RENEAU is the President of Louisiana Tech University and a member of the Executive Committee of the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

FAITH JENKINS was the first runner-up in the 2001 Miss America Pageant and now is an attorney at Milbank, Tweed, Hadley and McCloy in New York.

Former Bulldog basketball All-American KARL MALONE is a two-time NBA MVP and was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in August of 2010.

LOUISIANA TECH'S PROMINENT ALUMNI

WHILE LOUISIANA TECH CONTINUES TO EXCEL on the playing fields, the University consistently turns out some of the world's top politicians, businessmen, entertainers and professional athletes. A degree from Louisiana Tech University is more than just a diploma to hang on the wall ... it's a door opening to a world of opportunities.

PROGRESS EXPECTED AT LOUISIANA TECH IN 2011

OFFENSE

As Louisiana Tech enters the second year under the explosive offense orchestrated by head coach Sonny Dykes and offensive coordinator Tony Franklin, expect to see continued progress with an offense that hit its stride midway through the 2010 season.

Entering the 2010 campaign, many expected to see LA Tech reclaim its offensive prowess in the air right away. What surprised everyone was that the team's offensive strength was in its ground game amid a revolving door at quarterback early in the season followed by a breakout performance by tailback Lennon Creer over the final seven games.

Creer, now a redshirt senior, enters the 2011 season as the team's offensive standard bearer after finishing 2010 ranked 22nd in the nation in rushing. For the second consecutive year the Tatum, Texas native has been named to the Doak Walker Award Watch List and many defenses are already looking for ways to stop the guy that ran for 149 yards at No. 2 Boise State last year, tallying more yards than almost any single team was able to record in 2010 against the Broncos.

The question for Creer and Louisiana Tech this fall will be how he adjusts to the spotlight and pressure, if not from fan and coaches expectations then from being keyed-in on by opposing defenses. This is where an improved Ray Holley and talented newcomers like Tevin King and Hunter Lee are expected to step in.

Holley had an impressive spring after acclimating to Tech's offense last fall and is expected to vie for playing time. King and Lee will be looked upon to take some of the reps and pressure off the two senior tailbacks.

As opposing defenses begin to focus on Tech's talented running game, expect a crop of receivers to find holes and emerge as threats as Tech's fast-paced offense will keep defenses pressuring the line honest. Taulib Ikharo led Tech's receiving corps in 2010 with 50 catches for 530 yards but moves to an inside receiver position (Y) this fall and will be pressured by former walk-on David Gru, who recently earned a scholarship.

Ikharo and Gru are joined on the inside by Richie Casey, who is expected to start at the other inside receiver position (H). Casey was second on the team with 42 catches for 432 yards and will split time with "scat back" receiver/running back Lyle Fitte, a speedy shorter player with the ability to make plays happen.

Also expected to see some playing time in the same manner as Fitte is newcomer Brock Waters. A quarterback in junior college, the speedy athlete has the chance to be a factor at receiver and running back in 2011.

Former walk-on Andrew Guillot holds the starting position at X-Receiver entering fall camp but will be challenged by newcomer Myles White, a former Michigan State receiver. At the Z-receiver a pair of newcomers look to battle for playing time with Quinton Patton leading the way. He will be challenged by Scott Cathcart, among others, for a starting spot and substantial playing time.

Getting the ball to the talented crop of receivers that Louisiana Tech has recruited and developed is probably the team's biggest question mark entering the year. Colby Cameron stood out during spring practice well enough to earn the title of "Starter" but last season proved that title can evaporate quickly with a poor performance.

Tech started three different quarterbacks last season in a search for consistent success after pulling Ross Jenkins midway through the season opener only to return to Jenkins at Hawaii to guide the team the rest of the season. However, a year later Cameron has grown and matured with a better grasp at holding on to the job.

Waiting in the wings are a crop of talented signal callers that could challenge for the position. Tarik Hakmi was one of the three starters last season while Taylor Burch is much improved after redshirting the 2010 campaign.

Two newcomers will also vie for the quarterback position led by true freshman Nick Isham. Considered by some to be similar to Drew Brees, Isham brings a high talent level to Ruston but needs to prove he can quickly adjust to the collegiate game and Tech's frantic pace of play. Also battling for playing time as a first year player at Tech is Zach Griffith, a JuCo transfer that landed in Ruston prior to spring practice.

DEFENSE

Statistically speaking, Tech's defense has plenty of room for improvement in 2011 and progress is expected to be made especially with the team's top four tacklers returning. But numbers can be deceiving and Tech's defense did have several strong aspects to it last year, especially against the run. For the second straight season, Tech held Navy's potent triple option rushing offense to under 300 yards and kept Southern Miss' offense in check in a 13-12 nail biter of a game.

Louisiana Tech's defense against the run should be just as potent this year and the defensive line's strengths will be on the outside with a talented pass rush pair of senior Matt Broha and redshirt sophomore IK Enemkpali on the ends. Broha enters his final year of eligibility already ranked third all-time at Louisiana Tech in career sacks (14.5) and was ranked 43rd in the nation in tackles for a loss during the 2010 season. After recording a sack in almost every game last fall, he will be one to watch for on the field – by fans and opposing offensive linemen.

The challenge for Tech's opponents this fall is if they focus their efforts on stopping Broha from the left, they leave a weak side vulnerable to the pressure from Enemkpali. A talented end that had a breakout year last fall, the Pflugerville, Texas native has the skill set to become one of the better ends in the Western Athletic Conference.

In the middle, Tech will be looking for younger players to make an immediate impact. JuCo transfer and Ruston native Jon'al White is expected to start at nose tackle with Justin Ellis battling for playing time. At tackle, Shakeil Lucas is expected to step up and claim the starting position while former walk-on Adam Hymel will vie for playing time.

Similar to 2010, Tech's defensive packages this season will consist of a variance of 4-3 and nickel packages based upon what kind of offensive formation the Bulldogs are facing. In the 4-3 formation, the coaching staff hopes the third linebacker will be Rufus Porter. Porter stood out on special teams last season, blocking the Southern Miss punt in the fourth quarter that kept Tech in the game. He will be challenged by redshirt freshman Kevin Kisseberth for a starting spot in that formation.

Tech's middle linebacker position continues to be a toss-up between Solomon Randle and Adrien Cole. Both are talented athletes and the Bulldog defense is in the fortunate position with both being good enough to start. Tech will not see any drop off at MLB this fall when one or the other needs a quick breather.

The other outside linebacker position is a mecca of experience. Jay Dudley enters his senior season as one of the most underrated linebackers in the league. Dudley led Tech in tackles last season and improved tremendously from his sophomore season to his junior year under the guidance of linebackers coach Jeff Koonz. Dudley has the ability to be an all-conference linebacker but has been overshadowed by Cole the last two years. Following Dudley is senior Dusty Rust, a talented linebacker that has seen consistent action over the last few years.

Tech's secondary will see some shuffling this fall as the coaching staff looks to improve on the team's pass defense in 2011. The fifth man in the nickel package is expected to be Chad Boyd, a safety last year that led the team with four interceptions returned for 76 yards. Boyd, although a little undersized at safety, is an aggressive defender known to make game-changing plays. He will be backed up by Javontay Crowe, a Ruston native that is looking for the right fit in Tech's secondary.

Both cornerback positions are question marks in terms of no specific starter has been set yet and that position, going against the pass-heavy offenses in the WAC, will likely see several moving parts in order to keep legs fresh. Justin Goodman and Dave Clark will be competing for time at left corner with Goodman seeing considerable time in the secondary last season while Clark, recovering from a knee injury, spent most of 2010 on special teams.

At right corner, Terry Carter is battling to reclaim a starting position he held in 2008 and 2009 while former walk-on DeMarcion Evans has let his consistent play quietly speak for itself. Blasher Saintvil and newcomer Levander Liggins are expected to be in the mix as well.

Ryan Williams, a talented JuCo transfer that played corner and nickel last season, has been moved to strong safety to take advantage of his size. He has already proven to be a talented player on the field and is expected to be a leader in Tech's secondary this fall. He will be there to guide redshirt freshman Mike Schrang, who will be moving into the spot as the year progresses in preparation for the 2012 season.

At free safety, Jamel Johnson is expected to be a consistent starter and player for Tech while Quinn Giles will back him up. Injuries the last two years have kept Giles bouncing over to run routes as a receiver but added depth on the offense should keep that from happening this fall.

SPECIAL TEAMS

How do you replace an NCAA record holder? That will be the challenge for Dykes and special teams coordinator Mark Tommerdahl this fall after the graduation of Phillip Livas. An explosive return man, Livas registered an NCAA record-tying eight returns for a touchdown in his career.

Lyle Fitte, Tech's "scat back" receiver/tailback, is one of the few players on the roster that has much return experience and is expected to challenge for the kickoff return spot along with newcomer Myles White. White is expected to fill the shoes of Livas in the sense that he will compete for spots as a return man on both punt and kick returns while Fitte will start out as a kickoff return man.

Several others will get their shot as a kickoff return man for Louisiana Tech, including Richie Casey. Casey is similar to Livas in build and stature (and even hair style with Livas' well-known dreadlocks) and he also brings the type of speed and agility that Livas possessed. After suffering a pair of knee injuries in back-to-back years, the 2010 season was Casey's first full season on the field.

It is unclear as of press time what newcomers might contribute to the return game this year but many think Tevin King, Levander Liggins and Brock Waters all have the skill sets required to be effective return men.

On the punt return side, Andrew Guillot is expected to start the year off returning punts. As mentioned before, Myles White will also be back to return punts and – similar to kickoff returns – any number of players could stand out and find themselves returning punts throughout the season.

Tech's coaching staff enjoys consistency at kicker and punter in 2011. Matt Nelson returns for his third season of kicking duties as the field goal, extra point and kickoff work horse. John Hinton waits in the wings but Nelson, who has formed ties with former Tech and NFL kickers Chris Boniol, Matt Stover and Josh Scobee, is a mature and effective kicker with a long range.

Ryan Allen is back to punt the ball for his second season at Tech. The transfer from Oregon State had a strong leg throughout much of last year with 21 of his 60 punts landing inside the 20 and another 21 getting enough hang time to force a fair catch. Allen averaged almost 41 yards a punt last season and is expected to improve upon that this fall.

Getting the ball to Nelson and Allen will be deep snapper Josh Cuthbert, who enters his second season as the team's specialty snapper.

SCHEDULE

From everything seen on paper and on the field, Louisiana Tech may very well be a much improved and better team in 2011 compared to its 2010 roster. However, that improvement may be marred by a challenging schedule.

Tech is put to the test very early in the year as the Bulldogs open the season against a historic and regional rival at Southern Miss. The match-up (Sept. 3, 9 p.m. CT, FSN) between the two schools will be the 42nd meeting between the two programs. USM holds the fourth-longest active streak of winning seasons in the country at 17 years as Larry Fedora has the Golden Eagles flying high entering the 2011 campaign.

The Bulldogs will host Central Arkansas (Sept. 10, 6 p.m.) in Tech's home-opener at Joe Aillet Stadium. UCA enters the year expected to be a Top 25 team among the FCS ranks with Arkansas transfer Nathan Dick at quarterback. Week three doesn't get any easier as Heisman Trophy candidate Case Keenum returns for a sixth year of eligibility and brings Houston (Sept. 17, 6 p.m., ESPN3.com) to Joe Aillet Stadium. In the first three weeks of the year, Tech will have faced two of the top offensive teams in Conference USA.

Louisiana Tech will enter week four squaring off against one of the better teams in the Southeastern Conference when Louisiana's Bulldogs will face against the Mississippi State Bulldogs (Sept. 24, TBA). Dan Mullen's team finished the 2010 campaign ranked 15th and returns a wealth of talent.

Tech will return home the following week to host 2010 WAC co-champion Hawai'i (Oct. 1, 6 p.m., ERT) in the Bulldogs' annual Red Out game. LA Tech is looking for a repeat of the 2009 Red Out game against Hawai'i where Tech kept the Warriors out of the end zone in a 24-6 win. Following that game against Hawai'i, Tech will embark on a seven-week stretch where the Bulldogs will only have one home game.

Starting off that road stretch will be a game at Idaho (Oct. 8, 4 p.m.). The last time Tech played at the Kibbie Dome, Matt Nelson missed a 56-yard field goal attempt to allow Idaho to claim the 35-34 win. Last year, Tech used 90 degree temperatures and a home field advantage in mid-October to its advantage in a 48-35 win where the Dykes-led offense really came alive for the first time.

After a week off, Tech will travel back west to play at Utah State (Oct. 22, 2 p.m., ERT). Tech has won five of the last six in the series but dropped a 23-21 decision the last time they traveled to Logan. Following that, the Bulldogs return home for a (true) Homecoming affair against San Jose State (Oct. 29, 3 p.m.).

After hosting the Spartans, Tech hits the road for what may be its toughest three game stretch of the year with games at Fresno State (Nov. 5, 7 p.m.), at Ole Miss (Nov. 12, TBA) and at Nevada (Nov. 19, 3:05 p.m.). Fresno State and Nevada are expected to finish atop the conference in 2011 while Ole Miss is another SEC Western Division power on Tech's schedule this fall. In addition, Nevada is coming off winning a share of the WAC title (along with Hawaii and recently departed Boise State).

Louisiana Tech then wraps up the regular season at home against New Mexico State (Nov. 26, 3 p.m., ERT). The Bulldogs have won the last four meetings against the Aggies and are looking for a fifth-straight win.

With the WAC in the last year of its current alignment and a tough non-conference slate, Tech will be challenged from the first kickoff to the last down of the season in 2011 but a winning record could bring a bowl bid and national attention.

SONNY DYKES

Head Coach

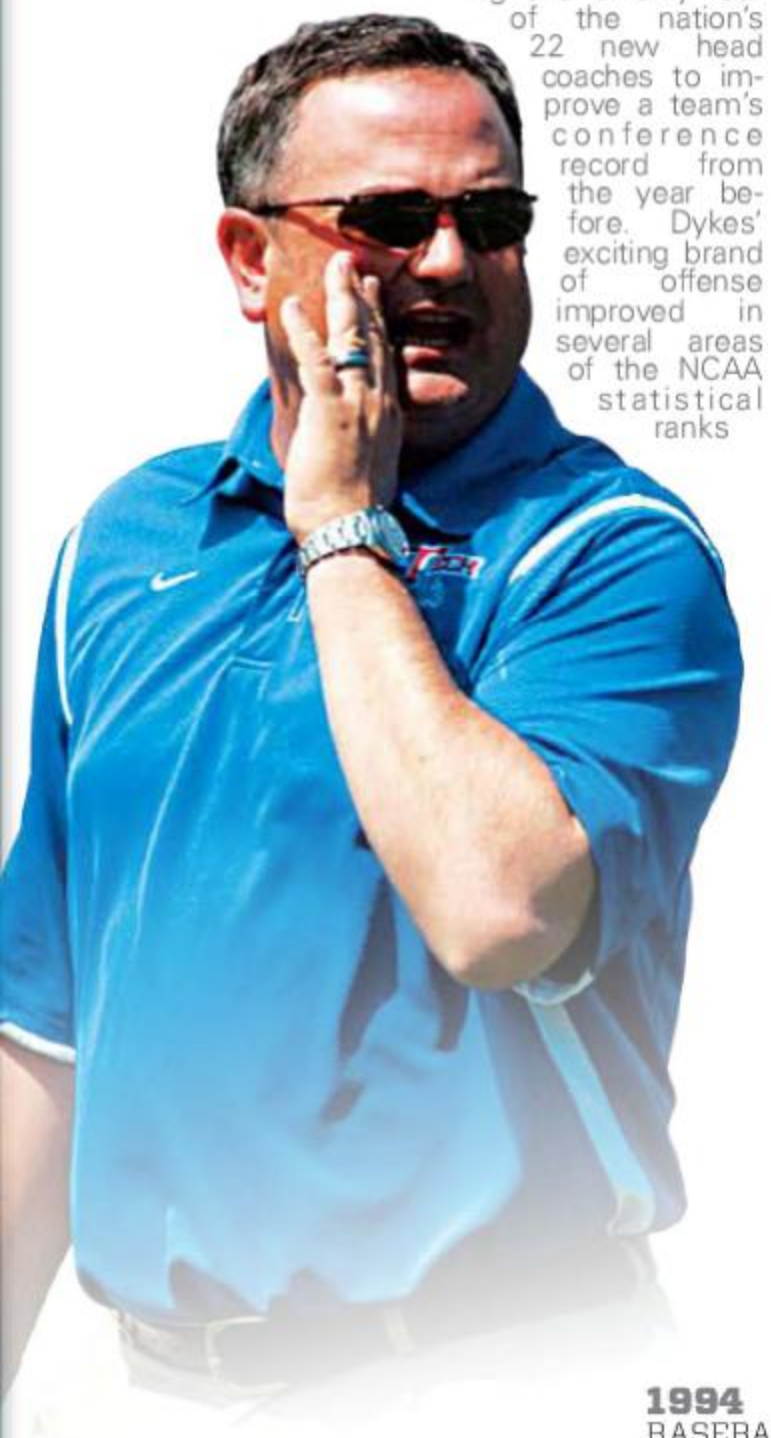
In his first season Dykes put his high octane offense into effect, resulting in him being one of only four of the nation's 22 new head coaches to improve a team's conference record from the year before. Dykes' exciting brand of offense improved in several areas of the NCAA statistical ranks including passing offense (91st in 2009 to 62nd in 2010) and total offense (66th to 52nd) while the team's average offensive national rank improved from 65th in 2009 to 54th in 2010.



Dykes, son of Texas Tech coaching legend Spike Dykes, has coached in the PAC-10, Southeastern Conference and Big 12 during his 16 years in the college football profession while also serving under some very successful head coaches including Mike Leach and Mike Stoops.

He won the 2006 Mike Campbell Top Assistant Award, presented by the All-American Football Foundation, and was a nominee for the 2009 Broyles Award, which goes to the nation's top assistant coach.

Dykes came to Louisiana Tech after completing his third season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arizona, leading the Wildcats to an 8-5 record and an appearance in the Holiday Bowl. That Holiday Bowl appearance marked Dykes' 10th bowl appearance as a coach with all 10 appearances coming within an 11 year span.

A spread-offense specialist, Dykes' offensive attack set at least five single-season records at Arizona while also racking up a pile of single-game marks in the UA record book. Former Wildcat quarterback Willie Tuitama, a disciple of Dykes, notched career numbers that are among Arizona's best.

"Coach Dykes has demonstrated throughout his coaching career all the leadership qualifications we are looking for in the next leader for our football program," said acting athletics director Bruce Van De Velde. "His coaching success has been achieved at the highest level of competition, from the SEC to the Big 12 to the Pac-10."

Rivals.com cited Dykes as one of the countries brightest offensive minds and top ten college recruiters in the country.

"I have worked my entire life to get to this point, and I have had lots of great mentors that have worked with me and taught me and brought me along," said Dykes. "I am very fortunate to be here."

Dykes' Arizona team went 6-3 in the Pac-10 Conference during the 2009 campaign, finished tied for second in the league with Oregon State and Stanford.

Fond of the passing attack, Dykes Arizona offense in 2008 ranked 16th in scoring and 33rd in total offense while developing and outstanding run-pass balance.

Dykes orchestrated an Arizona offense that was ranked 10th nationally in passing yards per game in 2007 as he coached then-junior Tuitama to honorable mention All-Pac-10 honors that year. That same season, he helped develop the offensive scheme that pushed receiver Mike Thomas to first-team all-league status as a junior and senior ('08).

Prior to his tenure at Arizona, Dykes was co-offensive coordinator working with then-head coach Mike Leach and inside receivers coach Dana Holgorsen running Texas Tech's wide-open passing attach in 2005-06 after having been Texas Tech's wide receivers coach since 2000. The Red Raiders were among the national top six in total offense and passing during the span.

Texas Tech was No. 3 in passing and No. 6 in total offense in 2006 under his co-direction, throwing for 370 yards and accumulating nearly 450 overall. He directed an offense that scored 32 points per game in 2006 with two receivers ranked top three in the nation and a third in the top 20 in receptions per game.

While in Lubbock, Dykes helped develop Joel Filani into a two-time first team All-Big 12 honoree and a sixth-round NFL draft selection by the Tennessee Titans in 2007. Receiver Jarrett Hicks also signed a free-agent deal with the San Diego Chargers that year.

Dykes also worked with quarterback Graham Harrell who completed 412 passes for 4,555 yards and 38 touchdowns in 2006, ranking Texas Tech third nationally in total offense that season.

Prior to his five seasons at Texas Tech, Dykes spent two non-consecutive seasons at Kentucky, first coaching tight ends as a graduate assistant in 1997 and then coaching special teams and wide receivers in 1999 under the "Air Raid" attack of former UK coach Hal Mumme. Dykes coached Kentucky's James Whalen to AP All-America honors after his Division I-A record for receptions by a tight end.

Sandwiched in between his two stints in Lexington, Dykes was the wide receivers coach at Northeast Louisiana where he helped receiver Marty Booker set school seas and career records and earn Blue-Gray and Shrine Game spots before getting drafted in the third round by the Chicago Bears in 1999.

A 1993 graduate of Texas Tech, Dykes lettered for three years as a baseball player for the Red Raiders. At age 40, Dykes is one of the nation's youngest coaches in the Football Bowl Subdivision.

Dykes is married to the former Kate Golding and they have two daughters, Alta Carolina (Ally) who is three and Charlotte Reese (Charlie) who was born in late spring 2011.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT SONNY DYKES

MIKE STOOPS
Head Coach, University of Arizona

"Coaches aspire to be head coaches, and it's a great opportunity at Louisiana Tech for Sonny. He did some awfully good things here, helping change our offense dramatically in his first season and taking it farther each step afterward. He comes from a coaching family and worked in some outstanding offensive systems. I'm eager to see how it goes in Ruston and won't be surprised if points and yards are one feature for his new program."

TOM DIENHART
Yahoo! Sports/Rivals.com Writer

"Sonny Dykes is one of the top offensive minds in college football and has built some dynamic attacks. He also is a tireless worker whose terrific personality makes him a magnetic recruiter. I expect Sonny to have great success."

MACK BROWN
Head Coach, University of Texas

"Sonny Dykes is a perfect fit at LA Tech. His dad, Spike, was one of the best coaches of all time, and Sonny is a chip off the old block. He has a great smile and super personality, but has also become a master of offensive football. He has been able to beat teams with better personnel because of his offensive expertise."

ESPN

TED MILLER
ESPN.com Writer

"It wasn't just that Arizona's offense ranked 115th in the nation the year before Dykes came aboard as offensive coordinator. It was the Wildcats entrenched tradition of lousy offenses. Yet Dykes immediately transformed that beleaguered unit. First, he made it competent. Then he made it good. Then he made it pretty dam scary. It was about more than Xs and Os. It was about leadership and inspiring confidence. You know, stuff good head coaches do."

BILL SNYDER
Head Coach, Kansas State University

"If he is anything like his father, and I truly believe he is, he will endear the entire University and its constituency to him. Sonny is an excellent coach and a loyal and caring person."

KEVIN CURTIS

Cornerbacks

In his first season, the Bulldogs tallied 12 interceptions as Ryan Williams led the Tech cornerbacks with two.

Curtis joined the LA Tech staff in 2010 after serving two years at Navarro Junior College where he coached the secondary.

While at Navarro, Curtis' teams went 21-2, won two conference championships and were the 2009 C.H.A.M.P.S. Heart of Texas Bowl champions. Curtis' teams were ranked first in the country in interceptions and had five all-conference honorees while he recruited the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex and West Texas areas.

Curtis was a two-time All-American and three-time All-Big 12 safety at Texas Tech, playing for the Red Raiders when Dykes was on the Texas Tech staff. After a successful collegiate career, Curtis was drafted in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers, where he spent three seasons. After one year with the Houston Texans, Curtis played two years as the team captain for the Cologne Centurions of NFL Europe before returning to the United States to coach.

"I am very pleased to bring Kevin Curtis on our staff," Dykes said. "I had an opportunity to work with and get to know him at Texas Tech where he was a great player. Kevin is an outstanding person whom I had the chance to see coach when I recruited the Navarro area and I knew it wouldn't be long before he was a highly sought-after coach on the Division I level. He is a great recruiter and will be a very strong, positive role model for our players."

STAN EGGEN

Recruiting Coordinator/Defensive Line

Long-time college coach Stan Eggen begins his fourth season as part of the Louisiana Tech staff and his second as coach of the defensive line.

In addition to 28 years of college coaching experience, Eggen has a reputation as one of the top recruiters in the country, a reputation that has earned him the recruiting coordinator title beginning in the spring of 2010.

Eggen's first year guiding the defensive line witnessed Matt Broha record a tackle for a loss of 11 of the team's 12 games in 2010 and vaulted the junior to third in the school's all-time sacks record with a year still to play.

During Eggen's second season with LA Tech and as coach of the linebackers, he oversaw a unit that ranked 40th in the nation in both pass defense and pass efficiency defense. Linebacker Adrien Cole garnered first team all-WAC honors as he led LA Tech with 93 total tackles, a mark that ranked him 50th in the nation.

In his first season with the Bulldogs, Eggen helped coach a defensive unit that ranked 13th nationally against the run, allowing only 103.9 yards per game, the fewest by a Tech team since the program joined the Football Bowl Subdivision in 1989. Tech also allowed only 23.7 points per game, the best by a Bulldog team since 1992. The Bulldogs also posted a 21-0 shutout over San Jose State during the season, the first shutout by a LA Tech team since 1996 (a span of 148 games). It was also the first road shutout since 1988 (a span of 225 games).

The Bulldogs success defensively led the program to the 2008 Independence Bowl title as LA Tech defeated Northern Illinois 17-10, the first bowl victory in more than three decades.

Not only did Eggen's linebackers succeed on the field in 2008, but off the field as well as Harris was named one of 15 National Scholar-Athletes, the first in Louisiana Tech history. Harris was also named a Draddy Award finalist and one of 13 Wuerffel Award finalists.

Prior to coming to Ruston, Eggen served as the defensive line coach at Texas A&M under coach Dennis Franchione from 2003-2007. During his time with the Aggies, Texas A&M participated in three bowl games, including the 2005 Cotton Bowl, the 2006 Holiday Bowl and the 2007 Alamo Bowl.

Eggen has been named as one of the Top 20 recruiters in the country multiple times by Rivals.com and was named as one of the Top 10 recruiters in the country by Scout.com. Prior to his stint at Texas A&M, Eggen served as the defensive line coach at Alabama under Franchione in both 2001 and 2002. The 2001 Crimson Tide squad participated in the Independence Bowl.

He also served under Franchione at TCU (1998-00) and New Mexico (1997) where he worked as the defensive line coach. He helped lead the Horned Frogs to three straight bowl appearances, including the 1998 Sun Bowl and the 1999 and 2000 Mobile Bowl. Eggen was an integral part of helping lead a TCU defense in 2000 that ranked first in scoring defense and first in total defense in the country.

He had two stints at UNLV (1991-92, 1994-96) sandwiched around one year at Nevada in 1993. He was the defensive coordinator at UNLV from 1994 through 1996, gaining valuable experience and helping the Rebels to the 1994 Las Vegas Bowl.

Prior to that, he coached at Utah State (1986-90), Drake (1984-85), Memphis (1982-83), Southeast Missouri State (1981) and North Dakota (1979-80). While at Utah State, three of his players that he recruited or coached earned Big West Defensive Player of the Year honors.

His postseason resume speaks for itself. He has been a part of nine bowl games. Two of his defensive linemen from the 2007 A&M squad - Red Bryant and Chris Harrington - were selected in the 2008 NFL Draft.

Over his last three coaching stops, Eggen has coached more than a dozen defensive lineman who were selected in the NFL Draft and more than a total of 20 who signed NFL contracts. He has mentored the likes of the Tennessee Titans' Antwan Odom, Green Bay Packers' Johnny Jolly and Buffalo Bills' Aaron Schobel.

Eggen, a native of Dilworth, Minn., earned his bachelor's degree in education from Moorhead State (Minn.) in 1977 and his master's degree in education from North Dakota in 1981. He and his wife, Christina, have three daughters, Sloane, Paige and Shelby. Sloane and Paige are Louisiana Tech students.

TONY FRANKLIN

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Tony Franklin joined the Louisiana Tech staff as the offensive coordinator in February 2010, bringing an exciting offensive attack back to Joe Aillet Stadium. In his first year on staff, Tech's offense exploded into a high octane mechanism in the middle of the season resulting in Tech scoring at least 20 points in six of the last seven games with the team scoring more than 30 points in four of those contests.

Franklin joined the LA Tech family after spending one season as the offensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee. At MTSU, Franklin's offense generated 421.7 yards and 32.0 points per game, the fourth and seventh highest totals in school history. The Blue Raider offense, which produced three all-Sun Belt Conference players, had 30 or more points nine times and topped the 400-yard mark on eight occasions. Franklin's 2009 unit set school records in total yards, passing yards, and total points, while finishing 23rd nationally in scoring and 27th in total offense.

The end result was a 10-3 season that witnessed a 32-31 win over Maryland early in the season and a year capped off by a 42-32 win over Southern Miss in the New Orleans Bowl, the school's first bowl in the FBS era. The 10-win season was the most by any Blue Raider team since 1992.

Quarterback Dwight Dasher came of age in Franklin's offensive schemes. Dasher, a second team all-conference performer and MVP of the New Orleans Bowl, ranked 7th in the nation in total offense, threw for a school record 23 TD passes, and was named the SBC Player of the Week three times. Franklin made his way to Middle Tennessee after a brief stint as the offensive coordinator at Auburn in 2008 and the previous two seasons in the same capacity at Troy.

In his two seasons at Troy, the Trojans went 16-9 overall and 12-2 in the Sun Belt Conference while collecting two conference championships. During that span his offense scored 30 or more points 11 times, including games against Florida, Georgia, and Oklahoma State.

In his first season at Troy, in addition to helping the Trojans to their first Sun Belt Conference title and a victory in the New Orleans Bowl, Franklin also helped engineer the second-ranked offensive unit in the Sun Belt just one year after the team ranked last in the league in total offense. The Trojans ranked first in the league in passing offense, again one year after ranking last, despite having faced three of the top 20 ranked passing defense teams in the country during the season, and improved in conference scoring from 12 points to 25 points per game.

Franklin joined the University of Kentucky football staff in 1997 following 16 years as a high school football coach. During his four-year tenure at UK, the Wildcats enjoyed unprecedented success on the offensive side of the ball, including setting several NCAA, SEC, and school records. After coaching running backs for three seasons, Franklin was named offensive coordinator for the 2000 season and led the Wildcats to success as the nation's second-best passing offense as well as the nation's 11th-best team in total offense.

Franklin's two-back combinations at Kentucky outgained any two-back combinations in the SEC in total yards from scrimmage for three straight seasons. Quarterbacks Tim Couch, Dusty Bonner, and Jared Lorenzen each led the SEC in passing during their time as UKs quarterbacks, and Couch was the first player selected in the 1999 NFL draft. Several other UK players reached their goals in making NFL teams after their experience in the high-powered offense.

Franklin was also named one of the top 10 recruiters in the South during his four years at Kentucky as he helped lead the Wildcats to their first back-to-back bowl appearances in 15 years and their first New Year's Bowl game appearance in 50 seasons.

USA Today took notice of Franklin's football coaching and teaching abilities in a feature story in 2005 which detailed his consulting successes as a nationally sought-after offensive football coach.

Franklin also received rave reviews for his second book, Victor's Victory, which chronicled the tragic death and spectacular life of 15-year-old Hoover High football player Victor Dionte Hill. Hill died from sudden cardiac arrest on the football practice field during one of Franklin's consulting sessions. The book has helped to continue the mission of Cheryl Hill, Victor's mother, to make teachers, coaches, and parents aware of the need for automatic external defibrillators (AED's) in every school and youth organization in Alabama.

Franklin achieved both his bachelor's and master's degrees in education from Murray State University, where he was a two-year starter as a running back. He is married to Laura Franklin, and they have three girls: Chelsea, Caroline, and Caitlin.

DAMON HARRINGTON

Strength and Conditioning

Damon Harrington developed a reputation as a fierce competitor during his playing days as a linebacker for Louisiana Tech during the late 1990s.

Harrington still has the same hard-nosed reputation among the Bulldog players, but it comes as the head strength and conditioning coach at Louisiana Tech.

Harrington was hired as the head strength and conditioning coach at Tech in January, 2006, his second stint in the role after he spent the previous two years as the assistant director for player development at Georgia Tech working with all aspects of the Yellow Jackets football strength and conditioning program alongside another former Bulldog coach, Eric Ciano.

Before taking the position at Georgia Tech, Harrington served as the head strength and conditioning coach at Louisiana Tech in 2002 and 2003, overseeing a program which serves all 16 of the university's NCAA sanctioned sports.

He also spent two years as the assistant strength and conditioning coach at Louisiana Tech under Ciano in 2000 and 2001.

Since returning to his alma mater, Harrington has been instrumental in improving the strength and conditioning program at Louisiana Tech.

One of the many improvements during Harrington's regime has been the implementation of supplements for the Tech student-athletes, including chocolate milk and muscle milk, which helps with the recovery period after workouts.

Harrington's regiment workout program has helped the Bulldog football players break more than 25 strength records (by position) in the last five years and ultimately has helped lead to a number of fourth-quarter come-from-behind wins.

Under the direction of Dooley, Harrington and his staff have implemented the Dawg Fight Program, which incorporates ATTITUDE, TEAM, DISCIPLINE, TOUGHNESS and EFFORT. This program is designed to prepare the players to be as physically and mentally tough as possible in order to play hard for four quarters and make the plays at the end of games that will ultimately lead to victory.

In the past three seasons, Louisiana Tech has posted five fourth quarter come-from-behind wins. In the four seasons prior, the Bulldogs had posted a total of five fourth quarter come-from-behind wins.

Harrington began his playing career at Louisiana Tech as a walk-on to the Bulldog football program in 1995 before earning a scholarship his sophomore season. He started every game at linebacker during his junior and senior seasons, leading the team in tackles both years with 121 in 1998 and 122 in 1999.

The Elkton, Md., native earned All-Louisiana honors in 1998 and 1999 while also being named to the All-Independent team by Football News in 1999. Harrington earned his bachelor's degree from Tech in fitness and wellness in 2000 and completed his master's degree in sports science in 2002.

He is certified by the College Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA).

Harrington is married to the former Meg Everett of Alexandria, and the couple have a four-year-old son, Luke, and a two-year-old daughter, Addison.

PIERRE INGRAM

Running Backs

In his first season directing Tech's tailbacks, Ingram guided Lennon Creer's 1,181 yard campaign during the 2010 season that included a 252-yard performance against San Jose State – the seventh most in a single game in Tech history. Creer also posted a 149-yard rushing day at No. 2 Boise State, more yards than 12 of Boise's 13 opponents recorded against the Broncos as a team during 2010.

Ingram joined the Bulldogs after winning a national championship at Villanova, where he coached the tight ends as an offensive assistant. In addition to working with the tight ends, Ingram was responsible for recruiting in Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee.

"Pierre [Ingram] comes from a winning program and he will bring tremendous energy to our program," said Dykes. "He loves the game and I'm looking forward to him bringing his energy and passion to the program. He will also be a great recruiting asset for us."

Prior to joining the Villanova staff in May 2009, Ingram served as the wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at Texas A&M-Commerce from January 2009 to June 2009. Before his short stint at Texas A&M Commerce, he was the assistant wide receivers coach at Cortland State.

During his stay at Cortland State, Ingram helped the team reach the NCAA quarterfinal round for the first time in school history and he coached the second wide receiver in school history to a 1,000 yard receiving season.

Ingram is a 2006 graduate of Middle Tennessee State University where he was a four-year letterman in football as a wide receiver. In 2006, he garnered the team's Most Dependable Receiver Award. After earning a Bachelor of Liberal Arts from Middle Tennessee, he went on to obtain a Masters of Science in Sport Management from Cortland State.

He is engaged to Dani Maye.

ED JACKSON

Character Education Coordinator

Long-time Louisiana Tech assistant coach Ed Jackson is now in his fourth year as the Bulldogs assistant strength and conditioning coach and is beginning his 19th season as a part of the Tech staff.

Jackson also works with the character education program for the Louisiana Tech athletics department.

For years Jackson has been actively involved as the counselor and sponsor for the university's Fellowship of Christian Athletes and his current role enables him to continue to mold the lives of Tech student-athletes.

Jackson played collegiately for Louisiana Tech in the early 1980s, but he never dreamed that a quarter of a century later he would still be a part of the Bulldog program.

In addition to his role as the character education coordinator, Jackson will also be working with the team as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

He will be trying to instill the same life lessons he learned as a player at Tech that helped him achieve so many years of success as a player, coach, husband, father and man of strong faith.

During his playing days at Tech, Jackson earned All-Southland Conference honors and first team All-Louisiana honors and was a member of the 1977 and 1978 Independence Bowl teams.

Jackson played professionally in the NFL for the Oakland Raiders, in the USFL for the Tampa Bay Bandits and Orlando Renegades and in the CFL for the Toronto Argonauts.

After his professional playing career ended in 1985, Jackson began his coaching career at Hinds Community College where he served as the defensive line coach from 1987 to 1991 and the defensive coordinator in 1992. During those six years, Jackson coached eventual NFL stars in Leon Lett, Marvin Washington, John Copeland, Pervis Hunt, Grady Jackson and Gary Walker.

Jackson returned to his alma mater in 1993 when he was hired by Joe Raymond Peace as the defensive ends coach. After four years at that position, Jackson was promoted prior to the 1997 season to assistant head coach by Bulldog head coach Gary Crowton while also moving to the Tech linebackers.

The father of five returned to the Bulldog defensive line in 2000 where he spent the past seven years.

During his 16 seasons as a coach at Tech, Jackson helped lead the Bulldog football program into the 21st century, including a trip into the Associated Press Top 25 in 1999 and a Western Athletic Conference championship title and subsequent bowl berth in 2001.

Jackson was also a finalist for the 1999 American Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year award.

He earned his bachelor's degree in education from Tech in 1983, and his master's in education administration from Mississippi College in 1989.

Jackson has five daughters: Ashley, Adrianna, Andrea, Aisha and Alexis.

JEFF KOONZ

Linebackers

Jeff Koonz enters his second year at Louisiana Tech guiding the Bulldog linebacker corps as 2010 saw three of his players finishing the season in the top four on the team in tackles with Adrien Cole earning second team all-WAC honors.

He joined the Louisiana Tech family as the Bulldogs linebackers coach after previously serving as a defensive quality control assistant at Texas, helping lead the Longhorns to a Big 12 title and an appearance in the 2009 BCS national championship game against Alabama.

"I am really excited to have Jeff [Koonz]] join our staff," said Dykes. "He comes very highly recommended and has worked under some great defensive-minded coaches like Gene Chizik and Will Muschamp. He brings a lot of knowledge and will be a tremendous asset to the program. He has great experience for a young coach, coming from top programs and learning from successful people."

Prior to his one-year stint at Texas, Koonz was the secondary coach at Iowa State for two seasons under Chizik while also assisting with special teams. Koonz's year as overseeing the defensive quality control at Texas was his second stint with the Longhorns having previously served as a graduate assistant coach in Austin during the 2005-06 seasons, coaching the linebackers.

"What a great opportunity this is to be a part of a wonderful program like Tech's," Koonz said. "Coach Dykes' reputation in the football profession is phenomenal and to be a part of what he is doing at Louisiana Tech is exciting."

Koonz was also a graduate assistant coach at Auburn during the 2004 campaign, coaching the secondary, and was a student assistant coach at Auburn for over a year.

Koonz graduated from Auburn in 2004 with a Bachelor's of science degree in physical education and received his master's degree in educational administration from Texas in 2006.

He married the former Maura McDermott in July 2011.

ROB LIKENS

Assistant Head Coach/Wide Receivers

Rob Likens enters his second season at Louisiana Tech as an assistant head coach and wide receivers coach.

In his first year, Likens oversaw a receiving corps that improved from 91st in the country in 2009 to 62nd in 2010 despite a revolving door at quarterback through the first third of the season. Likens coached Taulib Ikharo to a ninth-place rank in receptions per game among WAC receivers.

Prior to joining the Louisiana Tech family, Likens led Central Connecticut State as offensive coordinator to more wins than any other four-year period in school history.

Likens coached the Northeast Conference's top rushing offense for four straight seasons. CCSU's ground game also ranked in the nation's top-10 every year during under Likens. The Blue Devils averaged 239.18 yards per game on the ground in 2008. It was the seventh best team effort in the FCS. Central Connecticut also paced the NEC in scoring offense, averaging 30.0 points per game.

"Rob is a great addition to our staff," said Dykes. "I have known him for a while and have wanted to work with him for a long time. He has a great knowledge of the offense we want to install and as a Mississippi native, he brings a tremendous recruiting base, connections and experience."

Likens coached CCSU's ground game to a ranking in the nation's top-10 among FCS schools every year during his tenure as well as a winning record in all four seasons, capping off the 2009 season with a 9-3 mark. The CCSU rushing offense was tops among FCS schools in 2006.

Under Likens' guidance, the Blue Devils led the conference in scoring offense in two seasons, had three undefeated home records, averaged just under 30 points per game in four seasons (29.1) and won more games in a four-year span than any collection of teams in school history. Likens coached two 1,000-yard rushers, two Walter Payton finalists and two All-America running backs in Justise Hairston and James Mallory.

Likens also coached the school's all-time leader in passing efficiency (Aubrey Norris, 139.4) and two NEC Offensive Players of the Year in Hairston and Mallory. In all, Likens had 13 all-conference selections in his four seasons.

James Mallory earned second team All-NEC honors in 2008. With 1,520 yards, he became the second player in school history to crack the 1,500 mark in rushing. Mallory was also the fourth player to go over 1,000 career rushing yards under Likens. Aubrey Norris, who enters this season as the top-rated passer in program history, also accomplished the feat last season. That duo joins Jo Jo Freeman and Justise Hairston on the list of four. Also under Likens's tutelage in 2008, Nick Colagiovanni became the program's 11th receiver to eclipse 1,000 career yards.

In 2007, Likens's offense was number one in total and rushing offense in the Northeast Conference. The Blue Devils posted 387.7 yards per game, including 257.6 yards per game on the ground, ranking 10th in the nation in rushing offense.

The Blue Devil offense set numerous school records in 2006, including total yards and rushing yards in a single season. CCSU led the country in rushing yards per game (284.9) and finished 10th in total offense at 386.8 yards per game. As a team, CCSU set a new school mark with 42 rushing touchdowns and scored a school-record 51 touchdowns in 11 games. Likens coached Hairston, the nation's leading rusher, to AP All-America, AFCA All-America and Sports Network Mid-Major All-America honors. He also accompanied the NEC Offensive Player of the Year to the Hula Bowl. Hairston, who finished eighth in the Walter Payton Award voting, also appeared in the Texas vs. the Nation game.

In all, CCSU's offense has rewritten eight team records and six individual and game records under Likens. He has coached four first team All-NEC selections, four second team All-NEC selections and five NEC Offensive Player of the Week honorees. Prior to joining Central Connecticut State, Likens spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator at Southeast Missouri State. He was the wide receivers coach at Temple University in the Big East Conference from 1998-2003. Before Temple, Likens was an assistant coach at North Alabama where he helped guide the Lions to become the first program in NCAA scholarship football to three consecutive playoff championships, a feat that has only been replicated by Appalachian State (2005-06-07) since.

Likens returns home to the south as he as a former wide receiver at Mississippi State, earned his bachelor's degree in 1990. He earned his master's degree from North Alabama in 1995.

PETE PEROT

Offensive Line

As Pete Perot continues in his third decade on the Louisiana Tech staff, Bulldog fans will be thrilled to see the former NFL player on the sideline once again this fall as the Tech veteran enters his 22nd year in Ruston.

Perot's experience came through in the last two years as the offensive line paved the way for a Tech tailback to record 1,000 rushing yard seasons in consecutive years for the first time since Ryan Moats grabbed the nation's attention in 2003-04. Lennon Creer's 1,181 yards in 2010 followed Daniel Porter's 2009 mark of 1,164 rushing yards as Creer slashed through opposing defenses over the last two-thirds of the season.

Perot's return to the Louisiana Tech sidelines resulted in an offensive line that paved the way for an offense that finished the 2009 season ranked 29th in the nation in rushing and 46th in the country in scoring. Perot's offensive line also paved the way for Daniel Porter to become the school's all-time rushing leader with 3,352 career rushing yards as he became only the second player in Tech history to record back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

The long-time fan favorite was able to enjoy the Bulldogs postseason success as he returned to the Tech sideline to coach in the 17-10 Independence Bowl victory over Northern Illinois in late December.

Perot came to Louisiana Tech in 1986 as a volunteer assistant following an eight-year NFL career with the Philadelphia Eagles (1979-84) and New Orleans Saints (1985-86) which was highlighted by his start for the Eagles in Super Bowl XV.

In 1988, he was promoted to offensive line coach at Tech where he stayed until he departed for the same position at Southern Miss in 1997. After three years on the Golden Eagles staff, Perot returned to Tech in 2000 where he has been a mainstay on the Bulldog staff.

Perot has earned a reputation as one of the top offensive line coaches in the South, tutoring such greats as William Roaf (New Orleans Saints, Kansas City Chiefs), Grant Williams (New England Patriots) and Joey Chustz (Jacksonville Jaguars). Under Perot's tutelage, Roaf earned All-America honors in 1992 and was one of three finalists for the coveted Outland Trophy before being selected in the first round of the NFL Draft by the Saints.

The Natchitoches, La., native also coached former Bulldog left guard Aaron Lips, who earned all-WAC honors for three straight seasons while also starting a Tech Division I record 47 straight games. Lips was named to the Outland Trophy Watch List as a senior.

During his career at Tech, Perot's offensive lines have paved the way for the top eight single season rushing performances in Bulldog history, including Ryan Moats' record-breaking 1,774 yards and 18 touchdowns in 2004, and eight of the top 10 overall.

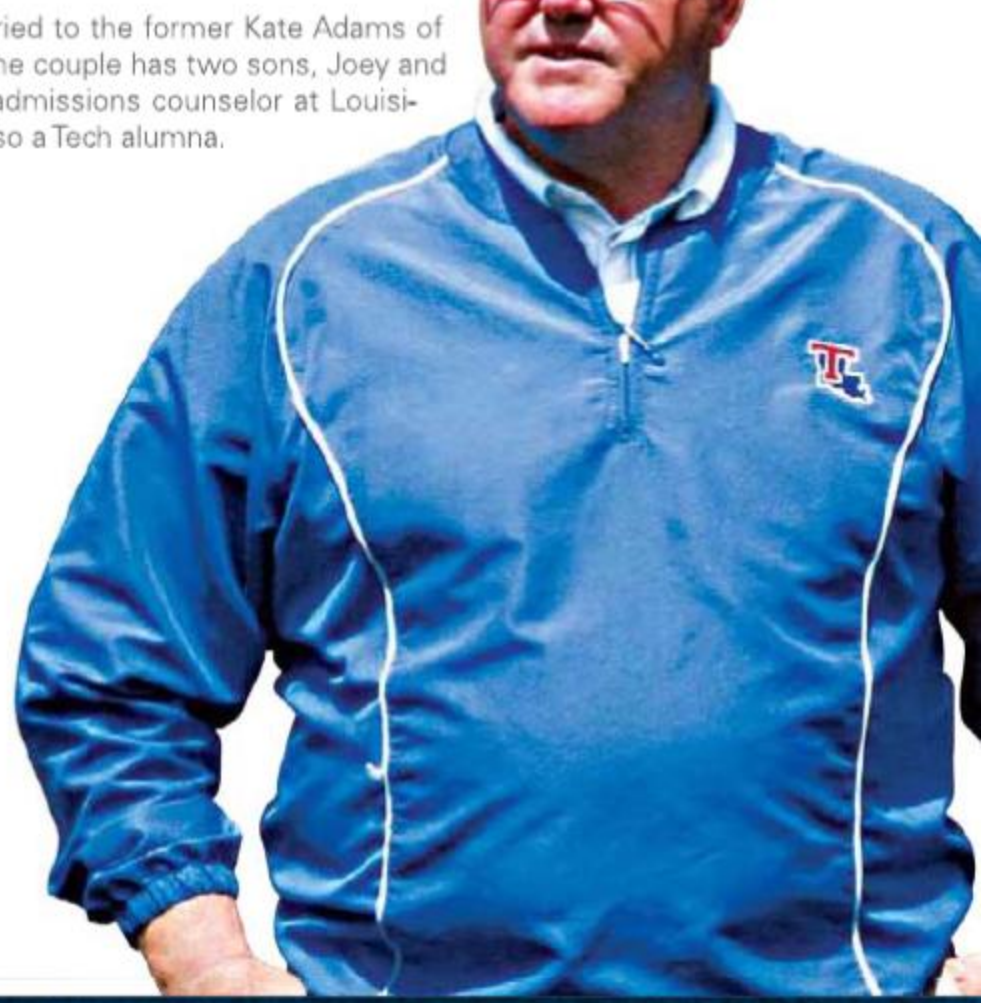
While at Southern Miss, Perot helped the Golden Eagles to three straight bowl appearances where his offensive lines paved the way for three straight 1,000 yard rushing performances (one by Eric Shaw in 1997, and two by Derrick Nix in 1998 and 1999). His 1999 line placed three USM players on the Conference USA All-Freshman team.

PEROT FAMILY
Pete and Kate

As a collegiate player, Perot started all four years on the offensive line at Northwestern State before being drafted in the second round of the 1979 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles.

The father of two also serves as the liaison between the Bulldog football program and NFL scouts.

Perot is married to the former Kate Adams of Hodge, La., and the couple has two sons, Joey and Josh. Kate is an admissions counselor at Louisiana Tech and is also a Tech alumna.



TOMMY SPANGLER

Defensive Coordinator/Safeties

Tommy Spangler enters his fifth season as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Louisiana Tech and his reputation as one of the college football world's top defensive minds has only grown over the last few years with the Bulldogs.

During that time, Spangler has taken a Bulldog defense that ranked dead last in the country (among FBS programs) in scoring defense, rushing defense and total defense prior to his arrival and coached them into one of the top defensive units in the Western Athletic Conference.

His energy and passion for the game and defensive philosophy are the reasons why former Louisiana Tech head coach Derek Dooley hired the veteran coach as the Bulldogs defensive coordinator and why, upon Sonny Dykes' arrival there was no better defensive coordinator to be found.

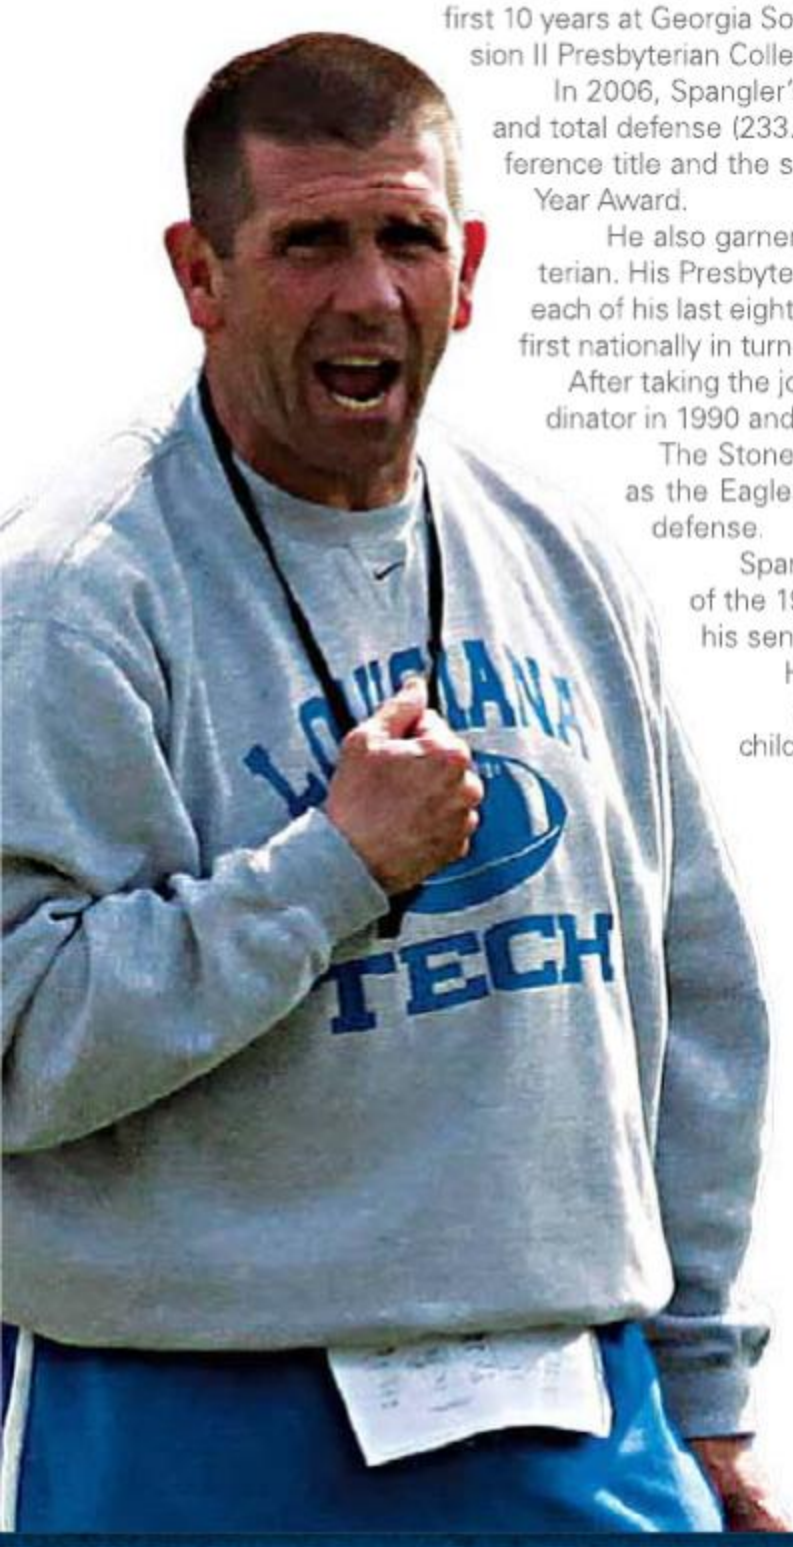
Spangler's safeties accounted for five of the team's interceptions with Chad Boyd leading the way with four picks returned for 75 yards. His defensive game plan held Navy's impressive triple option run game to under 300 yards for the second consecutive season.

Prior to Spangler's arrival on campus, Tech ranked dead last in the country in total defense (483.33 ypg) and scoring defense (41.7 ppg) and next-to-last in rushing defense (225.38 ypg) in 2006. However, under Spangler's guidance, the Bulldog defense has made huge strides and propelled the program to the 2008 Independence Bowl title.

In 2008, the Bulldogs allowed only 103.9 yards per game on the ground, the best since the program joined the FBS in 1989 and an improvement of over 120 yards per game in only two years. Tech ranked 13th nationally in rushing defense and did not allow a single 100-yard rusher the entire season.

Tech also allowed only 23.7 points per game, the best by a Bulldog team since 1992. It was an improvement of 18.0 points per game in the past two years. The Bulldogs also posted a 21-0 shutout over San Jose State during the season, the first shutout by a LA Tech team since 1996 (a span of 148 games). It was also the first road shutout since 1988 (a span of 225 games).

In his first two years at Tech, six Bulldog defenders earned all-WAC honors including safety Antonio Baker, a two-time first team honoree.



The 48-year-old Spangler spent the past two decades as a full-time coach on the college football sideline where he served the first 10 years at Georgia Southern, helping lead the program to a pair of Division I-AA national titles. He spent 10 seasons at Division II Presbyterian College in Clinton, S.C., where he served as the head coach from 2001-2006.

In 2006, Spangler's defense at Presbyterian ranked first in the South Atlantic Conference in scoring defense (13.2 ppg) and total defense (233.5 ypg) en route to a 7-4 record. In 2005, he led Presbyterian to a 10-2 mark, the South Atlantic Conference title and the school's first appearance ever in the NCAA Division II playoffs, earning him the league's Coach of the Year Award.

He also garnered two American Football Coaches Association Region 2 Coach of the Year Awards while at Presbyterian. His Presbyterian defenses were ranked in the top half of the South Atlantic Conference in all defensive categories each of his last eight seasons there, and his 1998 Blue Hose unit forced an incredible 48 turnovers in 11 games and ranked first nationally in turnover margin (+2.27).

After taking the job as the secondary coach at Georgia Southern in 1987, Spangler was promoted to co-defensive coordinator in 1990 and then took over the sole reins of the program's defense in 1992.

The Stone Mountain, Ga., native earned the Southern Conference Defensive Coach of the Year Award in 1993 as the Eagles won the league title and advanced to the playoffs. His defense ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense.

Spangler played defensive back at the University of Georgia from 1979 through 1982 and was a member of the 1980 Division I National Championship team that defeated Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl. He lettered his senior season helping Georgia to the 1982 Southeastern Conference title, the program's third straight.

He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Georgia in the spring of 1984.

Spangler is married to the former Kim Pierce of Ft. White, Fla., and they are the parents of three children: Pierce, Peyton, and Gracie.

MARK TOMMERDAHL

Special Teams Coordinator/Inside Receivers

Louisiana Tech landed one of the top assistant coaches in the South when long-time special teams coach Mark Tommerdahl joined the Bulldog staff in 2009.

Coaching the inside receivers and serving as the special teams coordinator, Tommerdahl came to LA Tech with more than two decades of Division I coaching experience serving as an assistant coach on some of the top programs in the country. He has served as an assistant coach on 12 bowl teams as well as five league champions and two division champions.

His experience and game-planning on special teams helped Phillip Livas tie an NCAA record in 2010 with the return specialist's eighth career return for a touchdown. Livas ended his career with four punt returns and four kickoff returns for a score.

Tommerdahl's coaching helped Dennis Morris garner all-America honors as well as being named the Tight End of the Year by the College Football Performance Awards. Morris finished his senior year at LA Tech with 38 catches for 623 yards and he had a national-leading 12 receiving touchdowns among tight ends in 2009.

Prior to spending the 2008 season at UL-Monroe, Tommerdahl served as the tight end and special teams coach at Texas A&M for five years. During his tenure with the Aggies, Tommerdahl helped lead the program to the Cotton Bowl (2004), the Holiday Bowl (2006) and the Alamo Bowl (2007).

He coached present-day Dallas Cowboys tight end Marcellus Bennett, who ended his Texas A&M career as the program's all-time positional leader in receptions and yards.

Tommerdahl's special teams units in College Station were also among the nation's best, ranking in the Top 20 in the nation in net punting 2006 (14th) and in 2007 (5th) and in kick-off returns in 2003 (10th), 2006 (2nd), and 2007 (20th).

The Alabama Crimson Tide were fortunate enough to land Tommerdahl's services during the 2001 and 2002 seasons as he served as the program's tight ends and special teams coach. He helped the Crimson Tide to the 2001 Independence Bowl and the 2002 SEC West Division title.

Tommerdahl also served as the tight ends coach and special teams coordinator during stints at TCU (1998-2000), New Mexico (1997) and Minnesota (1995-96) where he coached a Lou Groza finalist at all three schools.

TCU's kickoff return units were ranked No. 1 in the nation in back-to-back seasons while his special teams units ranked No. 1 in the league in three of four statistical categories.

In 1997 at New Mexico, four of the Lobos special teams units were ranked in the top 20 in the country as the team won the WAC Mountain Division title.

The Fergus Falls, Minnesota native began his collegiate coaching career in 1984 as a graduate assistant at Wyoming where he spent the next 11 seasons serving in numerous capacities including the tight ends coach, offensive coordinator and backfield coach. He helped lead the Cowboys to four bowl appearances and three WAC titles.

Tommerdahl earned his bachelor's degree in business and physical education from Concordia College in 1983 and his master's degree in business administration from Wyoming in 1986. He is married to the former Annette Jondahl.

ZACH YENSER

Graduate Assistant (Offense)

Zach Yenser joined the Louisiana Tech football staff in March 2010 as a graduate assistant coach for the offense. Yenser comes to Tech after serving as the running backs coach and strength coordinator at Colquitt County High School in Moultrie, Ga.

In his first season at Tech, Yenser helped offensive line coach Pete Perot as the unit paved the way for Lennon Creer to rush for 1,181 yards. Tech's line helped Creer record 149 rushing yards at No. 2 Boise State, more than almost any single team was able to put on the board against the Broncos in 2010.

While at Colquitt County HS, Yenser helped guide the Packers to an 11-3 record and an appearance in the Georgia 5-A state semifinals. Prior to coaching at Colquitt County HS, Yenser was an offensive line coach at Henderson State where his line only allowed 13 sacks in 430 attempts and the offense racked up 12 school records and on All-Gulf South Conference selection.

Yenser began his collegiate coaching career at his alma mater, Troy, where he was the offensive graduate assistant for the 2007 season, working specifically with the offensive line and special teams and helping the Trojans claim the 2007 Sun Belt title.

A 2007 graduate of Troy, Yenser was a four-year starter for the Trojans and helped the Trojans win the 2006 Sun Belt Conference championship, as well as the 2006 New Orleans Bowl title.

THOMAS GRAHAM

Graduate Assistant (Defense)

Former Tech deep snapper Thomas Graham was named a defensive graduate assistant coach in March 2011.

A four-year letterwinner at Louisiana Tech, Graham followed in his older brother Matt's footsteps during his four years where he started every game of his career as the Bulldogs' deep snapper, setting a new LA Tech career record for games played and started with 50.

After red-shirting in 2005 while his brother Matt finished his four-year career as the Tech deep snapper, Graham started all 50 games over the last four years, including the 2008 Independence Bowl victory over Northern Illinois.

In addition to the bowl victory, a couple of Graham's career highlights included recovering a fumble against Top 25 Boise State as a freshman and earning the LA Tech special teams player of the week award against Kansas as a junior.

Graham played three years for coaches Tommy Reeder and Billy Laird at Ruston High School where he earned all-state honorable mention honors his final two seasons.

KEITH BUNCH

Head Athletic Trainer

Keith Bunch enters his fifth year at Louisiana Tech as the head athletic trainer, where he oversees the Bulldogs' Sports Medicine Department while serving as the primary contact for the football program.

Bunch came to Ruston following a two-year stint as the associate head athletic trainer at Presbyterian College where he worked primarily with the Blue Hose football program. Prior to his time at PC, Bunch worked one year at Carolina Sportscare and Physical Therapy Clinic in Beaufort, S.C., while working with the area high school outreach program.

The 2002 graduate of the College of Charleston oversees a sports medicine department that works with Louisiana Tech's student-athletes from all 16 NCAA sanctioned programs.

Since his arrival on campus, Bunch along with associate head athletic trainer Michele Dummett have been instrumental in spearheading a number of improvements in the Sports Medicine Department. Some of these improvements include renovations and upgrades to the athletic training rooms in both the Charles Wyly Athletic Complex and the Thomas Assembly Center, the creation of additional positions within the sports medicine staff, and the creation of Docs for Dogs – a team of local specialty doctors that serve all of the LA Tech student-athletes.

Bunch earned his undergraduate degree in athletic training at the College of Charleston where he worked with the Cougars' women's soccer and baseball programs. While working on his bachelor's degree, Bunch completed a pair of internships with The Citadel football program in the fall of 2001 and Wando High School during the spring of 2002.

The Lodge, S.C., native earned his master's degree in higher education administration with a minor in sports management from Auburn in May of 2004. Bunch worked closely with the Tigers' football program during that time.

Bunch is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) and the Louisiana Athletic Trainers' Association (LATA).

BRADLY HERMAN

Student Success Specialist

Bradly Herman joins the Louisiana Tech Athletic Department this year as the student success specialist in the academic center working with the Bulldog football team.

Herman comes to Tech after working in the student athlete support services at Auburn since January, where he worked primarily with the Tigers baseball, swimming and diving teams.

He received his undergraduate degree in psychology from Louisiana Tech in 2002 and his master's degree in industrial in 2003. He then earned a master's degree in sports administration from Northwestern State in 2007.

Prior to joining the SASS staff at Auburn, the Harrisonburg native was an associate psychologist in Pineville from 2004-2007. He also worked as an assistant academic coordinator at Northwestern State from 2007-2008.

Herman also worked at Arkansas State where he was an academic coordinator from 2008-2010. He is married to Amy Herman and the couple has one son, Titus.

LESLIE KILETICO

Recruiting Office Coordinator

Kiletico's duties in the football office include organizing recruiting visits for prospective student-athletes, planning travel for coaches' recruiting trips, compiling prospective player information and handling all mailings to recruits.

Kiletico graduated from Louisiana Tech in the spring of 2007 with a degree in marketing and is originally from Marrero.

CLAY LEWIS

Head Equipment Manager

Clay Lewis was promoted to head equipment manager at Louisiana Tech in May 2011 after serving one year as the assistant equipment manager.

A native Louisianan, Lewis returned to The Pelican State after a year as the assistant equipment manager at Wofford College in Spartanburg, S.C.

While at Wofford, Lewis was responsible for all day-to-day equipment room issues, overseeing pre- and post-game laundry and packing for road trips. Lewis also worked with adidas, Wofford's official apparel supplier.

Lewis joined the Wofford staff after serving as a student equipment manager at Louisiana-Monroe, where he earned his degree in kinesiology in 2009. Lewis served as the interim head equipment manager at one point and has also logged experience as the equipment manager for Oak Grove and Ouachita Christian.

He and his wife, Deanna, currently reside in Monroe.

HUNTER McWILLIAMS

Football Operations

Hunter McWilliams joined the Louisiana Tech staff in the spring of 2010 in charge of operations for the football team as well as assisting Sonny Dykes with special projects related to the football program.

McWilliams comes to Louisiana Tech after spending the last three years as a financial advisor for Eltekon Financial in Austin, Texas and previously worked as a fishing guide for Discovery Land Company.

During 2009, McWilliams worked as a private deep snapper coach and was an assistant coach for Westlake Pop Warner football.

A two-year starter at deep snapper for the University of Texas (1999-2000), McWilliams converted 100% of his snaps and lettered both years as a walk-on. He received his degree in government from the University of Texas.

McWilliams is the son of David McWilliams, former head football coach of Texas and Texas Tech. He married the former Catherine Wagner this summer.

JACOB PEELER

Intern (Strength and Conditioning)

Jacob Peeler enters his third season as an intern in the Louisiana Tech strength and conditioning department under coach Damon Harrington.

Peeler returned to his alma mater after a short stint as the offensive line coach at Independence Community College in Kansas.

During his junior college playing career, Peeler played every offensive snap during his two years at Holmes Community College in 2002 and 2003 where he earned first team all-state and first team all-NJCAA Region 23 honors as well as All-American accolades.

After signing with LA Tech and redshirting in 2004, Peeler saw action in four games as a junior before starting all 13 games at center during his senior season helping pave the way for more than 4,000 offensive yards. He also earned Academic all-WAC honors.

ALEX RHODES

Intern (Equipment)

Alex Rhodes joined the Louisiana Tech football program as an intern in the equipment room in August 2011.

Rhodes was a student assistant for the sports medicine and equipment staffs at the University of North Carolina. He also worked as an intern in the merchandising department for the Carolina Railhawks FC professional soccer club during the 2010 season.

Rhodes graduated from North Carolina with a degree in exercise and sport science in 2011.

JASON RUSSELL

Graduate Assistant (Strength and Conditioning)

Jason Russell joined the Louisiana Tech strength and conditioning program as a graduate assistant in June 2011. He is primarily responsible for working with the men's basketball team as well as assisting with the football program.

Russell came to Louisiana Tech after serving as a volunteer assistant and intern at Sam Houston State for almost two and a half years. At Sam Houston, he worked primarily with the men's and women's golf teams as well as assisting with the football program and all other sports.

A three-year letterman on the track and field team at Sam Houston State, Russell threw the shot put, hammer and weight throw before graduating with a degree in kinesiology and a minor in health in August 2010.

Russell is currently working towards his master's degree in sports performance at Tech.

DAVID SNYDER

Director of Video Operations

David Snyder joined the Louisiana Tech football program in 2008 after serving at Indiana University and is now in his third year as Tech's director of LA Tech athletics video operations.

Snyder is involved with all 16 NCAA sanctioned sports at Louisiana Tech, shooting, editing, putting together highlights and coordinating the efforts of the video department.

The Clemson grad played an integral role in helping coordinate the efforts of the new video board that was installed at Joe Aillet Stadium in the summer of 2009. Snyder also served as the Western Athletic Conference representative to the College Sports Video Association (CSVA) for the second year in a row.

While with the Hoosiers, Snyder worked as a graduate assistant for the football team's video department and earned a master's degree in sport management. At Indiana, Snyder had responsibilities of filming and editing games, practices and opponents' film. He also maintained the cameras and related equipment.

Before his time at Indiana, Snyder earned his bachelor's in communication studies from Clemson where he worked as a student assistant videographer. At Clemson, he ran press conferences from a lighting and video aspect and also shot, edited and cut each sport's highlight tape.

Snyder also worked as a representative for the Big Ten Network for Indiana and has shot video packages for ACC Live, Fox Sports Net and ABC Sports. Snyder married the former Elizabeth Davis in 2010.

ANNA KAY SPRINGER

Executive Assistant to the Head Football Coach

Anna Kay Springer joined the Louisiana Tech football staff in December 2009.

Anna Kay's duties include overseeing the day-to-day operations of the football office and providing administrative support to the head football coach.

Anna Kay graduated from Louisiana Tech University in March 2002 with a degree in psychology and has one daughter, Bailey. She married the former Louisiana Tech and current Alabama head equipment manager, Jeff Springer, in April 2011.

KEVIN THOMASZEK

Graduate Assistant (Video Operations)

Kevin Tomaszek is entering his second year at Louisiana Tech University as the graduate assistant in the video department under the direction of David Snyder.

While at LA Tech he is pursuing his master's of science in kinesiology. His primary role is coordinating the filming and breakdown of practices and games for the football team and creating weekly highlight packages.

Tomaszek is a graduate of Boston University where he earned a bachelor's of science in history education. During his time at Boston University, he was a video assistant for the Boston College University football team and was a camp assistant for their summer high school camps.

His primary role at Boston College was managing the filming and editing of practices as well as the editing and breakdown of games.

CHRIS VASZILY

Intern (Strength and Conditioning)

Chris Vaszily returned to Louisiana Tech in 2010 as an intern with the strength and conditioning program. Vaszily comes to Tech after serving as the special teams coordinator for Louisiana-Monroe the past year.

Vaszily's first stint at Tech was from 2001-05 when he served as special teams, tight ends and wide receivers coach when Louisiana Tech entered the Western Athletic Conference and won its first league title during the 2001 season.

Prior to his first stop in Ruston, Vaszily was the special teams coordinator and linebackers coach at Charleston Southern University for one season, a I-AA member of the Big South Conference. His year at Charleston Southern came after spending one season coaching tight ends, running backs and special teams for the Barcelona Dragons of the NFL Europe League.

Vaszily also has worked as the tight ends, receivers and special teams coach at Liberty during the 1999 season, was the defensive backs coach and assistant strength coach at Itawamba Community College during the 1997-98 seasons and was an a strength and conditioning intern for Mississippi State in 1994. He broke into the coaching ranks at North Penn High School in Lansdale, Pa., coaching defensive backs and receivers.

Vaszily is a 1990 graduate of Albright College and earned his master's in sport science from the United States Sports Academy in 1994. He is married to the former Laurie LaBlue and the couple has two sons, Cole and Ty.

JOE AILLET STADIUM

Joe Aillet Stadium has been home to Louisiana Tech football for the past 40-plus years as Bulldog fans have watched legends such as Terry Bradshaw, Roger Carr, Fred Dean, Pat Tilley, Matt Dunigan, William Roaf, Troy Edwards and Tim Rattay all don the Tech red and blue.

Opened in 1968 at a capacity of 23,000, Joe Aillet Stadium – which wasn't given its current name until Nov. 11, 1972, when it was dedicated in honor of the former Tech coaching legend – has proven instrumental in some of the biggest wins in the program's 100-plus year history.

The facility was upgraded in 1985 when a luxury sky box was added to the press box and again in 1989, when an additional 7,600 seats were added, increasing the seating capacity to 30,600.

In the summer of 2006 Joe Aillet Stadium received a new surface as FieldTurf Mono – which is considered the top of the line artificial turf – was installed by FieldTurf Tarkett. In the summer of 2008, that turf was replaced with a new version to include the athletic department's new logo.

A brand new, state-of-the-art videoboard was installed in the north end zone in time for the 2009 season, a $2 million addition to the facility. Built by Daktronics, the national leader in scoreboard and videoboard manufacturers, it is 25 feet x 45 feet and can show one display or be split into multiple replays. In addition, the south end zone received a brand new LED scoreboard that all fans can easily see during the day or at night.

The stadium's namesake – Joe Aillet is a member of the Louisiana Tech Athletics Hall of Fame and the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame – guided his Tech teams to a 151-86-8 record and nine conference championships from 1940-1966. The winning tradition Aillet established during his days of coaching at Louisiana Tech has continued as the Bulldogs have posted 10 perfect seasons in the facility's history.

From the first game ever played in the stadium, a 35-7 win over East Carolina on Sept. 28, 1968, to a 22-14 victory over SEC foe Mississippi State in 2008, Joe Aillet Stadium been the site of some of the most magical moments in Louisiana Tech football history.

Joe Aillet Stadium has proven to be a tough place for opposing teams to play for more than four decades. Over the course of the stadium's history, Tech has dominated opponents as the 129-54-2 record indicates, a winning percentage of 70.5 percent. Since

Tech moved up to Division I-A in 1989, the Bulldogs have registered a mark of 67-28 at Joe Aillet Stadium, a winning percentage of about 70.5 percent.

In that inaugural game against East Carolina at Joe Aillet Stadium, a young quarterback named Terry Bradshaw guided the Bulldogs to the victory as Tech fullback Buster Herren scored the first touchdown ever at the stadium on a two-yard run with 6:20 remaining in the second quarter. It was just the first of many memorable moments for Tech fans in Ruston.

On two different occasions over the past 40-plus years, Tech has registered streaks of 18 straight wins at Joe Aillet Stadium.

The first such streak started with a 23-0 win over UL-Monroe in the final game of the 1971 season and ended with a 49-20 win over Tennessee-Chattanooga in the fifth game of the 1975 season. That run by coach Maxie Lambright's teams included two small college and one Division II national championship seasons.

During the late '80s and early '90s, the Bulldogs won their first 18 home games after joining the Division I-A ranks. Tech defeated Northern Illinois 42-21 in the first home game of the 1989 season to begin the streak with the last of the 18 wins being a 17-16 victory over Northern Illinois in 1993.

Included in that string of wins was a 31-30 victory over Colorado State on Nov. 17, 1990, that catapulted the Bulldogs into the 1990 Independence Bowl. Tech trailed 30-14 late in the third quarter before scoring 17 unanswered points, capped by Gene Johnson's 16-yard touchdown pass to Bobby Slaughter with 2:14 to play. The Bulldog defense held the Rams to four and out on their final possession as a wild celebration ensued, which ultimately ended in the goal posts in the south end zone being torn down by Tech fans.

One of the biggest individual matchups in the stadium's history came on Sept. 5, 1998, when two future NFL quarterbacks squared off as Central Florida's Daunte Culpepper led his team to a 64-30 win over Tech's Tim Rattay and the Bulldogs. Culpepper passed for 370 yards and four scores while rushing for 69 yards and two more touchdowns while Rattay passed for 524 yards and three touchdowns.

The 2000 season saw a milestone reached at Joe Aillet Stadium as the Bulldogs under head coach Jack Bicknell recorded the 100th win in the facility's history. True freshman quarterback Luke McCown tied an NCAA Division I freshman record by tossing six touchdowns in the milestone 48-14 victory over UL-Lafayette on Oct. 14, 2000.

Joe Aillet Stadium hosted its first nationally televised game on Dec. 5, 2002, when ESPN came to town to produce Louisiana Tech's game against Fresno State. Although Tech fell in the contest, it was another milestone for the program and the facility it has called home.

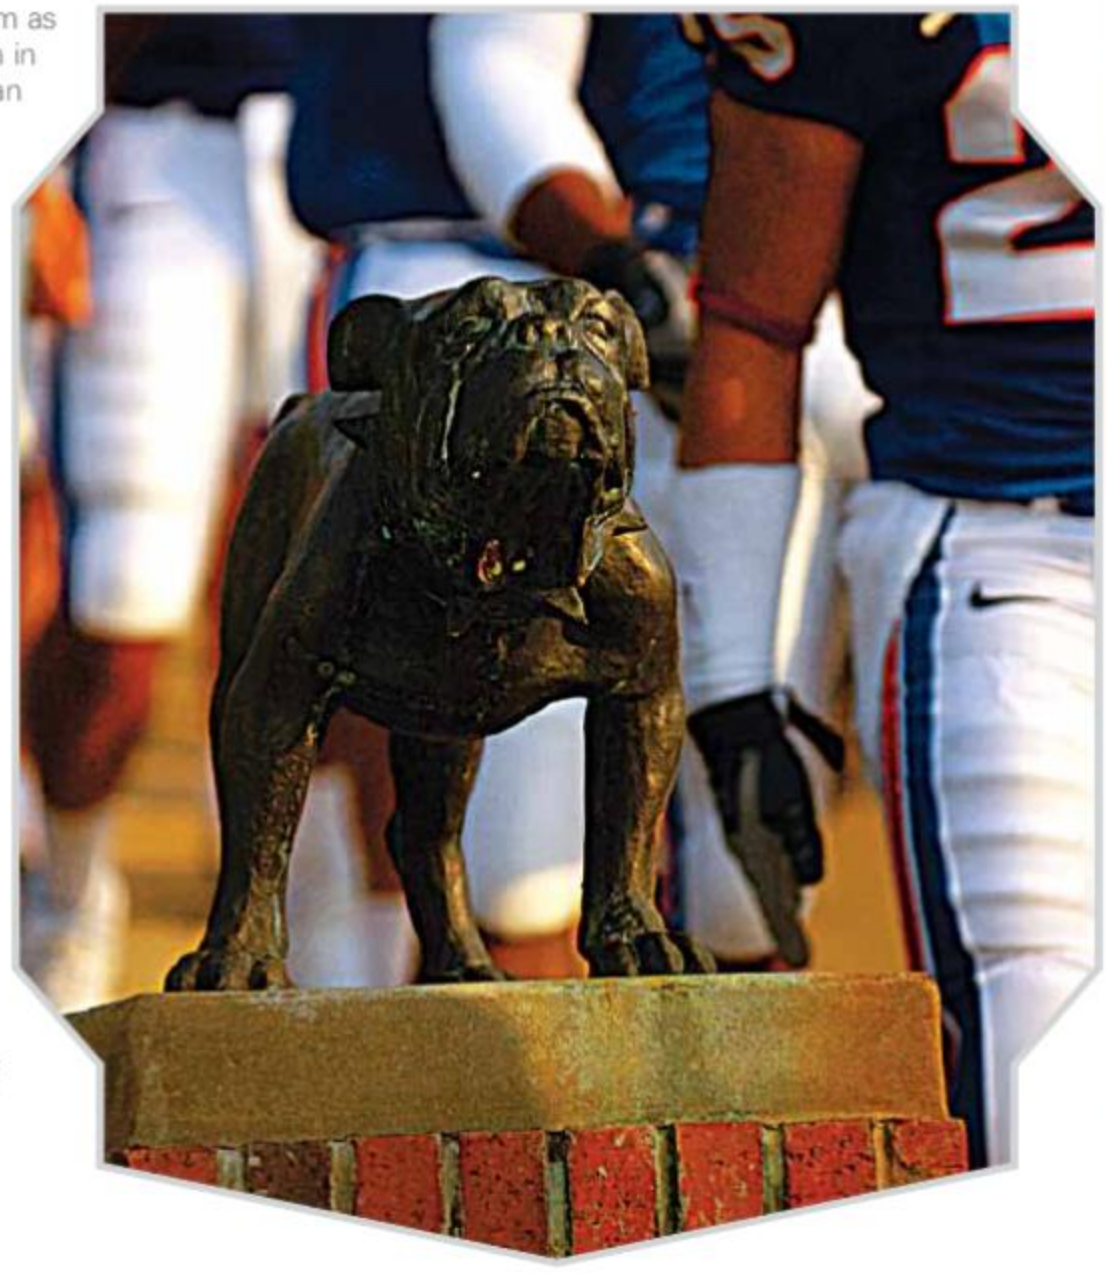
The 2004 season opened with another nationally televised home game, as the Bulldogs defeated Nevada 38-21 Sept. 6 on ESPN2. This was just a preview of things to come during the season at Joe Aillet Stadium.

Less than one month later, Tech fans were able to witness one of the greatest games in Joe Aillet Stadium history, as Louisiana Tech downed No. 17 Fresno State 28-21 on Oct. 2. Tech trailed 13-0 early in the second quarter before running back Ryan Moats and the Bulldog defense turned up their level of play. Moats rushed for 236 yards and four scores, including the game-winner with just under four minutes to play, which was set up by an interception deep in Fresno State territory.

The win was sealed when current Green Bay Packers star Tramon Williams intercepted Paul Pinegar with less than :30 remaining, starting a wild celebration that saw the goal posts in both end zones torn down.

These games and many more are what have made Tech fans the real winners over the years.

As the warm fall evenings approach and another year of Bulldog football begins, Joe Aillet Stadium will once again host some of the best college football the nation has to offer.



SPIRIT OF '88

At the south end of Joe Aillet Stadium stands a bronze Bulldog statue named the Spirit of '88.

The statue commemorates the 1988 Bulldog football team which blazed the path into Division I-A football for Louisiana Tech.

That 1988 team had to endure one of the most difficult schedules in school history. In what was the nation's 11th toughest schedule that year, the Bulldogs faced five I-A bowl teams including Houston, Florida State and Texas A&M.

The results were as expected: losses like 60-0, 56-17 and 66-3 ... but as a team, the Bulldogs grew. Those experiences likely played a key role in Tech finishing 5-4-1 the following year, its first in I-A, and 8-3-1 in 1990's Independence Bowl season.

The statue, which every Tech player touches as he walks down the ramp before every home game, also brought good fortune to the Bulldogs at home. On Oct. 14, 1989, when it was unveiled, Tech proceeded to pummel a very good Northern Illinois team, 42-21. That was just the start of one of the best runs in Tech football history.

Over the next four-plus seasons, home games were few and far between, but each one resulted in a win. The Bulldogs eventually reeled off 18 consecutive home victories, tying the alltime stadium record set by head coach Maxie Lambright's great teams of the early 1970s.

Some wins have been more magical than others. The endings to three of the biggest wins in school history have taken place in the south end zone ... almost as if the Spirit of '88 has played an integral role.

In only Louisiana Tech's second season in the Division I-A ranks, the Bulldogs trailed Colorado State 30-14 late in the third quarter and their bowl hopes looked bleak. However, 17 unanswered points later, Tech had rallied for a 31-30 win over the bowl-bound Rams to earn their own Independence Bowl berth.

The winning touchdown pass from Gene Johnson to Bobby Slaughter in the final minutes came fittingly in the south end zone, just in front of the Spirit of '88.

Eleven years later, Tech clinched a share of its first Western Athletic Conference title with a 48-42 win over Boise State at Joe Aillet Stadium. With the Broncos driving towards what looked like a game-winning score late in the contest, the Spirit of '88 magic struck once again.

Ryan Dinwiddie's potential game-winning touchdown pass bounced off the helmet of a Tech defender and high into the air before Bulldog defensive lineman Brandon Avance plucked it out of the air, giving Tech the victory.

Some might say it's a coincidence that the two biggest wins in the program's Division I-A history had been decided in the south end zone under the watchful eyes of the Spirit of '88.

However, the third time proved it was more than just chance.

On a warm Oct. 2 evening in 2004, Louisiana Tech found itself trailing No. 17 ranked Fresno State 21-20 late in the fourth quarter.

Fresno State had the football and the momentum, trying to move out of its own end zone – the south end zone – against a Tech defense and its 12th man, or should we say Dawg.

On third down Fresno State quarterback Paul Pinegar was intercepted by Byron Santiago who returned the football down to the 16-yard line.

Two plays later, Ryan Moats gave Tech a 28-21 lead and the eventual win as he rushed eight yards to the right corner of the south end zone. The Bulldogs had defeated the 17th-ranked team in the nation.

A Joe Aillet Stadium crowd of almost 20,000 celebrated wildly with the Tech players, coaches and the Spirit of '88.

Some may say the powers of that bronze Bulldog are a fluke. Tech fans won't agree. The numbers say 67 wins and just 28 losses since the Spirit of '88 was unveiled.

So fluke or not, the Bulldogs will continue to touch it each home game and hope the wins continue.

INDEPENDENCE STADIUM

Independence Stadium and Louisiana Tech have a long, successful history together as the Bulldogs have played 71 games in Shreveport, including four trips to the Independence Bowl.

All-time the Bulldogs are 46-22-3 (.643) in games played in Independence Stadium. Northwestern State is the most common opponent for Tech in Shreveport as the two programs met 48 times with the Bulldogs claiming a 34-12-2 mark in those games.

Although the majority of the games that Tech has played in Shreveport came during the old State Fair Games against Northwestern State, starting in the late '30s and ending in the late '80s, Tech has played some other big-time college football games at the site.

In the last two decades, Louisiana Tech has faced Northern Illinois (2008), Houston (1988), Maryland (1990), Baylor (1996), California (1997), Texas A&M (1999), Oklahoma State (2002) and Miami (2003) at Independence Stadium. Thrilling last-minute victories against California (41-34) and Oklahoma State (39-36) highlight the Bulldogs' successful history in Shreveport.

In all, Tech has played 19 different teams at Independence Stadium, and the Bulldogs have appeared in four Independence Bowls, beating Louisville 24-14 in 1977, losing 35-13 to East Carolina in 1978, tying Maryland 34-34 in 1990 and defeating Northern Illinois 17-10 in 2008.

Louisiana Tech opened the 2003 season at Independence Stadium as the Bulldogs played host to five-time national champion Miami on Aug. 28, 2003, in a nationally televised game on ESPN, which saw a Louisiana Tech regular season home attendance record of 43,279.

WAC

WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

Now in its 50th year of existence, the Western Athletic Conference continues to evolve and feature some of the nation's best intercollegiate competition. One thing that remains unchanged is the persistent nature of the schools in the WAC to advance their programs to contend at the top levels of the NCAA.

The WAC provides its student-athletes the chance to travel to scenic destinations and gain exposure in some of the nation's most diverse markets. In addition, the WAC's student-athletes work to achieve the highest levels of success with the academic support of their respective institutions.

The WAC has experienced tremendous success over the past decade. The WAC has sent a total of 35 teams to bowl games since 2001, including more than half of its teams in 2008 with a record-tying five teams. The conference has sent teams to BCS bowl games in three of the last five seasons including Hawai'i's appearance in the 2008 Sugar Bowl. In men's basketball, the WAC has sent at least two teams to the NCAA Tournament in 24 of the past 28 seasons. Every current school in the WAC has competed in the NCAA Tournament since 1990. In baseball, the WAC has boasted two national champions since 2003 including Fresno State's College World Series victory in 2008. In women's sports, Fresno State softball has competed in every NCAA Tournament ever held while Louisiana Tech basketball has played in all but three. In 2009, Hawai'i made its fourth trip since 2000 to the NCAA Volleyball Final Four, and in 2010, the Rainbow Wahine earned a trip to the Softball College World Series.

Current WAC alums have made their presence felt as well. David Carr (Fresno State) was the first player selected in the 2002 NFL Draft. Cheryl Ford (Louisiana Tech) was named the WNBA Rookie of the Year and helped the Detroit Shock win the league's championship in 2003. In 2004, the United States' softball team won the Olympic gold medal with former Fresno State players Laura Berg and Lovie Jung. Jeff Weaver (Fresno State) earned the win in the St. Louis Cardinals' World Series clinching victory in 2006. Quarterback Colt Brennan (Hawai'i) finished third in the 2007 Heisman Trophy voting, and in 2008, Natasha Kai (Hawai'i) helped the United States to a gold medal in soccer at the Olympics in Beijing.

In 2001, the WAC partnered with ESPN for coverage of football and basketball giving the conference national exposure from one of the most respected broadcast entities in the country. The WAC also officially added WAC.tv in 2006 to give fans streaming internet access to many of its postseason championships including volleyball, soccer, swimming and diving, basketball, gymnastics, softball and baseball.

The WAC is the sixth oldest among the nation's 11 Division I-A conferences. Its history traces back to July 27, 1962, when the original six-team league of Arizona, Arizona State, Brigham Young, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming began competition.

The first championship was held in November 1962, when Arizona won the men's cross country title and New Mexico followed with the first WAC football title. Arizona finished second in the NCAA College World Series and, less than three years later, Arizona State claimed the league's first NCAA title when the Sun Devils won the College World Series trophy. Fresno State was the last WAC school to earn an NCAA team title when it won the College World Series in 2008.

Since 1962, several changes have occurred. UTEP and Colorado State became members in September 1967, while Arizona and Arizona State withdrew on June 30, 1978. The WAC then added San Diego State (1978), Hawai'i (1979) and Air Force (1980). Before 1990, the WAC sponsored championships only in men's sports. However, a merger with the High Country Athletic Conference formed a single conference under one administrative structure, and the 1990-91 athletic year was the first in which both men and women competed under the WAC name. Fresno State was added in 1992, and then in 1996, the women's programs from Air Force and Hawai'i along with six new schools (UNLV, Rice, San Jose State, SMU, TCU and Tulsa) came into the WAC. Air Force, Brigham Young, Colorado State, UNLV, New Mexico, San Diego State, Utah and Wyoming withdrew on June 30, 1999. Nevada (2000), Boise State (2001) and Louisiana Tech (2001) were added while TCU withdrew following the 2000-01 season. The current membership was established on July 1, 2005, when Idaho, New Mexico State and Utah State joined the WAC after Rice, SMU, UTEP and Tulsa withdrew. For the 2012-13 season, the WAC will add Denver, UTSA, Texas State and Seattle to replace withdrawing members Boise State (2011), Fresno State (2012), Hawai'i (2012) and Nevada (2012).

The WAC has had just five commissioners in its history. Paul Brechler was named the first leader of the conference and held the position from 1962-1968. He was followed by Wiles Hallock (1968-71), Stan Bates (1971-80), Dr. Joe Kearney (1980-94) and Karl Benson (1994-present).

Presently, the WAC crowns team and individual champions in 19 sports – eight men's and 11 women's. For the men, there are championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis, indoor track and field and outdoor track and field. Championships for women are held in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field and volleyball.

The WAC office has been located in the Denver area since the conference's inception with the exception of a two-year stay in Phoenix from 1964-66.

KARL BENSON, WAC COMMISSIONER

When Karl Benson was named the fifth commissioner in the history of the Western Athletic Conference on April 20, 1994, he brought with him a wealth of experience and a personal history of success to the position.

Since that time, Benson not only has laid a strong foundation for the WAC's future, he has also steered the conference through unsettled times as the league's longest tenured commissioner.

Through his leadership and vision, it didn't take long for the WAC to regain its place among the nation's top Division I conferences. Benson has spearheaded conference expansion three times over the past decade with the most recent additions of Denver, UTSA, Texas State and Seattle.

Nationally, Benson has earned the respect of his peers after serving on the NCAA Management Council from 1999-2002, and a five-year term on the NCAA Men's Basketball Committee from 2002-06.

Benson hit the ground running when he was hired in 1994 and initiated several programs that improved the conference's national position in virtually every category. He was instrumental in developing multi-year agreements with the Holiday Bowl, Cotton Bowl, Copper Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl, Silicon Valley Football Classic, GMAC Bowl, New Mexico Bowl and currently, the Humanitarian Bowl, Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, Poinsettia Bowl and Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl.

In the summer of 2005, he implemented "Play Up" a new marketing campaign to improve the public and private perceptions of the WAC and its members through national, local and regional touch points. The conference officially added WAC.tv prior to the 2006-07 season, giving fans streaming video access to many of the postseason championships of the sports offered by the WAC.

In 1995-96, the WAC signed an exclusive multi-year agreement with ESPN for the unprecedented live coverage of its basketball and football. Included in that deal was a women's basketball contract, the first in conference history. In 2008, Benson negotiated an extension with ESPN that gave the WAC even more telecasts of its regular season and championship events.

Benson came to the WAC after four successful years as the commissioner of the Mid-American Conference. There, he implemented several innovative projects and was instrumental in the formation of the Las Vegas Bowl.

Prior to taking the reins of the MAC, Benson served on the NCAA staff for more than four years where he was the director of NCAA championships when selected as MAC commissioner.

Benson joined the NCAA staff in January, 1986, as a compliance representative and was appointed assistant director of championships in June, 1987. He was promoted to director of championships in 1988. In that position, Benson actively supervised eight assistant directors in their administration of 68 NCAA championships.

A native of the state of Washington, Benson graduated from high school in Pullman in 1970, attended Spokane Falls Community College and then received a bachelor of science degree in physical education from Boise State University in 1975. He has also completed course work toward his master's degree in athletics administration at the University of Utah.

Benson played baseball at both Spokane Falls Community College and Boise State University before serving as the baseball coach at Fort Steilacoom Community College in Tacoma, Wash., for eight years and as the director of athletics at Fort Steilacoom from 1979-84. From 1984-86, he was an assistant baseball coach and an administrative assistant in the athletics department at Utah.

He received the Distinguished Alumni Award from Boise State in April of 2006.

Benson was born on December 1, 1951 and has one daughter, Jessie.

LA Tech 20, Grambling State 6

September 4, 2010
Independence Stadium, Shreveport, La.

SHREVEPORT, La. - Myke Compton scored two first half touchdowns and the Louisiana Tech defense held Grambling State to two field goals as the Bulldogs defeated the Tigers 20-6 in the debut of first year head coach Sonny Dykes at Independence Stadium Saturday night.

Compton's 1-yard plunge in the first quarter gave Tech a 7-0 lead and his 2-yard scamper early in the second quarter increased the Bulldog's advantage to 14-3. Tech led 17-3 at the half before both teams traded field goals in an uneventful final 30 minutes of action.

In the much-anticipated debut of Dykes and the advertised high-octane style offense, LA Tech (1-0) showed growing pains during its 2010 opener as the Bulldogs totaled only 336 yards of offense while converting only 4-of-13 third downs in the game.

Early it appeared as Tech would easily pull away as the Bulldogs drove 69 yards on seven plays on its opening possession as Compton's 1-yard plunge on third down and goal with 12:49 to play gave it the lead. Tennessee transfer Lennon Creer set up the score with a 37-yard burst up the middle before being hauled down on the Tigers 2-yard line by J. Powell. Three plays later Compton used a second and third effort to finally cross the goal line for the first score of the season for the Bulldogs. Matt Nelson's extra point gave Tech the 7-0 lead.

Grambling answered immediately, driving 58 yards on eight plays before Bulldog linebacker Jonathan Zeno sacked Tigers quarterback Anthony Carrothers on a third down play inside the red zone to stall the drive. Zoltan Riazzo nailed a 39-yard field goal with 8:48 to play to make the score 7-3.

After empty possessions by both teams, Tech marched 80 yards on 12 plays to grab a 14-3 lead on Compton's second score of the game. The final 25 yards came on the ground as Creer and Compton pounded the Tigers defense. Nelson converted on the extra point to make it 14-3.

A three-and-out by GSU on its next possession led to a punt. However, the deep snap sailed over the punter's head before he retrieved it on his goal line, dodged a Tech tackler and got off an off-balanced punt that officially traveled six yards. Despite the great field position, Tech managed only 17 yards on six plays before Nelson drilled a 39-yard field goal, making it 17-3 Tech.

On the first play from scrimmage following the field goal, Bulldog defensive back Josh Victorian intercepted Carrothers on the Tigers 27 yard line and returned it to the 18. Tech drove down to the GSU five before a seven-yard sack of Ross Jenkins stalled the drive. Nelson then misfired on a 27-yard field goal attempt with 6:08 to play in the second quarter.

Neither team threatened the rest of the half as Tech took its 14-point lead into the locker room.

Grambling State took the second half kickoff and methodically marched down the field, covering 57 yards on 14 plays setting up Riazzo's 34-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 17-6. The drive took 7:29 off the clock as half of the quarter was gone before Tech got its first offensive possession.

Following an empty possession by the Bulldogs, Jenkins was pulled in favor of sophomore Colby Cameron. Jenkins finished the night completing 15-of-19 passes for 101 yards with no touchdowns and no interceptions.

Cameron performed admirably during the final quarter and a half, hitting on 8-of-12 passes for 95 yards. He spearheaded a 69 yard drive midway through the fourth quarter that brought Tech inside the GSU 10-yard line before his fourth and one pass fell incomplete behind his Bulldog target and Grambling State took over the football.

Danny Reyes took over at quarterback for Carrothers early in the fourth quarter after Carrothers was sacked by Matt Broha, injuring the true freshman signal caller. Reyes took the Tigers on one final drive late in the game before his first down passes was batted up into the air and intercepted by Chad Boyd, who ran it back to the GSU side of the field with less than a minute to play.

Creer led the Tech ground game with 69 yards on 17 carries while Ray Holley added 30 yards on five carries. In addition to his two touchdowns, Compton had 10 yards and four carries.

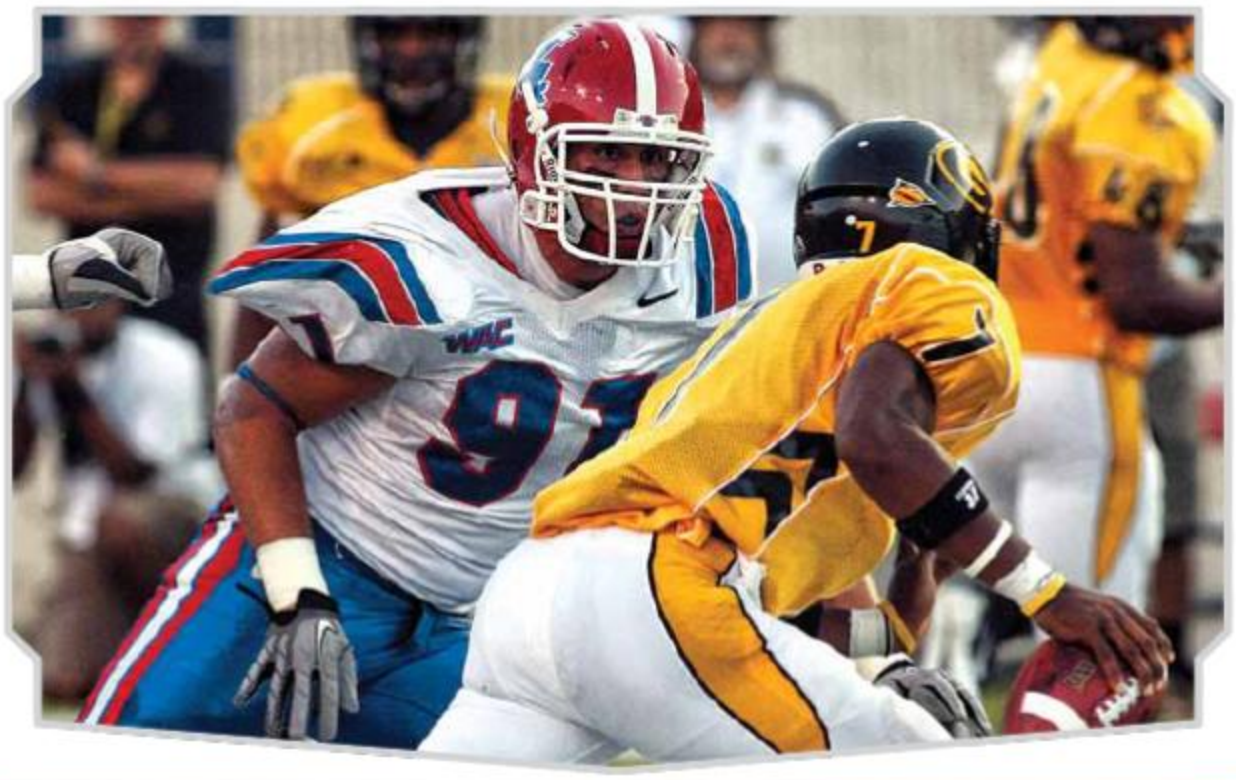
Adrien Cole led Tech with eight tackles while Jay Dudley, Broha, Mason Hitt and CJ Broades each totaled five. Broha recorded two sacks and a forced fumble in the game.



Texas A&M 48, LA Tech 16

Kyle Field, College Station, Texas

COLLEGE STATION, Texas - Louisiana Tech battled toe-to-toe against Big 12 foe Texas A&M through two quarters Saturday night, but in what felt like a blink of an eye, a sequence of four plays - including one untimed down - proved to be the separator.

With Tech trailing 14-10 and driving inside the Aggies red zone with less than 30 seconds to play in the second quarter, the proverbial tide turned - into a mini-tidal wave as Texas A&M road the momentum into a 48-16 win at Kyle Field before 77,579 fans.

A 44-yard touchdown pass on an untimed, final play of the half and a 67-yard Barry Sanders-like scamper on the second play of the third quarter allowed Texas A&M to push a four-point lead out to 28-10 in a matter of less than 90 seconds off the game clock. Although the Bulldogs kept fighting over the final 28 minutes, they never recovered as Tech fell to 1-1 on the season while the Aggies improved to 2-0.

The Aggies win didn't come easily early. With less than a minute to play in the opening half, the Bulldogs were driving for a potential halftime lead. With Tech facing a first down and 10 on the Texas A&M 16-yard line late in the half, Cameron fumbled when sacked from behind and the Aggies recovered on their own 24-yard line with only 18 seconds to play.

Instead of being satisfied with a four-point halftime lead, Johnson scrambled 17 yards to the 41-yard line with nine seconds to play. On the next play, Johnson threw what appeared to be a half-ending interception to Tech linebacker Adrien Cole who returned it to the Aggies 34 as time ran out. However, a personal foul penalty on Tech safety CJ Broades on a hit to the head of the intended receiver on the interception gave A&M the ball back on the Bulldogs 44-yard line. It also gave the Aggies an untimed down.

On the next play, Johnson rolled left and heaved a pass high into the air which was caught by Aggies Uzoma Nwachukwu amidst four Tech defenders for a 44-yard score and a 21-10 Texas A&M lead.

On just the second play following intermission, Aggies running back Christine Michael appeared to be corralled five yards behind the line of scrimmage but somehow kept his balance, spun out of the crowd and dashed 67 yards down the A&M sideline before being hauled down by Josh Victorian inside the Bulldogs 10-yard line. Three plays later, Johnson found Jeff Fuller for a 3-yard toss in the back left corner of the endzone for a 28-10 lead.

After the next Aggies possession led to a 40-yard field goal by Randy Bullock to push the advantage to 31-10, Tech answered with an impressive five-play, 74-yard drive that ended with a 35-yard scoring strike from junior college transfer Tarik Hakmi to tight end Eric Harper with 6:12 to play in the third quarter. It was Harper's first career touchdown reception and Hakmi's first career scoring pass. Matt Nelson's extra point was wide and the lead was 31-16 but that was as close as the Bulldogs would get.

A&M then opened up the fourth quarter with another scoring drive, this one capped by a Johnson 1-yard pass to Nwachukwu and a 45-16 lead. Johnson ended the night completing 25-of-38 passes for 349 yards and three scores. A 22-yard field goal by Bullock at the 5:44 mark of the fourth quarter ended the night's scoring for both teams as Tech fell to 0-10 all-time against the Aggies.

In a first half that was dominated by giveaways - the two teams combined for eight turnovers - Tech had opportunity after opportunity to take the lead after 30 minutes. However, two fumbles in the final three minutes of the half inside the red zone and an untimely penalty on what appeared to be the final play of the half cost the Bulldogs.

Tech took an early lead on a 37-yard field goal by Nelson at the 2:58 mark of the first quarter, capping a seven play drive that covered 38 yards. After A&M answered with two touchdowns - the first on a 3-yard run by Cyrus Gray and the second on a 10-yard pass from Johnson to Ryan Tannehill - Tech recovered a muffed punt on the Aggies one-yard line.

Following three straight runs by Hakmi netted zero yards, Tech called back-to-back timeouts before sending the offensive unit back out on the field. On fourth and goal, Hakmi faked a handoff to Lennon Creer and followed the bruising running back off of right tackle for the score.

Hakmi, who platooned with Cameron all night, completed 6-of-8 passes for 93 yards and one passing touchdown while rushing 10 times for 10 yards and one score. Cameron was 15-of-31 for 115 yards and two interceptions while rushing for 21 yards.

Navy 37, LA Tech 23

September 18, 2010
Joe Aillet Stadium, Ruston, La.

RUSTON, La. - Ricky Dobbs passed for a career-high 219 yards and one touchdown and led Navy to a 37-23 come-from-behind victory over Louisiana Tech before 23,122 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium on Saturday night.

Despite suffering an ankle injury mid-way through the third quarter, Dobbs directed three touchdown scoring drives over the final two periods of the contest as the Midshipmen (2-1) offense controlled the game grinding out more than 22 minutes in the second half.

After Dobbs directed an impressive nine-play, 97-yard drive on Navy's opening possession which was capped by a four-yard run by Mike Stukel, Tech got a pair of field goals from sophomore Matt Nelson to cut the deficit 7-6.

The Bulldogs then took its first lead of the game as Lyle Fitte recorded his first career rushing touchdown on a two-yard plunge with 9:08 to play in the second quarter. Nelson's extra point gave Tech a 13-7 advantage.

After Navy tied the game at 13-13 on a 25-yard pass from Dobbs to John Howell (extra point was missed), Tech responded with a third Nelson field goal - this time for 42 yards away to grab a 16-13 advantage with 5:09 to play before the half.

A Joe Buckley 37-yard kick tied the score with 3:18 to go in the half, before Colby Cameron led Tech on a nine-play, 71-yard drive and a 23-16 lead as he hit Ikharo Taulib on an eight-yard scoring toss with only 29 seconds to play. Originally the play was ruled as an incomplete pass but instant replay showed Taulib's foot had landed in-bounds on the near side of the south endzone and Tech took the momentum and the seven-point lead into the half.

Cameron led Tech to 328 yards and 18 first downs in the opening half as he finished the game with career-highs in completions (31), attempts (43), and yards (251).

Tech's offense and defense both looked a step slow in the third and fourth quarters as turnovers spelled doom.

After Navy took the opening kickoff and drove 72 yards on 12 plays to tie the game at 23-23 on a Dobbs 1-yard run, Tech took over on its own 47-yard line after a 41-yard kickoff return by Ryan Williams. However, on a third down and four play, freshman Jacarri Jackson recorded a four-yard catch for the first down but fumbled as Navy recovered.

Navy then returned the favor as Tech defensive back Chad Boyd made a one-handed, acrobatic interception on the Bulldogs one-yard line to stall the Midshipmen's attempt to take the lead.

After a first down run of 36 yards by Lennon Creer got Tech out of the shadows of its own goal line, Cameron underthrew an open Richie Casey as Navy's Kevin Edwards intercepted him and took over on the 46.

Dobbs then began driving the Midshipmen again before leaving the game with an ankle injury. Kriss Proctor then took over and finished the final 37 yards of the drive, including covering the final seven yards on a keeper as Navy led 30-23 with 31 seconds to play in the third quarter.

The only score of the fourth quarter was a 17-yard burst up the middle by Navy fullback Vince Murray with 11:09 to play to up the advantage to 37-23.

After its impressive opening half, Tech's offense managed only three first downs and 77 yards after the break while Navy recorded 17 first downs and 270 yards.

Creer led Tech's ground attack with 90 yards on 13 carries while Ikharo recorded career-highs with 10 receptions for 88 yards and one score.

Southern Miss 13, LA Tech 12

Joe Aillet Stadium, Ruston, La.

RUSTON, La. - Three fourth-quarter turnovers doused Louisiana Tech's hopes of a come-from-behind victory as Southern Mississippi held on to defeat the Bulldogs 13-12 before 22,344 rain-soaked fans at Joe Aillet Stadium Saturday night.

Tech (1-3) used a 19-yard touchdown pass from Tarik Hakmi to Richie Casey with 11:07 to play in the final quarter and a safety after a blocked punt by Rufus Porter with 10:01 to play to close a 10-point deficit down to 13-12.

However, a fumble by Ahmad Paige inside the Golden Eagles 40-yard line with less than nine minutes to play and a Hakmi interception on a throw into double coverage with less than three minutes to play sealed Tech's fate as the Bulldogs fell for the third straight time.

After the two teams played to a 3-3 tie in a first half that saw nine punts, Southern Miss took the opening kickoff and drove 60 yards on six plays and took the lead on a 23-yard strike from Austin Davis to Kelvin Bolden. Danny Hrapmann's extra point with 12:59 to play in the third quarter gave the Golden Eagles a 10-3 lead.

Offensively, Tech ran eight plays in the third quarter for negative five yards while USM (3-1) controlled the clock running 26 plays for 131 yards and holding onto the football for almost 12 minutes. USM's most impressive drive of the night took over eight minutes off the clock as Hrapmann's 37-yard field goal capped an 18-play, 8:10 drive and gave the Eagles a 13-3 lead with 3:00 to play.

Down 10 heading into the fourth quarter, Tech mounted a seven-play, 84-yard drive in heavy rainfall highlighted by a 36-yard pass play to Lyle Fitte who broke a couple of tackles down near the line of scrimmage and raced inside Southern Miss territory. After Hakmi recorded a first down and a fourth-down and 1-play, he found Casey for his first career touchdown reception.

After a three and out by the Eagles on the ensuing possession forced a punt, Porter came free and blocked the punt into the USM endzone. The red-shirt freshman had an opportunity to fall on the ball in the back of the endzone but it squirted away as USM batted out of the back of the endzone for a safety. USM led 13-12.

After receiving the free kick, Tech drove to the USM 40-yard line but on a second-and-three play, Paige caught a swing pass but fumbled as he was hit by Deddrick Jones as the Eagles recovered on their own 32-yard line.

"You go down one point with excellent field position and then we turned the ball over," said Dykes. "That is extremely discouraging. Our turnovers have come at incredibly inopportune times this season."

Tech got one final shot after the Bulldogs defense forced a punt with less than four minutes to play. After three straight plays netted 40 yards, Hakmi launched an ill-advised pass into coverage as Deron Wilson came away with the interception.

Hakmi, who came into the game for starter Colby Cameron after the first two possessions of the contest, ended the night completing 22-of-35 passes for 262 yards, 1 touchdown and 2 interceptions. Ten different Bulldogs recorded at least one reception led by Phillip Livas (5-47), Carey Fortson (3-66) and Paige (3-41).

USM outgained Tech 425-309 and held a significant advantage in time of possession at 38:25 to 21:35.

Tech's defense was led by Jay Dudley's 13 tackles while CJ Broades (9 tackles), Adrien Cole (8 tackles), and Shakeil Lucas (8 tackles) also had productive nights.

HONOLULU, Hawai'i - Bryant Moniz passed for 532 yards and four scores to lead Hawaii to a 41-21 win over Louisiana Tech in the Western Athletic Conference opener for both teams at Aloha Stadium late Saturday night.

With the loss, Tech fell to 1-4 on the season and has now lost nine straight road games dating back to a victory at New Mexico State in 2008. Hawaii, who entered the game ranked No. 1 in the country in passing, improved to 3-2 on the year.

The Warriors used a prolific passing attack and a stellar defensive effort over the first quarter and a half to jump out to a 24-0 lead before Bulldog head coach Sonny Dykes went to the bench to senior signal caller Ross Jenkins, who sparked the LA Tech offense.

Jenkins, who hadn't taken a snap from center since the third quarter of the season opening win over Grambling State, promptly led the Bulldogs on a 10-play, 80-yard drive which was capped by a 32-yard scoring strike to Richie Casey as the deficit was cut to 24-7 with 2:49 to play in the second quarter.

After the Bulldogs defense recovered a fumble with less than a minute to play, Jenkins almost led Tech to its second score of the half thanks to some creative play calling late.

With only three seconds to play in the half and the football on the Tech 42-yard line, Jenkins completed a short pass to Taulib Ikharo who pitched the football to Phillip Livas, who then shoveled it to Lennon Creer who scampered down the sideline before being pushed out at the UH 20 by the final Warriors defender in the vicinity.

Although Tech trailed 24-7, the Bulldogs had some momentum and confidence heading into the locker room.

Jenkins and Co. then picked up where it left off in the third quarter as the Bulldogs drove 75 yards on 11 plays on its opening possession to cut the lead to 24-13 on Ray Holley's one-yard plunge with 11:59 to play. Matt Nelson's extra point made the score 24-14.

The touchdown marked the first time Tech had scored on the opening possession of the second half this season.

"I thought we did a pretty good job of coming back and giving ourselves a chance in the second half," Dykes said. "We got down so fast and played so poorly early in the ball game. Our kids really played hard and had a chance to get back in the game.

"We just couldn't quite make a play or two–couldn't convert a fourth down when we had a chance, got a turnover and couldn't do much with it. That's just a sign of our inconsistencies that's kind of been plaguing us all year. But I thought our kids really played hard, especially in the second half. It's been a long trip, and I thought they gave great effort across the board tonight."

However, Tech's momentum was short-lived as Moniz orchestrated a 5-play, 75-yard drive that resulted in a 19-yard touchdown pass to Greg Salas as UH upped the lead back to 31-14. Tech would get no closer than 34-21 on a Jenkins eight-yard toss to Tim Molten late in the third quarter.

Moniz capped the scoring with a 29-yard scoring toss to Salas, who broke two tackles around the 20-yard line and then raced untouched into the end zone.

UH receiver Kealoha Pilares set a program record with 18 catches on the night for 204 yards and two scores while Salas added 10 receptions for 197 yards and two scores.

"I think (Hawai'i's) receivers are outstanding," Dykes said. "That's as good a group of receivers as I've seen. They're fun players to watch, their quarterback's really good. When they're operating at this level like they were tonight, they're going to be a very difficult team to beat, especially over here. They play well at home. If they can continue to execute at this level, they'll give people headaches."

Jenkins finished the night completing 19-of-26 passes for 215 yards, two scores and one interception. Casey led Tech's receiving corps with a career-high eight receptions for 98 yards and one score.

Myke Compton rushed eight times for 58 yards while Creer added 12 carries for 57 yards in the game.

Chad Boyd and Jay Dudley led the Tech defense with seven tackles each followed by Tank Calais and Olajuwon Paige with six stops each. Adrien Cole and Matt Broha each registered one sack while Broha added a fumble recovery.

LA Tech 24, Utah State 6

Joe Aillet Stadium, Ruston, La.

RUSTON, La. - Lennon Creer rushed for a career-high 120 yards and two touchdowns and the Louisiana Tech defense dominated for four quarters to lead the Bulldogs to a 24-6 win over Utah State Saturday afternoon before 16,073 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium.

While Creer was spearheading a Bulldog rushing attack that totaled 278 yards on the ground, the LA Tech defense stifled quarterback Diondre Borel and the Aggies offense holding Utah State to only 195 total yards and a pair of Peter Caldwell field goals.

The win snapped a four-game losing streak for the Bulldogs, who improved to 2-4 on the year (1-1 WAC) heading into next week's homecoming match-up against Idaho. Kickoff time is slated for 3 p.m.

The storyline for the win was Tech's defense which was much maligned following last weekend's performance that saw Hawaii quarterback Bryant Moniz throw for more than 500 yards and four scores.

Saturday was different.

Utah State, which was coming off an impressive 31-16 win over Brigham Young last weekend, failed to find the endzone through four quarters. Tech forced seven punts in the game and with the contest still in reach heading into the fourth stanza, the Bulldogs buckled down - holding the Aggies to only 12 net yards on nine offensive plays over their final three possessions.

The Bulldogs corralled Borel all afternoon as the versatile senior signal caller managed only 113 total yards of offense, rushing 10 times for 40 yards and completing 14-of-23 passes for 73 yards. Borel's longest completion on the afternoon was 11 yards.

While the Tech defense was recording it best performance of the year, the Bulldog offense wasn't far behind. Utilizing the "Wild Dog" formation, Tech rushed for a season-high 278 yards and averaged 5.9 yards per carry.

Although Ross Jenkins got the start for Tech - the senior gave the Bulldogs an early lead with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Tim Molten 4:53 to play in the first quarter - , Dykes turned to a plethora of "quarterbacks" as Molten and Creer took snap after snap and used some solid blocking and some misdirection to baffle the Aggies defense.

Creer's two-yard run with 7:30 to play in the second quarter came out of the Wild Dog formation and gave Tech a 14-0 advantage. It capped a eight-play, 62-yard drive that was highlighted by 20-yard pass from Jenkins to Molten that took the ball deep inside Utah State territory.

Utah State finally got on the scoreboard late in the second quarter on a 40-yard field goal by Caldwell which capped a 10-play, 47-yard drive. It was one of only three drives that Utah State had all afternoon that covered more than 25 yards.

The second half turned into more of the same for Utah State. After taking their first possession of the second half and driving 73 yards and kicking a 22-yard field goal - Tech stopped USU on a third down and three play from the five-yard line - , the Aggies offense was done for the day.

Utah State's final four possessions following the field goal netted a grand total of 32 yards and only one first down. Meanwhile, the Tech offense continued to grind away with the run game and a timely passing attack that saw the Bulldogs record 27 first downs and hold onto the football for more almost 21 minutes in the final two quarters.

Jenkins, making his first start since the Grambling State game, completed 20-of-32 passes for 149 yards and one score.

In addition to Creer's impressive day on the ground, Molton added a career-high 93 yards on eight carries while Myke Compton chipped in with 57 yards on 12 carries.

Defensively, Adrien Cole led Tech with a career-high tying 12 tackles, including seven that came on the first offensive possession of the game for the Aggies. Matt Broha recorded four tackles, including two tackles for loss, and his 11th career sack which put him in the Top 10 in the Tech record books.

IK Enemkpali added his first two career sacks for the Bulldogs as well.

RUSTON, La. - Behind career performances from Ross Jenkins and Lennon Creer, Louisiana Tech found its offensive rhythm Saturday in a 48-35 homecoming victory over Idaho before 19,750 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium.

Jenkins torched the Vandals (3-3, 0-1 WAC) for a career-high 422 yards through the air, completing 31-of-44 passes and three touchdowns. The senior, who also rushed eight times for 34 yards and another score, didn't throw an interception in the game.

While Jenkins and nine Tech receivers were doing their jobs through the air, Creer was chewing up the Vandals on the ground to a tune of a career-high 179 yards and two scores. As a team, the Bulldogs rushed for 261 yards and averaged almost five yards a carry.

"It felt good to get the second home win," said Tech head coach Sonny Dykes. "We knew it was going to be a hard-fought game. Idaho is a really good football team.

"I'm really proud of our team. Two weeks ago, people were writing us off, but we've got a lot of fight in us. Our players never had a sense of panic."

As a team Tech racked up 683 yards of total offense, the fourth most in Bulldog history. It marked the first time since 2003 that a Bulldog team had eclipsed the 600-yard plateau (623 against Hawaii).

Jenkins 422-yard performance was also the first time a Tech quarterback had passed for more than 400 since Luke McCown torched Hawaii for 403 yards on Oct. 18, 2003. It was also the 30th 400-yard passing performance in Bulldog history.

With Tech trailing 14-10 with less than a minute to play before the half, Dykes opted to pass on an opportunity for a 49-yard Matt Nelson field goal on a fourth-down and nine play with 38 seconds to play. Instead Jenkins dropped back and under an all-out blitz, hit Ahmad Paige for a touchdown and a 17-14 Tech halftime lead.

"I felt like that was critical," Dykes said. "Ross did a great job of staying in the pocket and giving Ahmad a chance to get it."

The score seemed to ignite the Bulldogs heading into the second half as Tech came out in the third quarter and scored three touchdowns. Jenkins opened the third quarter with a four-yard run with 11:15 to play that capped a nine-play, 45-yard drive.

Ten minutes later, Jenkins struck again through the air as he hit Paige for a 7-yard score on a pass into the flat as Paige broke a tackle and weaved his way into the endzone for a 31-14 lead. The score capped an impressive 10-play, 72-yard drive.

Idaho answered quickly though as on the first play from scrimmage following the ensuing kickoff Vandals quarterback Nathan Enderle hit Justin Veltung on a 76-yard scoring toss down the left sideline, pulling the Vandals to within 10 points.

However, once again Jenkins and the Bulldogs had the answer. After Phillip Livas mishandled the kickoff and Tech took over at its own seven-yard line, Jenkins and Creer drove Tech to the 48-yard line. On a first down and 10-play, Jenkins capitalized on a free play as hit found Livas for a 52-yard strike as the defensive offside penalty was declined. Tech led 38-21 after three quarters.

Livas was just one of a number of Bulldog receivers who had a big day, including Richie Casey who totaled career highs with nine receptions for 117 yards.

"Everybody is more relaxed and has a better feel for the offense," Casey said. "We're playing like we know how. As the season goes on, you learn as you play. It's going to continue. As long as we keep working on details, like coach Franklin says, when it happens, it's going to happen."

Idaho never pulled any closer than 10 points in the final quarter as Nelson 39-yard field goal and a Creer 1-yard plunge ended the Bulldogs scoring.

"We didn't play well; they did ... bottom line," said Vandals head coach Robb Akey. "They played better than we did. We gave ourselves opportunities, but we didn't capitalize. Louisiana Tech played a better game than we did today."

No. 2 Boise State 49, LA Tech 20

Bronco Stadium, Boise, Idaho

BOISE, Idaho - Two turnovers and three empty trips inside the 10-yard line were too much to overcome as Louisiana Tech fell 49-20 to second-ranked Boise State (7-0, 3-0 WAC) before 32,026 fans at Bronco Stadium Tuesday night.

Tech (3-5, 2-2 WAC) trailed 28-7 at the half but a touchdown early in the third quarter on a 23-yard pass from Ross Jenkins to Phillip Livas cut the deficit to 28-13. Matt Nelson's extra point was wide right.

On the ensuing kickoff the Bulldogs recovered a BSU fumble and drove down to the Broncos' nine-yard line. However, a fourth down and two pass play fell incomplete giving the football back to Boise State. It was the first of three second half trips inside the Broncos 10-yard line where Tech would fail to score.

Following the turnover on downs, Boise State promptly drove 91 yards on eight plays, the final 26 coming on a busted play where Broncos running back Jeremy Avery fumbled a fake handoff out of the wildcat formation, picked it up and then ran around the left end untouched for the score.

After Tech running back Myke Compton fumbled on the first play from scrimmage after the ensuing kickoff, Boise State took only six plays to march 34 yards and increase the advantage to 42-13 on a seven-yard pass play from wide receiver Austin Pettis to quarterback Kellen Moore.

The Bulldogs fumbled the ensuing kickoff and Boise State began marching again before linebacker Solomon Randle intercepted Moore's pass - only the second interception of the season against the Broncos signal caller. It was Randle's first career interception.

Tech then drove down to the Boise State two-yard line before stalling again as two runs and two incomplete passes failed to crack the endzone as Boise State took over on its own three yard line. Five plays later, Martin scored on a 20-yard run as the score increased to 49-13.

Creer capped the scoring with a 25-yard touchdown run with 44 seconds remaining in the game where he broke two tackles before rumbling into the endzone. The run capped the third straight 100-yard rushing performance by Creer, who ran for 149 yards and two scores on a career-high 35 carries.

The 35 carries tied for the seventh most in a single game in Tech history and the most since Ryan Moats carried 38 times against Hawaii in 2004.

Creer led a Bulldog offense that ran 89 offensive plays, registered 25 first downs and 394 total yards of offense against the nation's top ranked defense that came into the game allowing only 210 yards and 12 points a game.

Jenkins was solid behind center, completing 24-of-39 passes for 222 yards and one touchdown while completing at least one pass to 10 different receivers. For the third time in four starts this year, Jenkins didn't throw an interception.

Defensively, Tech held tough against the nation's third ranked offense, allowing 468 yards - including 163 yards on the ground and 305 through the air. Boise State entered the game averaging more than 525 yards per game and 48 points.

Moore completed 20-of-28 passes for 298 yards and two touchdowns while Doug Martin rushed 21 times for 150 yards and two scores.

Fresno State 40, LA Tech 34

Joe Aillet Stadium, Ruston, La.

RUSTON, La. - Robbie Rouse rushed for 286 yards and one touchdown and Ryan Colburn tossed three touchdowns to lead Fresno State to a 40-34 win over Louisiana Tech before 17,051 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium Saturday afternoon.

Behind a rushing attack that totaled 300 yards, Fresno State (6-2, 3-1 WAC) dominated possession of the football all afternoon as the California-based Bulldogs held onto the ball for more than 41 minutes compared to Louisiana Tech's 19 minutes.

"It was a tough game today; a disappointing loss," said Tech head coach Sonny Dykes. "We did not play well on either side of the football. I'm really surprised that we had a chance to win as poorly as we played."

Tech (3-6, 2-3 WAC) jumped out to an early 14-0 lead less than four minutes into the contest. The Bulldogs struck first on a 28-yard scoring toss from Ross Jenkins to Taulib Ikharo, capping a six play, 48-yard drive as Matt Nelson's extra point made the score 7-0.

After a fumble recovery by Mason Hitt on a sack by Jay Dudley of Colburn, Tech took over on the Fresno State 43-yard line. On the first play from scrimmage, Jenkins threw a lateral to Richie Casey in the right flat who then turned back and threw back across the field to Jenkins who ran 42 yards before fumbling on the one-yard line.

However, Ikharo recovered the fumble in the endzone for Tech giving the Bulldogs a 14-0 lead.

After Fresno State cut the lead to 14-7 on a Colburn six-yard pass to Jamel Hamler with 6:52 to play in the opening quarter, Tech marched again down to the FSU 24-yard line. A fourth down and two play was snuffed by the FSU defense as Pat Hill and Co. took over with 4:18 to play in the quarter.

Tech's offense would struggle after the failed conversion, not recording another first down until midway through the third quarter.

Fresno State's Kevin Goessling hit a 49-yard field goal with 9:09 to play in the second quarter as Tech led 14-10 at the break.

After Fresno State took a 17-14 lead on a Colburn 10-yard pass to Hamler, Tech reclaimed the lead as Jenkins found Ikharo for a 20-yard strike with 7:11 to play in the third quarter and a 21-17 Bulldog lead.

Fresno State then scored 17 unanswered points to begin the fourth quarter, the last coming on a 33-yard touchdown pass to Hamler (his third of the game) as FSU led 33-21 with only 4:10 to play.

However, on the ensuing kickoff Phillip Livas fielded the ball on the Tech five-yard line, faked the reverse and then raced 95-yards almost untouched to the endzone to make the score 33-28. The return was Livas' seventh kickoff/punt return of his career, moving him to within one of the all-time NCAA Division I record shared by five other individuals (the last being CJ Spillers of Clemson).

The Bulldog defense then forced a Fresno State punt as Tech took over on its own 32-yard line with 3:06 to play. After a five-yard carry by Lennon Creer on first down, Jenkins tried to go downfield but was intercepted by Fresno State's Desia Dunn who returned the ball to midfield.

"I thought we had made more progress," Dykes said. "For us to play the way we did this late in the season is really disappointing."

Rouse then raced 51-yards untouched for a score to up the FSU lead to 40-28 with 2:20 to play.

"We gave up a lot of big plays," Dykes said. "We knew they were going to run the football; that is what they do. But if we don't go three and out six or seven times on offense, ..."

LA Tech would not go quietly though as Jenkins then orchestrated a seven-play, 67-yard drive as he found Casey in the left corner of the endzone for a 19-yard touchdown with 1:12 to play in the game. Nelson's extra point was blocked as LA Tech trailed 40-34.

Tech's onside kick was recovered by Fresno State, who then ran out the clock.

Creer was held in check all afternoon, totaling only 56 yards on 17 carries. Jenkins completed 16-of-30 passes for 176 yards and three touchdowns.

Dudley led Tech defensively with a career-high 18 tackles while Adrien Cole (11 tackles), Chad Boyd (11 tackles) and Javontay Crowe (10 tackles) all eclipsed double digits.

LA Tech 41, New Mexico State 20

Aggie Memorial Stadium, Las Cruces, N.M.

LAS CRUCES, N.M. - Phillip Livas scored on a 62-yard reverse run with less than five minutes left in the game and then scored again on a direct snap nine-yard run with 1:31 remaining as Louisiana Tech recorded its first road win in two years with a 41-20 victory at New Mexico State.

Livas recorded 84 rushing yards on five carries and 29 receiving yards on four catches while Lennon Creer ran the ball 17 times for 107 yards and another score. Louisiana Tech (4-6, 3-3 WAC) outgained the Aggies (2-8, 1-5 WAC) 426-366 en route to the win.

"It was a good win and hard fought," said Louisiana Tech head coach Sonny Dykes. "I thought New Mexico State played well. We had a hard time getting pressure on their quarterback but it was a good win for us. We stopped them when we needed to and we made a big third down conversion when we needed to late in the ballgame."

New Mexico State kept close to LouisianaTech most of the game and pulled within a touchdown with 6:14 left in the game off of Tyler Stampler's 31-yard field goal but it was Livas' long reverse run for a touchdown that decided the game.

"That was huge," said Dykes, who recorded his first road win as a head coach. "We felt like we could get a first down at the very least but anytime Phillip [Livas] gets the ball in the open field he has the possibility to take it the distance. He does what he does and he made a big play for us at a critical point in the game."

On the ensuing kickoff New Mexico State fumbled the ball and Justin Goodman recovered to give Tech a short field at the NMSU 37-yard line. The Bulldogs advanced the ball to the Aggie nine-yard line before Livas ran the ball in on a direct snap play in Tech's "WildDawg" offensive formation.

Ross Jenkins was 19-for-31 for 184 yards with one touchdown and one interception. Richie Casey led Tech receivers with four catches for 47 yards.

Javontay Crowe led the Tech defense with nine total tackles, an interception and two pass break-ups. Tech's defense combined for 10 tackles for a total loss of 14 yards and two interceptions.

Tech took the7-0 lead with Jenkins' 11-yard touchdown pass to Andrew Guillot with seven minutes remaining in the first quarter. Guillot recorded his first career touchdown as the walk-on wide receiver became the 13th different Bulldog to reach the end zone this season.

After forcing a three-and-out for New Mexico State, Tech quickly struck again as the Bulldogs drove 70 yards on six plays in less than two minutes. Lennon Creer capped off the drive with a five-yard run as Tech took a 14-3 advantage.

Chad Boyd returned an Andrew Manley interception for 30 yards on the Aggies next drive which set up Matt Nelson's 47-yard field goal. That marked the longest field goal that Nelson has kicked this year.

On New Mexico State's next drive, Todd Lee caught a 30-yard touchdown pass from Manley, beating the Tech secondary to cut the Bulldog lead to seven points.

After both teams exchanged punts, Tech took possession with five minutes remaining in the half and drove 83 yards on nine plays with Jenkins running the ball in from seven yards out. Nelson's successful PAT gave LA Tech the 24-10 lead as Tech's 83-yard drive marked the third-longest scoring drive in terms of yards this season.

On Tech's first drive of the second half, Ross Jenkins pass was tipped, intercepted by Boyblue Aoelua and returned 41 yards for a touchdown. That marked the first time a Tech opponent has returned an interception for a touchdown since Sept. 20, 2008, a span of 33 games.

Following the Aggie defensive touchdown, both teams traded a pair of possessions before Javontay Crowe gave Tech an opportunity as he recorded his first career interception. Crowe's seven-yard interception return gave Tech the ball at the New Mexico State 30 yard line but the Bulldogs went three-and-out on the possession and Nelson missed a 44-yard field goal attempt wide left.

Tech controlled the ball for the first third of the last quarter, eating up 4:35 on the game clock but the Bulldogs were only able to drive 41 yards on 11 plays in that time. Unable to reach the end zone after getting 1st-and-Goal on the NMSU seven-yard line, Tech was forced to kick a field goal with Nelson hitting a 21-yard attempt to give the Bulldogs a 27-17 advantage.

LA Tech 45, San Jose State 38

Spartan Stadium, San Jose, Calif.

SAN JOSE, Calif. - Phillip Livas tied an NCAA record and Lennon Creer ran for a career-high 252 yards as Louisiana Tech held on for a 45-38 shootout win at San Jose State Saturday evening.

Livas, who had two returns for a touchdown called back at the same stadium two years ago, ran back a punt 88-yards for a touchdown for his eighth career return for a score, tying a mark set by five other players most recently Clemson's C.J. Spiller (2006-09).

Meanwhile Creer was the workhorse of the Louisiana Tech (5-6, 4-3 WAC) offense, becoming the first LA Tech player since Ryan Moats in 2004 to rush for over 200 yards in a game. With the win, Tech guaranteed a .500 finish or better in conference play for the third time in four years.

Despite Louisiana Tech's pass defense struggling throughout most of the game, it was the secondary that sealed the win. Chad Boyd's interception with Tech up by one score and 12 seconds remaining in the game sealed a shootout win for the Bulldogs. Boyd, who led the Tech defense with seven total tackles over San Jose (1-11, 0-7 WAC), recorded his fourth interception of the season.

"I thought it was a good win and we played hard," said Louisiana Tech head coach Sonny Dykes. "We told our guys all week that we were going to have to play for 60 minutes and that's what we had to do. We knew it was going to be tough coming out west and playing them. San Jose State is a team that has been playing better as they season has progressed. I'm proud of our team for making plays down the stretch. We really answered the bell when needed."

Most of Creer's 252 yards came in the first half as a he churned out 203 yards over the first 30 minutes of the game. The Tatum, Texas native ran for three scores in the game

"Lennon ran really hard in the first half," said Dykes. "Tony Franklin did a good job of making adjustments after San Jose State showed us a different look at the start of the game. We did some things that we hadn't done this year and our offensive line gave Creer some good running lanes. He ran hard and broke tackles tonight."

Livas' 88-yard punt return for a touchdown marked Tech's only score in the third quarter as San Jose's offense keyed in on Tech's running game and allowed the Spartans to keep in the game. The return of 88 yards marks the third-longest punt return in school history and a career-best mark for Livas.

Ross Jenkins was 13-for-29 with 105 passing yards and two interceptions as Tech's passing game struggled against a tough Spartan secondary.

Opposite of that, San Jose's passing game was on fire as quarterback Jordan La Secla was 35-for-65 for 496 yards, five touchdowns and three interceptions.

Louisiana Tech returns to action on Dec. 4 as the Bulldogs host No. 19 Nevada at Joe Aillet Stadium for a chance to become bowl eligible.

No. 14 Nevada 35, LA Tech 17

Joe Aillet Stadium, Ruston, La.

RUSTON - Nevada quarterback Colin Kaepernick rushed for 155 yards and three touchdowns while Vai Taua added 162 yards and two scores to lead the 14th ranked Wolf Pack to a 35-17 win over Louisiana Tech before 18,562 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium.

With the victory, the Wolf Pack (12-1, 7-1 WAC) wrapped up a share of the 2010 Western Athletic Conference championship title with Hawaii and Boise State while Louisiana Tech (5-7, 4-4) came up one game short in pursuit of its second bowl appearance in the last three years.

Nevada led 21-17 early in the fourth quarter when Kaepernick made the play of the game with a Houdini-like escape of a would-be sack on a fourth-down-and-nine-play from the Tech 28-yard line.

With the Bulldogs blitz surrounding Kaepernick about 10 yards behind the line of scrimmage, the elusive signal caller escaped the grasp of a Tech defender, took off down the left sideline and then cut back to the middle of the field and raced virtually untouched into the end zone.

The score was the 59th career rushing touchdown of Kaepernick's career, tying him with former Nebraska quarterback Eric Crouch for the all-time NCAA Division I lead.

"I thought we did some good things in the first half, but in the second half they just lined up and whipped us," said Tech head coach Sonny Dykes. "That's what great players do; they make great players. He's hard to tackle. He made good plays. He's a good football player."

The touchdown capped an 11-play, 73-yard yard drive and not only gave the Wolf Pack an 11-point lead at 28-17, but seemed to take the entire life out of the Louisiana Tech sideline and the Joe Aillet Stadium crowd.

Any realistic chance of a Tech comeback was severely crippled with the Bulldog offense went three-and-out on its next possession, forcing a punt.

Nevada then took little time scoring again, as Taua scored his second touchdown of the day on a six-yard run that finished off a six-play, 80-yard drive that took only 2:37 off the clock.

Tech opened the game strong as the Bulldogs marched 79 yards on nine plays and took a 7-0 advantage on a 20-yard scoring toss from Ross Jenkins to Eric Harper with 11:16 to play in the first quarter.

The score remained 7-0 until early in the second quarter when Nevada tied the game on a Taua one-yard plunge at the 13:00 minute mark.

Tech answered the score with a 12-play, 74-yard drive that took 3:59 off the clock as Jenkins gave the Bulldogs a 14-7 lead on a quarterback sneak from one yard out.

Kaepernick then directed another impressive drive as Nevada went 83 yards on 14 plays and tied the game with a five-yard run by the senior quarterback.

The Bulldogs had an opportunity to make a big play and take a halftime lead as senior wide receiver Phillip Livas took a snap out of the Wild Dog formation, raced over the left side and down the sideline for what appeared would be a 67-yard score.

However, Livas just did step out of bounds at the Tech 42-yard line and the Bulldogs were unable to score as the two teams went into the halftime locker room tied at 14-14.

Nevada came out in the second half and converted a couple of third down conversions on their opening drive before taking a 21-14 lead on a Kaepernick 1-yard score.

After Matt Nelson's 25-yard field goal at the 3:51 mark of the third quarter cut the Nevada lead to 21-17, the Wolf Pack turned to its ground game to control the football and the game. Nevada registered 247 of its 360 yards rushing in the second half.

"We didn't tackle in the second half like we needed to. We didn't play at the level in the second half like we should have," Dykes said.

"This program is the type of program that we expect to go to bowl games. I've been proud of some of the things our players have done, and we've had some seniors that have done some great things. You always want to play your best and as a coach when you team doesn't play their best, you're disappointed. We've got some good guys coming back next year so we will go back to work on Monday. We've got to learn and expect to win next season."

JOE AILLET

One of the main building blocks of success for a football program is stability in the coaching staff,and for 40 years, Louisiana Tech had not only stability but incredible talent.

Joe Aillet remains the winningest football coach in Louisiana Tech history and was one of the most respected in the country during his 26-year coaching career with the Bulldogs. Aillet produced a record of 152-86-8 and won or shared 12 conference championships between 1940 and 1966. He served as Tech's athletic director for an additional four years.

A member of several national coaching halls of fame, Aillet was instrumental in forming the Louisiana High School Coaches Association in the 1930s and the Gulf States Conference in 1948.

Maxie Lambright replaced Aillet in 1967 and remained at Tech through 1978, producing a "Golden Era" of Bulldog football which included seven conference titles, three national championship seasons and two Division I bowl games. He produced 11 All-Americans and sent a dozen Bulldogs into the pros.

He also built the nation's longest college football winning streak at 23 games during 1973 and 1974.

Another building block at Louisiana Tech was Maxie Lambright. Lambright coached the 1972 Bulldogs to a 12-0 record as Louisiana Tech won the National Football Foundation national title with a 35-0 win over Tennessee Tech in the Grantland Rice Bowl. The following season, Lambright's Bulldogs claimed the Division II national title defeating Western Kentucky 34-0 in the championship game.

BULLDOG HISTORY

The names ring like a Who's Who in the National Football League: Terry Bradshaw, Pat Tilley, Roger Carr, Mike Barber, Fred Dean, Matt Stover, Willie Roaf, Doug Evans, Tim Rattay and Troy Edwards.

They are just a few of the many great players who have donned a Louisiana Tech Bulldog uniform over the past century, and their accomplishments at Tech are even more impressive.

Starting with its very first game in 1901, Louisiana Tech has become a household name in collegiate football circles.

And over the years Louisiana Tech has produced numerous conference titles, numerous all-American honors, numerous professional players and two national championship titles.

This year's players and coaches should only add to an already impressive resume.

Although so much emphasis is placed on the present, with 108 seasons of Tech football in the record books, it's important to remember so many great moments, so many great players and so many great coaches that have already made Tech's history on the gridiron successful.

From the very first team to last season's squad, Tech football can be described with three words: TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE.

1901: First Recorded Intercollegiate Football Game

Louisiana Tech intercollegiate football history began with that 1901 season, as Edwin Barber — the first athletic coach employed by the young university — led the Bulldogs on the playing field.

And although records of some of the first years in Tech history are incomplete, Barber's team lost the only two games for which results do exist, falling to Louisiana State 57-0 and Arkansas 16-0. However, the Tech tradition had begun.

The November 1902 Industrialist, the first student publication at Tech, reported that Coach Frank Singleton led the second team to "a fairly successful season," although the record of that Bulldog squad is not known.

1904: First Recorded Intercollegiate Football Win

Coach E.G. Pierce led the 1904 Bulldogs to the first recorded win in school history with a 6-0 victory against Louisiana State during a 1-3 season. The game not only marked the inaugural win in Tech history, but also the first shutout.

Tech's first winning season was posted in 1906 as Z.T. Young led the Bulldogs to a 2-1-3 record with wins over Ouachita Baptist and the Ruston Athletic Club.

The following season, Coach George Watkins and the Bulldogs registered a 9-1 mark, which is still the most wins by a first-year head coach in Tech history. During that season, Tech outscored its opponents 248-37, with the lone setback coming against Louisiana State.

It is not known where those first Bulldogs played their games, but beginning with the 1904 season, all Tech athletic events were held in an athletic park, with a grandstand, located next to Harper Hall and present-day Howard Auditorium.

1910: First perfect season (7-0)

During this decade of Bulldog football, Prince coached Tech for seven seasons, including the school's first perfect year in 1910 with a record of 7-0. Prince was the first coach at Tech to coach for multiple seasons, finishing his career with a record of 24-16-5.

His 1911 and 1915 teams also posted winning records, recording marks of 4-2-1 and 3-1-2, respectively.

1916: First Recorded Game at Independence Stadium

In 1916, Coach A. Flack took over for Prince, but the Bulldogs struggled, going 2-4 with wins over Ouachita and Northwestern State. V.S. Pugh took over the coaching duties in 1917 and led Tech to a 2-3 season.

However, Prince came back and coached Tech for one last season in 1919 as Tech lost to Henderson State and Northwestern State in the only two recorded games.

Coach R.F. Clark helped start the 1920s right for Tech fans as his two Bulldog teams registered winning records of 5-1 and 6-0 in 1920 and 1921. After Clark's 1920 team lost the first game of the season 12-0 to Northwestern State, he proceeded to win 11 consecutive contests over the span of the next two years.

William Dietz picked up where Clark left off in 1922 and 1923 as the Dietz-led Bulldogs posted records of 5-1-1 and 6-2, including a 100-0 win over Clark College in 1922 and a 66-7 victory over Northwestern State in 1923.

After struggling through a 1-6-1 season in 1924 under Coach Phillip Arbuckle, Tech began its first athletic affiliation, becoming a member of the multi-state Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association in 1925 under Coach R.C. Kenney.

Hugh Wilson coached the Bulldogs to a 5-2-2 record in 1926 and a 3-5 mark in 1927, a year that was highlighted by a game played against Mississippi College at Forsythe Park, the first intercollegiate football game played in Monroe.

1928: New Football Field Built

Then, in the fall of 1928, a new Tech athletic field was built immediately adjoining the men's gymnasium on the current site of A.E. Phillips Laboratory School. The field was dedicated on Homecoming day Nov. 5, before the game with UL-Lafayette (UL-Lafayette won 45-6).

The nickname Bulldogs and school colors of red and blue were decided upon sometime during the early years of the university. However, T.J. "Cotton" and Henry Matthews, two Tech freshman brothers from Bossier City, donated Tech's first live bulldog in 1930.

On the playing field, Coach George Bohler led Tech into the 1930s as the Bulldogs posted a 3-6 season in 1930 before rebounding to record the school's third perfect season at 7-0 in 1931.

1935: 5,000 Seat Football Stadium Built

In 1934, according to The Tech Talk, the Louisiana Legislature appropriated $25,000 for a concrete stadium to be built beginning in January 1935. The stadium seated 3,000, and wooden bleachers holding an additional 2,000 were built on the east side of the field.

Again, Tech — under the guidance of Coach L.P. McLane — and UL-Lafayette dedicated the facility as Tech won the game 25-0 on its way to an 8-1 season. It also marked the first night game played at Louisiana Tech.

1937: Johnny Wyss Named Tech's First All-American

The 1937 season brought two more firsts for Louisiana Tech football as the school's first sellout came Sept. 17, 1937, in the season opener against Oklahoma City. Following a 6-3-2 season, Bulldog guard Johnny Wyss was named Tech's first All-American.

The 1939 season brought with it a new coach and a new conference as Ray Davis took over the Bulldog coaching duties, guiding Tech to a 5-6 mark in the school's first year as a member of the Louisiana Intercollegiate Conference.

1940: Joe Aillet Era Begins

1948: Tech joins Gulf States Conference; Gulf State Championship

Aillet, who is still the school's winningest coach with 152 wins, took over in 1940 and promptly led the Bulldogs to four conference titles during the decade, three as a member of the Louisiana Collegiate Conference and one as a member of the Gulf States Conference which Tech joined in 1948.

Aillet, who was instrumental in forming the GSC, was the first president of the league.

Aillet, who is a member of the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame as well as being a charter member of the Tech Athletic Hall of Fame, led Tech to a 6-4 record in 1940 before guiding the Bulldogs to the school's first conference title in 1941 with a mark of 5-4-1.

Tech also won the LCC title in 1945 (6-4) and 1947 (5-4), while capturing the GSC title in 1948 (7-2-1) and 1949 (7-2).

Amazingly, Joe Aillet's second decade as the Bulldogs' head coach was more successful as his teams won an incredible 70 percent of their games during the 1950s while claiming six Gulf States Conference titles.

Tech registered 10 winning seasons during the 1950s, never losing more than four games in a year. Tech captured its first GSC title of the decade during 1952, when the Bulldogs went 6-1-2, including wins over Florida State and Memphis State.

Aillet also led Tech to Gulf States titles in 1953 (6-3), 1955 (9-1), 1957 (6-4), 1958 (7-3) and 1959 (9-1).

During the era, Tech had 33 players earn All-Gulf States Conference honors including the family foursome of Tommy (three times), Pat (twice), Bobby and Joe Hinton (twice).

However, early on it was the same old winning ways for Joe Aillet and his Bulldogs as Tech opened the era with yet another Gulf States Conference title and an 8-2 record.

After recording marks of 5-4, 4-4 and 6-3 over the next three seasons, the Bulldogs captured another GSC title in 1964 with a 9-1 record. A 14-7 loss at the hands of Southern Mississippi kept the Bulldogs from obtaining the perfect record.

Following another 4-4 season in 1965, the change began. Aillet's 1966 squad, his last at Tech, fell to 1-9, breaking a streak of 21 consecutive years of non-losing seasons under the Tech legend. Aillet's 26-year tenure as the Bulldogs head coach was over after 152 wins and 12 conference titles.

1966: Maxie Lambright Era Begins

The following season, Tech hired Maxie Lambright to take over the duties and after posting a 3-7 record in his first season, the Bulldogs resumed their winning ways in 1968 with a 9-2 record, thanks in large part to a young quarterback named Terry Bradshaw.

1968: First Game played in Joe Aillet Stadium

During the 1968 season, the Bulldogs also moved into a new home, the 23,000-seat present-day facility named Tech Stadium, which was renamed Joe Aillet Stadium on Nov. 11, 1972, in memory of the Tech coach who had passed away the previous year.

Lambright, Bradshaw and the Bulldogs ended the decade claiming the 1969 Gulf States Conference title with an 8-2 mark, the school's last GSC championship.

1969: Grantland Rice Bowl Appearance

It could easily be said that the 1970s was the premier decade in the long history of Louisiana Tech football.

1971: Pioneer Bowl Appearance

After opening the era with a 2-8 mark in 1970, Lambright guided the Bulldogs to a 9-2 record and a conference title in 1971, Tech's first season as a member of the newly formed Southland Conference. However, that was just the beginning.

1972: Grantland Rice Bowl Appearance

The next three seasons are considered the greatest three-year stretch in Tech football history. Lambright led the 1972 team to a perfect 12-0 record, and the Bulldogs defeated Tennessee Tech 35-0 in the Grantland Rice Bowl to claim Co-National Champion honors along with Delaware as chosen by the National Football Foundation.

1973: Camellia Bowl Appearance

The 1973 team would not be outdone, as Lambright and the Bulldogs finished the season 12-1 and defeated Western Kentucky 34-0 in the Division II National Championship game in Sacramento, Calif.

1974: Pioneer Bowl Appearance

Finally, the 1974 team made it three in a row by winning the United Press International College Division National Championship despite losing to Central Michigan, 35-14, in a Division II national semifinal game.

1977: Independence Bowl Appearance

The following season, Tech joined the Division I ranks for the first time, and two years later, the Bulldogs played in their first bowl game, defeating highly favored Louisville, 24-14, in the Independence Bowl in Shreveport.

1978: Independence Bowl Appearance

Tech made a return trip to the Independence Bowl in 1978 but was defeated by East Carolina, 35-13. The loss marked the end of another era at Tech, as Maxie Lambright retired from his 12-year coaching career with a 95-36-2 record, trailing only Aillet in number of victories as Tech football coach.

Larry Beightol was hired in 1979 and led Tech to a 3-8 record in his only season as the Bulldogs' head coach.

With the success Tech had during the 1970s, it is no wonder the Bulldogs had 66 players earn all-conference accolades, while the likes of Ron Alexander, Larry Anderson, Mike Barber, Roger Carr, Fred Dean, Ken Lantrip, Ardis McCann, Charles McDaniel, Joe McNeely, Chris Richardson and Billy Ryckman earned All-American honors.

The 1980s proved to be a turning point for Louisiana Tech football as the university made the decision to move up to Division I-A status starting in 1989.

However, the '80s started slowly with two straight losing seasons under new head coach Billy Brewer (5-6 in 1980 and 4-6-1 in 1981). However, Brewer's third and last season was much more successful as the Bulldogs posted a 10-3 record and won the Southland Conference title in 1982, after being reclassified into Division I-AA.

A.L. Williams took over the coaching reins in 1983 and after a sub-par first year (4-7), Williams guided Tech to the Division I-AA National Championship game in 1984.

1987: Tech begins its move to I-A

Tech played in the Southland Conference for the final time during the 1986 season as university President F. Jay Taylor's goal was to leave what he called "mandated mediocrity" — Division I-AA. The Bulldogs competed as a Division I-AA independent in 1987 and 1988 during the "Movin' Up" campaign.

During those two seasons, the Bulldogs fought an uphill battle, playing road games against the likes of Baylor, Mississippi State, Texas A&M, Houston, Wyoming, Kansas State, Southern Mississippi and Florida State in an effort to meet Division I-A scheduling requirements.

Another 6,000 seats were added to Joe Aillet Stadium as part of meeting those same requirements to move up to the next level.

1989: Tech gains I-A status

Finally on Jan. 20, 1989, the call came from the NCAA, and at the football banquet that evening, the official acceptance into Division I-A football was announced by Tech President Dan Reneau. Tech officially began competing in the NCAA's highest classification with the 1989 season opener at UL-Lafayette, a contest the Bulldogs won 40-14 on their way to

On Oct. 4, 1989, the Spirit of 1988, a bronze Bulldog statue guarding the south entrance to Aillet Stadium, was unveiled to commemorate head coach Joe Raymond Peace's Tech team of 1988, which endured the brutal schedule in order to meet Division I-A scheduling requirements.

Thirty-one Bulldogs earned All-Southland Conference honors during the 1980s, while three Bulldogs earned All-Independent honors in 1989. Matt Dunigan, Walter Johnson, Doug "Tank" Landry and Glenell Sanders were named All-Americans during the decade.

1990: Independence Bowl Appearance

Louisiana Tech football opened and closed the 1990s with a bang as the 1990 Bulldog team earned an Independence Bowl berth while the 1999 team earned the school's first ever Associated Press Top 25 ranking.

The 1990s also proved to be the decade for quarterbacks at Tech as the program produced two of the top signal callers in Bulldog history in Jason Martin and Tim Rattay.

Coach Joe Raymond Peace led the 1990 Bulldogs, in only the school's second year as Division I-A Independent, to an 8-3 record during the regular season and an invitation to the Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La. The Bulldogs tied Maryland 34-34 in front of over 48,000 fans in one of the most exciting bowl games of the year.

1993: Tech joins Big West Conference

The following season, the Peace-led Bulldogs dropped the opening game and then proceeded to win eight and tie two the rest of the year. After a 5-6 season in 1992, Tech joined the Big West Conference in an effort to help scheduling and secure a bowl tie.

However, the Bulldogs' three seasons in the conference never yielded much success as Peace's squads compiled a 10-23 mark from 1993-1995.

The 1996 season saw a number of changes and much more success as Tech once again joined the ranks of Division I-A Independents and offensive coordinator Gary Crowton was hired as head coach.

Crowton, who was known for his great offensive mind and wide-open passing attack, molded quarterbacks Jason Martin and Tim Rattay into two of the nation's total offense leaders.

In 1996, Crowton guided Tech to a 6-5 season, including a 38-23 win at Southeastern Conference foe Mississippi State, while Martin had 3,360 yards and 32 touchdowns. It was just a sign of things to come.

Rattay shattered his Tech records the following season, passing for 4,943 yards and 46 scores while leading the Bulldogs to a 6-6 record. Rattay's main target was wide receiver Troy Edwards, who caught 140 passes for 1,996 yards and 27 touchdowns, the latter two marks setting new NCAA records.

In a nationally televised game against defending National Champion Nebraska to open the season, Rattay and Edwards showed a preview of what Tech fans had to look forward to as Rattay passed for a school record 590 yards, while Edwards snared 21 passes for 405 yards, a new NCAA single game record.

After Crowton departed to the NFL's Chicago Bears in 1999, Tech Athletics Director Jim Oakes hired Jack Bicknell III as the 30th head coach in school history.

Bicknell led Tech to an 8-3 season, a 29-28 upset victory over eventual Southeastern Conference champion Alabama and the school's first Associated Press Top 25 ranking. Rattay finished his career ranked No. 2 in NCAA history in career passing yards, total offense and touchdown passes.

The 1999 season was made even more successful with an October announcement that the university would be making an allsports move to the Western Athletic Conference in the fall of 2001.

During the decade of the '90s, 54 Bulldog players earned all-conference honors, while Josh Bradley, Edwards, Marty Kent, Rattay, William Roaf, Bobby Slaughter and Willie Smith were named All-Americans.

Louisiana Tech finished its last season as a Division I-A Independent in 2000 with a 3-9 record. During the season, the Bulldogs played perennial powers such as Kansas State, Penn State, Auburn and Miami. Despite playing a difficult schedule, the Bulldogs were still one of the top offensive teams in the country, finishing 7th in the nation for passing offense.

2001: Tech joins Western Athletic Conference; Humanitarian Bowl Appearance

The Bulldogs made a splash in their new conference by going 7-1 in league play and claiming the 2001 WAC Championship. Louisiana Tech overcame an early conference loss to win its last six conference games to take the WAC title.

The championship earned the Bulldogs a berth in the 2001 Humanitarian Bowl, the school's first bowl appearance since the 1990 Independence Bowl. Despite a 49-24 loss to Clemson in the Humanitarian Bowl, the season was still a success and proved that Louisiana Tech would be a foe to be reckoned with in the Western Athletic Conference.

Tech began the 2002 season by defeating eventual Houston Bowl participant and Big 12 foe Oklahoma State to open the season in a thrilling last minute 39-36 contest. However, Tech's early non-conference schedule proved brutal with road losses to Clemson, No. 15 Penn State and No. 24 Texas A&M.

For the seventh straight season the Bulldogs ranked in the nation's top 10 in passing offense while senior running back Joe Smith earned first team All-WAC honors, becoming the first Tech player since 1994 to rush for over 1,000 yards.

The 2003 season started with a nationally televised home contest against defending national champion Miami at Independence Stadium in Shreveport as a Bulldog home record crowd of 43,279 witnessed the historic event.

And although the 2003 season didn't go as planned with Tech finishing 5-7, the Bulldogs did have plenty of bright moments topped by Tech's 20-19 come-from-behind road win over Michigan State, a team that went on to earn a Top 25 ranking and eventually earned a spot in the Alamo Bowl against Nebraska.

Individual highlights included senior kicker Josh Scobee becoming Louisiana Tech's second all-time scoring leader with 339 points. Senior quarterback Luke McCown finished his career ranked in the top 5 in NCAA Division I history in passing yards and total offense.

2004: Tech faces Top 25 schedule; Pulls upset over Fresno State

Tough wouldn't describe Louisiana Tech's schedule in 2004 as the Bulldogs played seven games against eventual bowl-bound teams and six games against teams ranked in the Top 25 at one point of the season.

And although Tech's 6-6 record fell one game short of being bowl eligible, it was still an accomplishment.

The biggest moment of 2004 came in Tech's 28-21 win over No. 17 ranked Fresno State Oct. 2 at Joe Aillet Stadium. Running back Ryan Moats rushed for 236 yards and four scores and the Tech defense intercepted two passes late in the game to seal the victory.

Moats shattered the school record with 1,774 yards rushing and 18 touchdowns before declaring himself eligible for the 2005 NFL Draft (third

2008: Bulldogs Claim Independence Bowl Championship Title

Louisiana Tech opened its season with a visit from Southeastern Conference foe Mississippi State, the first SEC team to ever come to Joe Aillet Stadium. And after the Mississippi-based Bulldogs left after a 22-14 LA Tech win, they might be the last for a while. The win marked the first win over an SEC team since 1999 when Tech topped eventual SEC champion Alabama 29-28 in Birmingham, Alabama.

The Bulldogs continued their winning ways throughout the season, going 7-5 in the regular season and 5-3 in the WAC which was good enough for a second place finish. Included in the seven regular season wins was a 21-0 shutout victory at San Jose State, the first shutout by a Tech team since 1996 and the first road shutout since 1988.

Tech earned its first invite to a bowl game since 2001 as the Bulldogs received an invitation to play in the Independence Bowl against Northern Illinois.

Tech would capture the 2008 Independence Bowl title by virtue of a 17-10 victory over the Huskies, highlighted by a 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Phillip Livas. The Bowl victory was the first bowl win for the Bulldogs since they won the 1977 Independence Bowl.

Running back Daniel Porter became the eighth Louisiana Tech running back to ever rush for over 1,000 yards in a season as he rushed for 1,164 yards and nine touchdowns in 2008. Tech also placed a program record seven players on the All- WAC team, led by first team members in Porter, Livas, defensive tackle D'Anthony Smith and safety Antonio Baker.

In 2009 Porter continued to showcase his rushing talents, becoming the school's all-time leading rusher with 3,352 rushing yards to his credit while Dennis Morris earned all-America honors and was named the College Football Performance Awards' National Tight End of the Year after leading the country in touchdown receptions among tight ends.

2010-Present

Coaches: Sonny Dykes (2010-Present)
Conference Affiliation (Years)/ Titles: Division I-A Western Athletic Conference (2010-Present)/none

Louisiana Tech began the Sonny Dykes era with high hopes for a high octane offense. The engine finally shifted gears widway through Dykes first season with a high offensive output in six of the team's last seven games, including 683 total offensive yards against Idaho, then the fourth-most in school history.

POSTSEASON PLAY

December 28, Shreveport, La.

Phillip Livas' 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown and a stellar defensive performance led Louisiana Tech to a 17-10 win over Northern Illinois at the 33rd Independence Bowl at Independence Stadium in Shreveport.

The win was Tech's first in a bowl since a 1977 and only the third bowl appearance since the program joined the FBS in 1989.

"Let me start by giving Northern Illinois a tremendous amount of credit," said Tech head coach Derek Dooley. "Coach (Jerry) Kill and his staff do a great job. They are an outstanding football team; every bit as good as advertised."

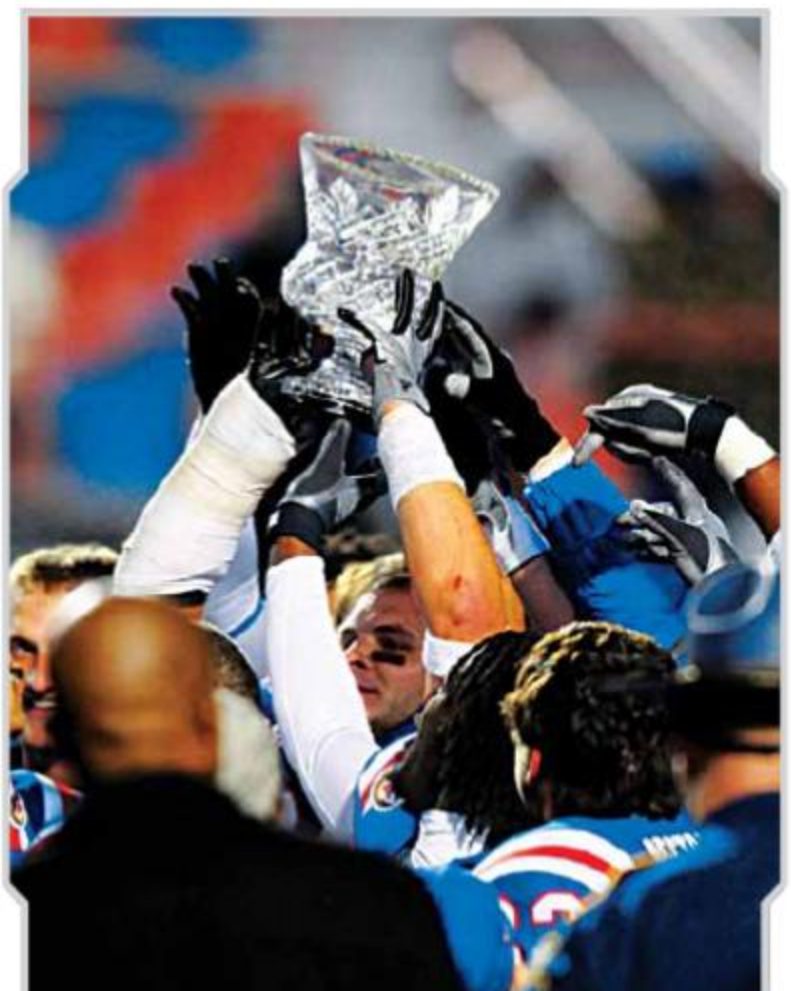
After Northern Illinois took an early 7-0 lead in the first quarter, Livas, who was named offensive MVP of the game, took the ensuing kickoff and galloped 97 yards for a score.

"The return was a sideline return," Livas said. "Once I got past the defender, I just knew I had to make a play. We needed to get the momentum back."

Livas' play ignited not only the partisan Bulldog crowd at Independence Stadium, but also the LA Tech defense.

After allowing a NIU touchdown on only its second possession, the Bulldog defensive unit limited the Huskies to three points over the final three quarters of play.

"It was a phenomenal defensive effort by both teams," Dooley said. "We got better as the game went on, and we knew it was going to down to the last drive. We talked to our players all week about playing to the last play of the game."



Senior defensive back Weldon Brown, playing before a home crowd – Brown prepped at Bossier High School – , earned defensive MVP honors after recording a career-high 14 tackles, one fumble recovery, one interception and a key pass breakup on a NIU fourth down play early in the game.

"This was great," Brown said. "It's a privilege to earn the defensive MVP honors, and I'm grateful to end my career (in Shreveport)."

Northern Illinois jumped out to an early 7-0 lead on an 8-yard pass from Chandler Harnish to fullback Kyle Skarb with 1:56 to play in the first quarter. The play culminated an 11-play drive covering 69 yards in 1:56.

The lead was short-lived as "Saturday Night" Livas took the ensuing kickoff, ran straight up the middle before veering left towards the Bulldog sideline and raced 97 yards for a touchdown.

It was Livas' second career kickoff return for a touchdown and the sixth longest in Bulldog history. Livas, who also has two punt returns for scores this season, now has four returns for scores in his career, the second most trailing only Larry Anderson with five.

The kickoff return was the second longest in Indy Bowl history and the first since Deuce McAllister returned one for Ole Miss against Texas Tech in 1998.

After a three-and-out by NIU on its next possession, the Bulldogs took a 14-7 lead on an 11-yard Daniel Porter touchdown run with 13:41 to play in the second quarter. The touchdown came on a draw play on second and goal and capped a 5-play, 42-yard drive over 2:04.

After another three-and-out by NIU, Tech appeared to have threatened again when senior Patrick Jackson took a handoff and raced over 50 yards inside the Huskies 10-yard line but a holding penalty negated the play.

The game remained 14-7 but the Bulldogs had a golden opportunity to take a bigger lead into the half when Weldon Brown recovered a fumbled punt return by the Huskies with only 36 seconds remaining in the half.

However, after three straight incomplete passes by Ross Jenkins, Brad Oestriecher had a 41-yard field goal attempt partially blocked by Jake Coffman as the Bulldogs entered the halftime locker room leading by a touchdown.

Oestriecher redeemed himself early it the third quarter as the Bulldogs marched 49 yards on eight plays and took a 17-7 lead on a 33-yard field goal at the 11:54 mark of the third quarter.

NIU came out of the lockerroom and marched 66 yards on its first possession of the third quarter before Tech's defense stiffened, forcing a 20-yard field goal by Mike Salerno. The big play for NIU during the drive was a third down completion from Harnish to Marcus Perez that covered 47 yards and gave the Huskies the ball on the Tech 8-yard line.

With the Bulldogs clinging to a sevenpoint lead, the Tech defense came through down the stretch.

of the game for NIU, the Tech defense held the Huskies to only 103 yards and NIU ventured past midfield only once – the Bulldogs defense held on a fourthdown- and-five play on its own 46 yard line with less than two minutes to play.

The eight wins is the most by a Bulldog team since the 1999 Tech squad posted an 8-3 mark and the bowl win was the first since the 1977 Independence Bowl.

Clemson 49, Louisiana Tech 24
December 31, Boise, Idaho

Four third-quarter touchdowns, including two Woody Dantzler scoring passes, were too much for Louisiana Tech to overcome, as the Clemson Tigers downed the Bulldogs 49-24 in the 2001 Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl before 23,472 fans at Bronco Stadium Dec. 31, 2001.

Trailing only 14-10 at the half, Tech failed to find an answer for Dantzler and company in the third quarter. Dantzler, who finished the afternoon completing 15 of 23 passes for 218 yards and four touchdowns, found running back Bernard Rambert for perhaps the game's biggest play early in the second half.

Leading 21-10, Rambert caught a short pass out of the backfield on third down, and after appearing to be stopped short, spun out of the arms of four Bulldog tacklers and raced 62 yards down the sideline to give Clemson a 28-10 advantage. The play seemed to take all of the life out of the Bulldogs.

A Rambert 21-yard touchdown scamper, followed by an Airese Currie 19-yard jaunt, increased the Tiger lead to 42-10 heading into the final stanza. The loss of All-WAC selections Bobby Gray and Jamie Nichols to first half injuries added to the Bulldogs' defensive difficulties.

After holding Clemson to only 14 points and 207 yards in the first half, the injury-riddled Bulldogs' defense allowed 35 points and 341 yards in the second stanza. Two Bulldog touchdowns in the fourth quarter, a 34-yard Luke McCown pass to Delwyn Daigre and a Joe Smith two-yard plunge, closed the gap to 49-24.

However, Clemson wasn't satisfied with the score. The Tigers drove down the field in the final three minutes and instead of running out the clock, attempted a pass into the end zone with under 30 seconds left before also attempting to run the ball in from the oneyard line on the game's final play.

Tech took an early 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a Josh Scobee 29-yard field goal on the Bulldogs' first possession. Clemson scored the game's first touchdown when Dantzler found tight end Mike Bailey from 10 yards out for a 7-3 lead with 5:48 remaining in the first quarter.

The Bulldogs retook the lead at 10-7 when McCown raced in from 11 yards away midway through the second quarter. However, a 15-yard penalty against Tech on the extra point allowed Clemson great field position on its next drive. Two plays later, Dantzler threw his second touchdown pass of the game and Clemson took a 14-10 advantage into the locker room.

Despite the disappointing loss, the Bulldogs finished their season 7-5, including the program's first Western Athletic Conference title.

1990 Independence Bowl

Louisiana Tech 34, Maryland 34
December 15, Shreveport, La.

An Independence Bowl record crowd of 48,325 showed up to see Louisiana Tech and Maryland battle to a 34-34 tie in one of the most exciting games of the bowl season.

Chris Boniol's 29-yard field goal as time expired gave the Bulldogs the tie. Louisiana Tech, participating in its first bowl game since joining the Division I-A ranks prior to the 1989 season, fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter as Maryland running back Troy Jackson scored on a one-yard run and a two-yard run.

However, the Bulldogs would not let the predominantly Louisiana Tech crowd down as they fought back to tie the game at 14-14 at the half. Tech's first touchdown came with 8:30 remaining in the second quarter on a five-yard Michael Richardson run, and Boniol's extra point made the score 14-7 Terps.

Head coach Joe Raymond Peace's team tied the game with only 0:17 remaining in the first half on a three-yard Jason Davis touchdown run as the two teams entered their respective locker rooms tied at 14.

Jackson scored his third touchdown of the game for Maryland, but the extra point failed as Tech led 21-20. The Bulldogs upped their advantage to 28-20 when Gene Johnson hooked up with Bobby Slaughter on a seven-yard scoring toss.

A Boniol field goal gave Tech a 31-20 lead. Maryland scored two fourth quarter touchdowns to pull ahead 34-31, the last coming with only 0:52 remaining on a 15-yard touchdown pass from Scott Zolak to Barry Johnson on a fourth down play.

Richardson (81 yards, two scores) and Davis (72 yards, one score) led Tech's ground attack, while Johnson and Sam Hughes combined to complete 11 of 17 passes for 115 yards and one score.

1984 NCAA Division I-AA Championship

Montana State 19, Louisiana Tech 6
December 15, Charleston, S.C.

After an impressive run in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs, Louisiana Tech struggled in the 1984 National Championship game as Montana State defeated the Bulldogs 19-6.

After scoring 131 points in its three previous playoff wins to advance to the title game, the Bulldog offense sputtered all afternoon long in large part because of the stellar play of the Bobcats defense, which sacked Tech quarterback Kyle Gandy 11 times.

Two possessions later, following a blocked punt by Montana State, the Bobcats scored the game's first touchdown as Kelly Bradley hit Joe Bignell for a 17-yard scoring strike. Carter's extra point was wide left, but Montana State still led 9-0.

The second quarter started better for the Bulldogs as Tech marched down to the Montana State 27-yard line before Gandy fumbled and the Bobcats recovered, ending the Tech scoring threat.

Montana State upped its advantage to 16-0 as it drove 80 yards, capped by a Bradley to Bignell 33-yard scoring strike. Carter added a 48-yard field goal right before the half as the Bobcats took a commanding 19-0 lead into the locker room.

After gaining only 62 total yards of offense in the first half, Tech had little more success in the final two quarters of play. However, Gandy's 10-yard touchdown pass to Mike Sherman with only 0:48 remaining in the game was too little too late as Montana State won the 1984 Division I-AA National Championship.

Gandy finished the afternoon, completing 24 of 38 passes for 287 yards and the one score but was intercepted four times by the Bobcats defense.

Bradley posted stellar numbers for Montana State, completing 32 of 57 passes for 334 yards and two scores while Bignell registered 10 receptions for 130 yards and two touchdowns.

1984 NCAA Division I-AA Semifinal

Louisiana Tech 21, Middle Tenn. 13
December 8, Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Louisiana Tech running back David Green racked up 107 rushing yards, including an 80-yard touchdown run, to help seal a 21-13 win against the Blue Raiders in Murfreesboro, Tenn., to advance to the national I-AA championship against Montana State.

Tech jumped on the board first when Richie Sims returned a blocked punt to take a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. Middle Tennessee got on the scoreboard in the second quarter with a field goal and trailed 7-3 going into the half.

The Blue Raiders took a 10-7 lead in the third quarter on a seven-play, 46-yard drive that ended with a two-yard touchdown by running back Gerald Anderson.

The Bulldogs regained the lead minutes later when quarterback Kyle Gandy connected with Todd Breske on an 11-yard pass that capped a 13-play, 72-yard drive.

Middle Tennessee moved within one point at 14-13 with a field goal in the fourth quarter, but that was as close as the Blue Raiders got. On the next play from scrimmage, Green added his game-sealing run to give Tech the victory.

Gandy hit 16-of-28 passes for 134 yards and one touchdown while Breske led all receivers with 44 yards on four receptions.

1984 NCAA Division I-AA Quarterfinal

Louisiana Tech 44, Alcorn State 21
December 1, Jackson, Miss.

Louisiana Tech took on the SWAC Champs and the nation's No. 1 team in the 1984 quarterfinals in Jackson, Miss.

Both teams were held scoreless in the first quarter, but the Tech offense erupted in the second quarter. Running back Gerry Jones started the scoring on a five-yard run early in the second quarter to give the Bulldogs a 7-0 lead.

Three minutes later, wide receiver Mike Sherman hauled in a 12-yard pass from quarterback Kyle Gandy to push Tech's lead to 14-0. The Bulldogs added two points on a safety as the Tech defense sacked Alcorn's quarterback, Rich Myles, in the end zone. Gandy connected for two more touchdown passes in the quarter, an eightyard pass to Lester Mills and a five-yard pass to Todd Breske, to give Tech a 30-0 lead heading into halftime.

By the time the Braves got on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter, the 'Dogs had rolled up 448 yards of offense and held Alcorn State to minus 67 yards rushing.

Gandy connected for 19-of-31 passes for 287 yards and three touchdowns. Sherman led all receivers with 160 yards on eight receptions while David Green led the running backs with 73 yards on 18 carries and one touchdown.

Defensively, the Bulldogs held Alcorn State to minus 56 rushing yards.

1984 NCAA Division I-AA First Round

November 24, Ruston, La.

Tech fans had fun at this game, as the 'Dogs turned the tables on the explosive "run and shoot" of MVSU. Tech rolled up an NCAA playoff record 703 yards of total offense and also set or tied six other playoff marks.

The Bulldogs struck first in the game with a 49-yard George Benyola field goal in the first quarter. Three minutes later, Tech took a 10-0 lead as Todd Breske pulled in a 34-yard pass from quarterback Kyle Gandy.

Mississippi Valley scored its first touchdown at the end of the first quarter to close the gap to 10-6.

The Tech offense picked up in the second quarter as David Green scored on a one-yard run to push the Tech lead to 17-6. Tech's Gerry Jones scored two more touchdowns, an eight-yard pass from Gandy and a five-yard run to give the Bulldogs a 31-6 lead.

However, MVSU was not done with its first-half scoring as future NFL star Jerry Rice scored on a 64-yard pass play as time expired to close the gap to 38-19 at halftime. It was the last time in the game that the Delta Devils scored.

The Tech offense picked up steam in the third quarter, scoring three touchdowns, including a 69-yard run by Cleve Bailey. The Bulldogs added a final score in the fourth quarter as Lester Mills pulled in a six-yard pass by Jordan Stanley.

Tech picked up 408 rushing yards in the game, led by Green who recorded 179 yards on 24 carries and three touchdowns. Gandy connected for 11-of-18 passes for 262 yards and three touchdowns while Breske led the receivers with 119 yards on three receptions and two touchdowns.

1982 NCAA Division I-AA Semifinal

Delaware 17, Louisiana Tech 0
December 11, Ruston, La.

Playing under cold and rainy conditions, the Bulldog offense failed to score against the Blue Hens as Tech was eliminated from the Division I-AA playoffs.

Delaware picked up a 7-0 lead in the first quarter after gaining good field position following a blocked punt. The Blue Hens took over on the Bulldog 24-yard line and five plays later, picked up their first score.

Under the harsh conditions, neither team could move the ball effectively in the first half as Delaware took the 7-0 lead into the locker room at halftime.

Matt Dunigan led the Tech offense, completing 22-of-47 passes for 239 yards. Frederick Brown led the receivers with 66 yards on five receptions while Carlton Jacobs led the running backs with 33 yards on 11 carries.

1982 NCAA Division I-AA Quarterfinal

Louisiana Tech 38, South Carolina State 3
December 4, Ruston, La.

Louisiana Tech rolled up 474 yards of total offense to advance to the 1982 Division I-AA Semifinals.

South Carolina State scored the first three points of the game but that was all, as the Bulldogs amassed 38 points throughout the contest.

The Bulldogs tied the score in the first quarter on a 27-yard field goal by Roberto Dager. Tech added a touchdown early in the second quarter as Gerald McDaniel caught a three-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Matt Dunigan. Dunigan scored on a quarterback sneak with two minutes left in the half to give the Bulldogs a 17-3 halftime lead.

Tech extended its lead in the third quarter as Carlton Jacobs hauled in a threeyard touchdown pass from Dunigan. The Bulldogs scored two more touchdowns in the fourth quarter with Dunigan rushing for a second score and Kyle Gandy hitting Chris Tilley for an 11-yard strike to close out the score at 38-3.

Dunigan completed 19-of-41 passes for 211 yards and two touchdowns. The All-American also rushed for 72 yards on 11 carries for another two touchdowns. Tilley led the receivers with 49 yards on three receptions and one touchdown.

1978 Independence Bowl

East Carolina 35, Louisiana Tech 13
December 16, Shreveport, La.

Tech's return trip to the Independence Bowl was quite different from the first as East Carolina defeated the Bulldogs 35-13. The Pirates forced four fumbles and intercepted Bulldogs quarterback Keith Thibodeaux three times en route to the victory.

ECU took control of the game early, scoring twice in the first quarter. The Pirates pushed their lead to 21-0 on a touchdown run early in the second quarter. The Bulldogs answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown strike. Tech cut the lead to 21-10 with a 36-yard field goal less than a minute before the end of the half.

Swilley booted another 36-yard field goal six minutes into the third quarter, but that was the end of the offensive night for the Bulldogs. Pirate running back Theodore Sutton raced 45 yards for a touchdown with just under seven minutes remaining in the quarter.

The Pirates sealed the victory with another touchdown late in the game. ECU rolled up 278 yards rushing on the night, while holding the Bulldogs to only 12 yards on the ground.

Louisiana Tech 24, Louisville 14
December 17, Shreveport, La.

Tech used a high-powered passing attack and a stingy defense to defeat the favored University of Louisville, 24-14, in the school's first division I bowl game appearance. Bulldog sophomore quarterback Keith Thibodeaux was named the game's most valuable player, completing 19 of 39 passes for 287 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

The Cardinals looked to take control of the game early when safety Kevin Miller returned a Bulldog punt 60 yards for the game's first touchdown less than two minutes into the contest.

However, that was the end of the road for Louisville as Thibodeaux proceeded to pick apart the Cardinal secondary. The Opelousas native drove the Bulldogs 68 yards to paydirt, tying the score. Running back Charlie Lewis capped the drive, punching it in from one yard out.

Later in the first quarter Thibodeaux hooked up with receiver George Pree for a 41-yard scoring strike to give the Bulldogs a 13-7 lead. Tech never looked back, pushing its lead to 21-7 late in the first when Thibodeaux connected with tight end Larry McCartney from eight yards out and Lewis added the two-point conversion.

Tech added a 21-yard Keith Swilley field goal in the second quarter. Louisville tried to climb back into the game in the third, scoring on a 13-yard run by Miller midway through the quarter.

However, that was all the Bulldogs would allow. Tech fouced three fumbles, an interception and held the Cardinals to only 11 first downs. The Louisville offense could muster only 100 yards rushing and an astonishing 61 yards through the air.

1974 Pioneer Bowl NCAA Division II Semifinal

Central Michigan 35, Louisiana Tech 14
December 7, Wichita Falls, Texas

The Chippewas built a 35-0 lead before Tech, hampered by six interceptions, scored two TDs in the fourth quarter.

Both teams remained scoreless in the first quarter before Central Michigan took control in the second quarter with two unanswered touchdowns to take a 14-0 lead into the half.

CMU added one touchdown in the third quarter and two more in the fourth quarter before the Bulldogs jumped on the scoreboard.

Haynes completed 10-of-23 passes for one touchdown while Moody led the Tech receivers with 45 yards on two receptions and one touchdown.

1974 NCAA Division II Quarterfinal

Louisiana Tech 10, Western Carolina 7
November 30, Ruston, La.

In a game which included multiple turnovers, Louisiana Tech edged by Western Carolina 10-7 to advance to the Division II Semifinals.

Tech opened the scoring in the first quarter as Roland Harper broke away on a 54-yard scamper to give the Bulldogs a 7-0 lead. The score was the only one in the first half as Tech took the lead into halftime.

In the second half, Western Carolina tied the game at 7-7 late in the third quarter.

The game came down to a 22-yard field goal by Tech's Jerry Pope with 1:36 remaining in the contest. Pope's kick cleared the uprights and sent the Bulldogs to another victory.

Steve Haynes led the Bulldogs with 89 yards passing while Harper rushed for 114 yards on 14 carries.

Louisiana Tech 34, Western Kentucky 0
December 16, Sacramento, Calif.

The Bulldogs blew out the Hilltoppers to win the NCAA's first Division II national championship. Tech amassed 336 yards of total offense, compared to just 76 for WKU. The opponents were held to minus 12 yards on the ground, and Tech picked off four passes.

Tech picked up its first points in the first quarter on a 33-yard field goal by Jerry Pope. Two minutes later, Charles "Quick Six" McDaniel scored on a 1-yard touchdown run to give the Bulldogs a 10-0 lead.

The Bulldogs added to their lead early in the second quarter when Danny Curtis intercepted a Hilltopper pass and returned it 11 yards for a touchdown. A little over a minute later, quarterback Denny Duron connected with Roger Carr on a 36-yard pass to give the Bulldogs a 24-0 lead going into the locker room.

Louisiana Tech added to its lead in the fourth quarter on a 31-yard field goal by Pope and a 28-yard touchdown pass from Steve Haynes to Pat Tilley.

Duron completed 4-of-14 passes for 78 yards and one touchdown while Haynes completed 6-of-13 for 72 yards and one touchdown. McDaniel rushed for 116 yards on 21 carries while Tilley recorded 106 receiving yards on seven catches.

1973 Division II Semifinals

Louisiana Tech 38, Boise State 34
December 8, Wichita Falls, Texas

In a high-scoring affair, Louisiana Tech's Denny Duron connected with Roger Carr on an 21-yard touchdown pass with :12 left in the game to lift the Bulldogs into the 1973 Division II National Championship.

The Broncos took an early lead, scoring two touchdowns in the first quarter before the Bulldogs answered on a touchdown run by Charles "Quick Six" McDaniel.

Tech added to its point total in the second quarter on a field goal by Jerry Pope and another rushing touchdown by McDaniel to give the Bulldogs a 17-14 halftime lead.

The teams traded leads throughout the second half as Boise State scored another touchdown early in the third quarter to take a 20-17 lead.

Boise State and Tech traded scores early in the fourth quarter before the Broncos took their last lead on a touchdown play with 3:42 remaining in the game.

But the time allowed the Bulldogs to march down the field on an 11-play drive capped by Carr's touchdown grab to give Louisiana Tech the 38-34 win.

Duron completed 16-of-30 passes for 259 yards and two touchdowns while rushing 37 yards on 15 carries for another touchdown. Carr led the receivers with 117 yards on five receptions for two touchdowns while McDaniel rushed for 116 yards on 20 carries for two touchdowns.

1973 Division II First Round

Bulldogs 18, Western Illinois 13
December 1, Ruston, La.

Louisiana Tech gained 457 yards of total offensive to advance to the Division II Semifinals.

The Bulldogs picked up their first score on a 1-yard rush by quarterback Denny Duron to tie the score at 6-6. Tech took the lead later in the quarter on a 1-yard score by Charles "Quick Six" McDaniel, giving the Bulldogs a 12-6 advantage heading into the second half.

The Bulldogs padded their lead with a 68-yard pass from Duron to Mike Barber, giving Tech an 18-6 edge in the third quarter.

Western Illinois scored once more but it was not enough as the Bulldogs held on for the 18-13 win. Duron completed 10-of- 22 passes for 183 yards and one touchdown while rushing 10 times for 69 yards and another score.

McDaniel rushed for 91 yards on 20 carries and one touchdown while Barber caught three passes for 111 yards for one touchdown.

1972 Grantland Rice Bowl

Louisiana Tech 35, Tennessee Tech 0
November 9, Baton Rouge, La.

Louisiana Tech had a 375-94 advantage in total offense as the Bulldogs defeated Tennessee Tech 35-0 to win the 1972 Grantland Rice Bowl and complete a perfect 12-0 season.

The Bulldogs held a 7-0 lead after the first quarter but scored three second quarter touchdowns to take a 28-0 lead at halftime.

Tech added another score early in the third quarter and cruised the rest of the way to collect the victory.

Quarterback Denny Duron hit 11 of 20 passes for 227 yards and two scores while wide receiver Roger Carr had six catches for 141 yards including a 29-yard touchdown catch.

Running back Glen Berteau had 10 carries for 58 yards and two scores while linebacker Joe McNeely had a spectacular effort that included 12 individual tackles, a fumble recovery and a 31-yard touchdown run on an intercepted pass.

1971 Pioneer Bowl NCAA Division II Midwest Region Championship

December 11, Wichita Falls, Texas

Wenford Wilborn set a Division II record with a 91-yard punt return, and QB Ken Lantrip completed 14 passes for 170 yards and one touchdown as Louisiana Tech defeated Eastern Michigan 14-3.

The Bulldogs struck first as Lantrip connected with Glen Berteau for a 17-yard touchdown strike in the first quarter.

Eastern Michigan picked up a field goal in the second half as the Bulldogs carried a 7-3 lead into halftime.

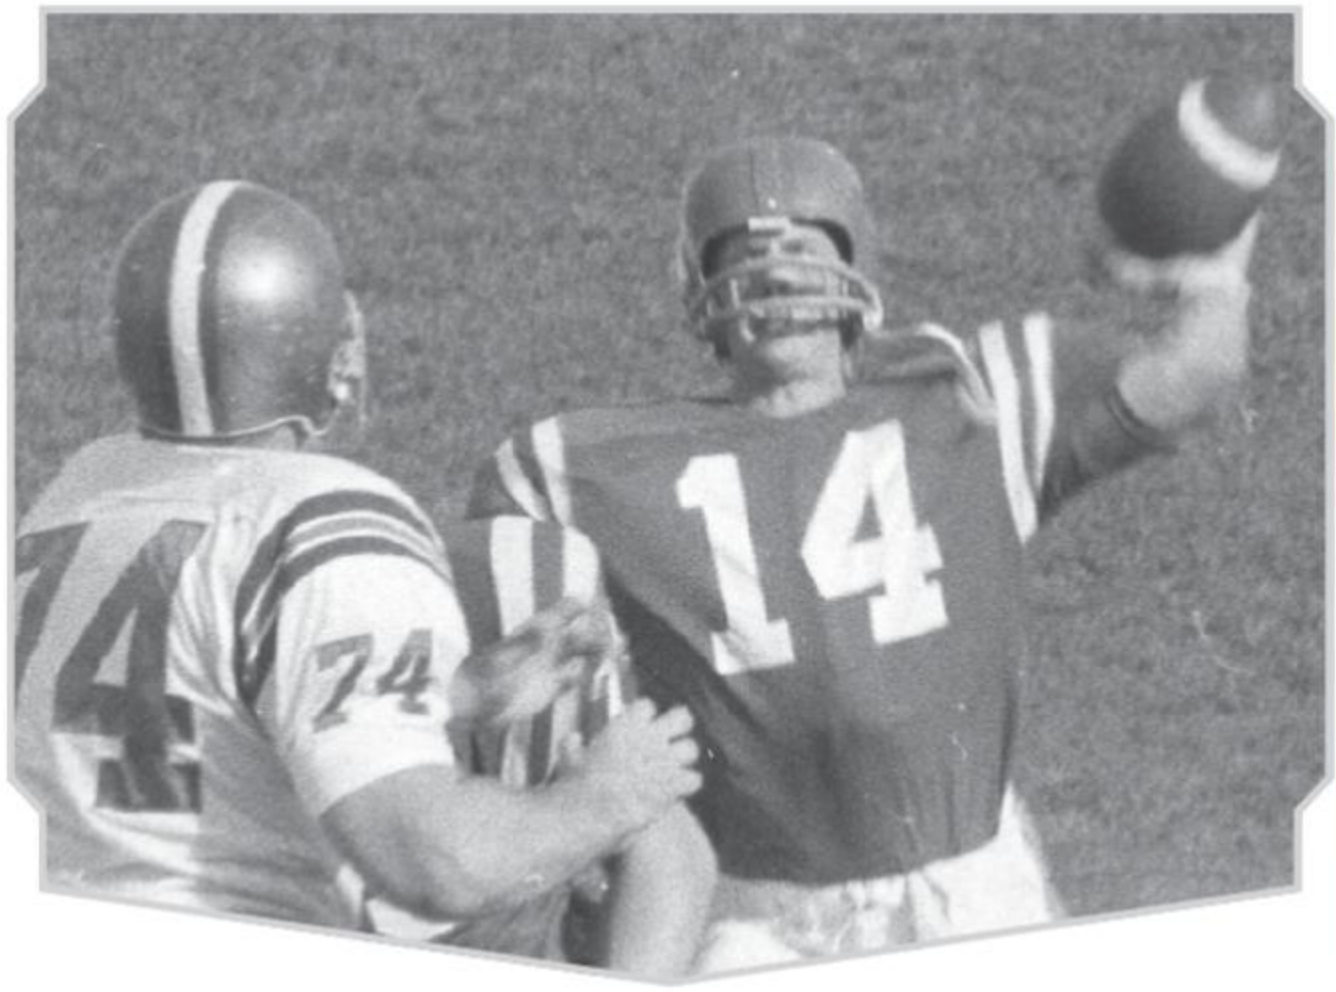
Lantrip completed 14-of-34 passes for 170 yards and one touchdown to lead the Bulldog offense. Roger Carr led the receivers with 40 yards on three receptions while Berteau caught three passes for 34 yards and one touchdown. Berteau also led the team with 31 yards rushing on 14 carries.



1969 Grantland Rice Bowl
NCAA Division II Mideast Region Championship

East Tennessee 34, Louisiana Tech 14
December 13, Baton Rouge, La.

In Terry Bradshaw's final appearance as a Bulldog, he completed 20 passes for 299 yards, but he was sacked 12 times for 143 yards in losses as the Bulldogs fell 34-14 to East Tennessee in the 1969 Grantland Rice Bowl.

The Buccaneers got on the scoreboard first with a touchdown in the first quarter to take an early 6-0 lead. East Tennessee extended its lead to 13-0 in the second quarter on a 37-yard halfback pass for a touchdown and took that lead into the locker room at the half.

The Bulldogs finally found the end zone in the third quarter on an eight-yard pass from Bradshaw to fullback Buster Herren.

1968 Grantland Rice Bowl
NCAA Division II Mideast Region Championship

Louisiana Tech 33, Akron 13
December 14, Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Playing in the school's first bowl game, the Bulldogs battled sub-freezing temperatures and the Akron Zips but came out with a 33-13 victory.

The Bulldogs didn't waste any time scoring, tallying three touchdowns in the first quarter. Quarterback Terry Bradshaw picked up the first score on a 16-yard run. Moments later, Bradshaw hit Tommy Spinks on a 36-yard pass to give the Bulldogs a second touchdown. Fullback Buster Herren added a third score on a 2-yard run to give Tech a 21-0 lead early in the game.

Akron picked up a touchdown in the second quarter and trailed 21-7 at halftime, then moved within eight points in the third quarter, making the score 21-13.

But the Bulldogs toughened up in the fourth quarter, scoring twice on plays led by Bradshaw. On the first score, Bradshaw shook off several Akron tacklers and hit tight end Larry Brewer on a 6-yard scoring strike. Later in the quarter, Bradshaw scored again on an 8-yard run to close out the scoring.

Bradshaw led the Bulldogs offensively, completing 19-of-33 passes for 261 yards and two touchdowns. The young quarterback also led the team in rushing, collecting 35 yards on 12 carries for another two scores. Spinks led the receivers with 12 receptions for 167 yards and one touchtown.

THE LEGEND OF THE BULLDOG

The story takes place in the autumn of 1899 when five Tech students were returning home from school. They came upon an old, hungry bulldog sitting under a tree. The boys fed the dog with what food they had and continued their journey.

When they finally reached their destination, however, they found that the dog had followed them. Being sensitive young men, they sought permission for the dog to stay the night, and the landlord agreed – if the animal remained in the kitchen.

That night the house caught fire.

Their overnight guest was the first to awaken. The dog ran from room to room, rousing everyone in the building. Then, after all the other occupants had made their way to safety, one boy remained inside. The bulldog re-entered the smoke-filled house in an apparent attempt to rescue him, not realizing the boy had escaped in a different direction.

After the fire was extinguished and smoke had finally cleared, the boys went inside to see if the dog had indeed made it out to safety. But when they entered they found the lifeless bulldog lying in an unburned corner of one room. He had died from the smoke and the heat.

Naturally, the young men were shaken due to the death of their new friend. So they picked him up and carried him to the place they had found him the previous day. They then dug a grave and wrapped him in two jackets – one red and the other blue.

When the boys returned to school and related their story, the entire campus mourned the death of the homeless dog. The dog with no name had found a place in the hearts of Tech students.

Two years later, Tech organized a football team and decided the team needed not only school colors, but a mascot. A unanimous decision was reached as the bulldog, the first hero of Tech, was given the honor and the red and blue blankets he was buried in were made the school colors.

ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS

A number of student-athletes attend Louisiana Tech as a result of endowed athletic scholarships, which have been established as a means of supporting intercollegiate athletics.

Tech athletics would like to thank and recognize the following individuals who have established scholarships to benefit athletics or in whose honor or memory a scholarship has been established. The financial boost provided by these endowed scholarships is critical to maintaining a successful athletics program.

DR. DAN RENEAU

University President

For over half a century, President Dan Reneau and Louisiana Tech University have shared a reputation for higher education excellence, leadership and performance that is unrivaled anywhere in the State of Louisiana. With a passion for service and a commitment to his University and its constituents, Dr. Reneau has become one of the most respected and admired educational leaders in the history of Louisiana higher education.

Dr. Reneau's many accomplishments at Louisiana Tech began with a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering in 1963. He also earned a master's degree from Tech in chemical engineering in 1964, followed by a doctorate from Clemson University in 1966. Dr. Reneau returned to Louisiana Tech in 1967 as an assistant professor of chemical engineering and quickly distinguished himself as a scholar and researcher. He has published over 80 technical papers in books and journals, edited five books, and attended over 100 international meetings and conferences.

In 1972, Dr. Reneau was responsible for establishing Louisiana Tech's Biomedical Engineering Department – one of the first of its kind in the United States. The department and its undergraduate curriculum became only the fifth program accredited in the nation. The Biomedical Engineering Ph.D. program was later awarded a Commendation of Excellence by the Louisiana Board of Regents.

Dr. Reneau's continued vision and leadership resulted in his appointment as Louisiana Tech's Vice President of Academic Affairs in 1980. In this capacity, he served as chief academic officer to some 400 faculty housed in six colleges and three professional schools, offering 160 different degree programs. During his tenure, every major program with an accrediting agency was awarded accreditation. He was also instrumental in establishing Louisiana Tech's Center for Biomedical Engineering and Rehabilitation Science.

On February 20, 1987, the Board of Trustees for State Colleges and Universities selected Dr. Reneau as the 13th President of Louisiana Tech University.

While accomplishments have been many during Dr. Reneau's tenure as President of Louisiana Tech, some of the most notable include the implementation of selective admissions, achievement of Division I-A football status, establishment of the Institute for Micromanufacturing (IfM), construction of a new state-of-the-art Biomedical Engineering facility, attainment of the Carnegie Research University/High Research Activity classification, and the establishment of a 50-acre research park between the Tech campus and downtown Ruston called Enterprise Campus.

In 1995, Dr. Reneau was awarded the Distinguished Arthur T. Prescott Professorship in Engineering. In 1999, the Clemson Alumni Association, in conjunction with Clemson University, installed Dr. Reneau as an inaugural Alumni Fellow of the University. The American Institute for Medical and Biological Engineering selected Dr. Reneau as a 2000 AIMBE Fellow. In 2002, he was awarded the Newell Perry Award by the National Federation of the Blind – the highest honor that is given by the National Federation of the Blind.

In recent years, Dr. Reneau has led Louisiana Tech to the University of Louisiana System's (ULS) highest graduation rate, highest retention rate, highest average freshman ACT score, and fastest time-to-completion rate for first-time baccalaureates as well as achieving record graduate enrollment and doctoral graduates.

Louisiana Tech has twice been ranked in the nation's top ten for graduating students with the least amount of debt by U.S. News & World Report (2010 and 2011) and was the highest ranked Louisiana public university in mid-career median pay for graduates, according to PayScale.com (2010). Tech was also north Louisiana's only public university to make the 2010 President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll.

As he enters his 25th year as Louisiana Tech President, Dr. Dan Reneau continues to share his vision for moving Louisiana Tech forward and strengthen his commitment to serving the students and alumni of his University. Through Dr. Reneau's leadership, Louisiana Tech University has transformed itself from an aspiring regional university into one of the state's premier research institutions.

Dr. Reneau is a native of Woodville, Mississippi and is married to the former Linda Digby of Bernice, whom he met as a student at Louisiana Tech. They have two children, John and Dana, who are also both Louisiana Tech alumni. John currently lives in Las Vegas and Dana lives in Baton Rouge with her husband, Jim Bernhard, and their two sons, Michael and Ben.

BRUCE VAN DE VELDE

Athletics Director

Bruce Van De Velde begins his second full year as athletics director at Louisiana Tech after being promoted in February of 2010 by Louisiana Tech President Dr. Dan Reneau.

Van De Velde was originally hired at LA Tech in June of 2008 as deputy athletics director and chief operating officer but took over full leadership of a department that fields 16 NCAA Division I sanctioned programs, including nine women's and seven men's sports, that compete in the highly-competitive Western Athletic Conference.

"Bruce is well qualified by national standards to fill the position of athletics director at Louisiana Tech," Reneau said. "I feel that we made an excellent choice in selecting him to lead Tech athletics to national prominence and to serve the needs of our student-athletes."

Van De Velde came to Ruston with a long history of Division I athletic administration experience, including stints as athletics director at Iowa State and Utah State.

"It is an honor to be named as the director of athletics at Louisiana Tech University," Van De Velde said. "I look forward to serving our student-athletes, faculty, staff, alumni and fans. Our vision is to build a program to a level where we can be associated with universities that aspire to academic and athletic excellence at the highest level.

"This goal is consistent with the vision President Reneau has established for the University which is to become north Louisiana's premier national research university. In order to accomplish this vision we must engage all of our 80,000 alumni, fans and supporters and ask them for their participation. It takes resources to achieve our goal, and we need every one to support the program."

During his tenure Van De Velde has been instrumental in a number of accomplishments that have helped further the advancement of the University's athletic department, including:

- Developed and implemented the largest fundraising campaign in athletic department history in the Quest for Excellence, a $20 million capital campaign to upgrade facilities.
- Assisted with the development, negotiation and implementation of a $6.75 million multi-media and marketing rights agreement with Learfield Communications. Contract more than doubled revenue derived from corporate sponsorships and created statewide radio network for Louisiana Tech athletics.
- Negotiated and signed a partnership with the Aspire Group, forming a Fan Relationship Management Center which will include six sales consultants devoted to selling and serving Louisiana Tech Athletics ticket holders..
- Negotiated a $3.6 million University and athletic department pour rights and corporate sponsorship agreement with Pepsi.
- Reorganized annual giving program doubling the number of donors and increased total annual contributions to the program by 75 percent. Developed marketing efforts to strengthen outreach and established an agenda for growth.
- Led a national search in January of 2010 to hire head football coach Sonny Dykes from the University of Arizona. Also, led a national search in April of 2011 to hire head men's basketball coach Mike White from Ole Miss.
- Student-athlete graduation success rate of 70 percent in 2010 was the highest in the history of the University and one of the tops in the nation. All 16 sports programs were penalty free.
- In 2010, the Louisiana Tech athletic department earned the PRISM Award for excellence in athletics management under Van De Velde's leadership. The department also won the NCAA Pack the House for the Western Athletic Conference all four years for its marketing and promotions effort for women's basketball.

Tech has also seen plenty of success on the fields and courts since Van De Velde's arrival at Tech as the Bulldog football team captured its first bowl victory in more than 30 years with the 2008 Independence Bowl title. The Lady Techster basketball team won the 2009 and 2011 regular season Western Athletic Conference titles, and the 2010 WAC Tournament title while the women's indoor and outdoor track and field teams won the 2009, 2010 and 2011 league titles.

This past year Louisiana Tech recorded its best finish ever in the Western Athletic Conference's Commissioner's Cup, which is an all-sports award based on where each program finishes in the league standings.

The University's student-athletes have also seen success in the classroom since his arrival on campus as this past year saw Tech record a 70 percent student athlete graduation success rate, the highest in its history and one of the tops in the nation.

Numerous individual success stories have also occurred under his leadership including sprinter Antoinette Cobb earning the 2010 Honda Inspiration Award and catcher Clint Ewing becoming a finalist for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award for their work both on the field of completion and in the classroom.

Van De Velde came to Tech with impressive credentials, having served as an administrator in intercollegiate athletics for over 20 years. Van De Velde served as athletics director at Iowa State University and Utah State University and as a senior administrator at the University of Oklahoma, University of Missouri and Kansas State University.

Van De Velde's tenure at Iowa State University included an unprecedented five bowl appearances in six years and the highest national AP football poll ranking (9th) in school history. Iowa State's 2001 average football attendance of 45,172 reached its highest watermark in 18 years. In 2002 and 2003, total football attendance exceeded 300,000; the most at ISU in two decades.

The emergence of the Cyclone football program on a national stage with Van De Velde at the department helm was affirmed in 2002 when Iowa State was chosen to play No. 1 Florida State University in the Eddie Robinson Classic. During Van De Velde's tenure at Iowa State, the men's and women's basketball teams won Big XII conference championships and participated in the 2001, 2002 and 2005 NCAA basketball tournaments.

Van De Velde, with a track record for generating revenue, increased the total annual operating revenues for the Cyclone athletic department from $19.6 million to $30 million dollars over a five year period. Revenue generated from fundraising, ticket sales, marketing and corporate sponsorships, licensing, radio and television reached all-time highs during his tenure.

In 2005, total fundraising increased from $4.85 million to $8.6 million and the annual giving achieved the highest membership total in its history with more than 5,500 donors participating and a record $4 million dollars in annual contributions. Under Van De Velde's leadership, over 2,000 new donors joined the National Cyclone Club. Including capital project gifts, scholarship endowments and annual contributions, over $40 million dollars was raised from 2001 through 2005.

Iowa State's graduation rate of 89 percent for student-athletes who complete their eligibility was second in the Big XII Conference, and graduation rates for minority student-athletes more than tripled during Van De Velde's tenure. In 2004-05, Iowa State was one of eight universities nationally to have its football team win a bowl game and have its men and women's basketball teams participate in the NCAA tournament. The Sporting News in 2001 rated Iowa State as the seventh best athletic program among more than 115 NCAA Division I-A programs nationally. The ranking considered competitive success, graduation rates, fan support and NCAA compliance to determine national rank.

During his time as athletic director at Utah State University, Van De Velde made his mark by hiring Stew Morrill as the head men's basketball coach. Morrill has guided Utah State to nine straight postseason tournaments and is the winningest coach in the history of the Utah State program.

While serving as the associate athletic director for football operations under head coach Bill Snyder at Kansas State University, Van De Velde was part of the resurrection of Wildcat football in Manhattan as the program became a national power participating in five bowl games. Van De Velde was recipient of the Admiral U.S. Grant Sharp Award at the 1997 Holiday Bowl for his contributions to the Kansas State football team when the nationally ranked Wildcats finished with a 10-2 record.

As the senior associate athletic for external affairs at the University of Oklahoma, Van De Velde served as the senior administrative officer for the athletic department and oversaw the areas of fundraising, marketing, corporate sponsorships, ticket sales, media relations and licensing. Van De Velde managed units that generated in excess of $35 million in annual revenues.

Van De Velde directed the Campaign for Sooner Sports, a $100 million dollar capital campaign to fund facility improvements and scholarships. As associate athletic director for development at the University of Missouri, Van De Velde planned and initiated a $50 million dollar capital campaign for facility improvements for the Sports Park at MU.

Van De Velde received the General Robert Neyland Award from the National Football Foundation in 2005 for his service and contributions as an athletic director.

Throughout his career in college athletics, Van De Velde has served on numerous NCAA committees including the Championships and Competition Cabinet, the Football Issues Committee, the Financial Aid Committee and the Peer Review Committee for NCAA certification.

He and his wife Debbie, who is a Kansas State alum and who serves as the Development Officer in the LA Tech College of Business, are the proud parents of 11-year-old daughter, Ashley who is entering the fifth grade.

MARY KAY HUNGATE

Senior Woman Administrator

Deputy Athletics Director and Senior Woman Administrator Mary Kay Hungate returns for her 26th year as a member of the Louisiana Tech athletics department and has proven to be an integral part in the recent emergence of the Tech teams on the playing fields and in the classroom.

Not only does Hungate serve as the sports administrator for men's and women's basketball, women's soccer, softball, women's tennis, women's bowling and women's volleyball, but she is also in charge of NCAA compliance for all of the university's 16 NCAA sanctioned programs.

As one of the top two ranking administrators in the Tech athletics department, Hungate is part of a senior staff that has been instrumental in garnering a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech athletics department has also finished in the Top 10 the past two years in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

Hungate serves a vital role in the hiring of coaches. Hungate proved instrumental in the decision by former Tech Kodak All-American and WNBA All-Star Teresa Weatherspoon - who played for Hungate in the late-80s - to return to Louisiana Tech in June of 2008. Weatherspoon was promoted to head coach in February of 2009 where she led the Lady Techsters to the WAC regular season title and a berth in the WNIT. This past season, she led Tech to the 2010 WAC Tournament title and a return to the NCAA Tournament.

She also served as the point person in the hiring process of head women's soccer coach Kevin Sherry and head women's volleyball coach Matt Sonnichsen. Sherry led the Lady Techster soccer team to two straight winning seasons the past two years - the first in program history - and the program's first ever WAC victory.

In only his second season at the helm, Sonnichsen, who was a three-time All-American and two-time National Champion during his playing days at UCLA, led the Lady Techsters to 15 wins - the most since 2005 - as well as a program record in WAC victories.

Another of Hungate's responsibilities includes overseeing the academic side of the Tech athletics department, another area which has improved drastically as proven by the fact LA Tech's graduation rate continues to be one of the highest in the state (Federal Graduation Report), including ranking No. 1 in the state of Louisiana and the Western Athletic Conference in recent years.

This past year eight of the 16 NCAA sanctioned programs at LA Tech earn their highest multi-year APR score ever while 94 studentathletes earned Academic all-WAC honors.

Hungate also plays an important role in LA Tech's NCAA Certification process. As a member of the Steering Committee and the liaison between the athletic department and the University's Self Study Committees, she provides the information needed for the committees to write their reports. In 2006, LA Tech completed its second NCAA Certification cycle and once again was certified without conditions.

Hungate joined the Louisiana Tech staff in 1985 as an assistant women's basketball coach and remained in that role for five years. During that time, the Lady Techsters participated in four Final Fours and won the NCAA National Championship in 1988.

In 1990, Hungate made a move out of coaching and became assistant athletics director for academics and compliance as well as senior woman administrator. One of Hungate's early accomplishments as assistant director of athletics was the creation of the Louisiana Tech Athletic Academic Center program.

Hungate has served terms on the NCAA Division I Academics/Eligibility/Compliance Cabinet, the NCAA Division I Interpretations/Legislative Review Subcommittee, the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators Wade Trophy Selection Committee and as an NCAA Peer Reviewer. She has also served on the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Issues Committee since 2004.

She currently serves on the Western Athletic Conference Council, the Conferences' Legislative Review Committee, the Finance Committee and the Code Book Committee. In addition, along with Athletics Director Bruce Van De Velde, she represents the athletics department as an ex-officio member of the LA Tech Athletics Council.

Hungate's professional career began as Women's Sports Coordinator and head volleyball, head basketball and head softball coach at Illinois' Carl Sandburg Junior College. She spent four seasons at the college where she guided the basketball team to a mark of 80-22 which included an 11th place finish in the 1976 NJCAA national tournament.

During her seven seasons at Richwoods High School, Hungate's team ran up an impressive record of 195-13, including a state-record 63 consecutive victories. Hungate was named the National Coach of the Year by USA Today in 1985. Before coming to Louisiana Tech, Hungate amassed a career coaching record of 275-35.

ERIC BUSKIRK

Associate Athletics Director/ External Affairs

Eric Buskirk enters his fifth season, and is the Sr. Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs & Administration at Louisiana Tech University.

Buskirk directs fundraising, ticket sales, community relations, licensing, branding, marketing, promotions, video board productions, the Learfield Sports partnership, and the Aspire Group partnership. In addition, Buskirk plays a vital role with internal administration of the athletic department, including assisting in over-all administration of the football and baseball programs.

Buskirk is a member of the NACMA Board of Directors, and is also an adjunct professor in the College of Business for an advanced level sports management course.

Under Buskirk's direction, Louisiana Tech's external affairs have seen a wave of new developments, and national recognition for its accomplishments. LA Tech athletics has reached record totals in all three major revenue generating areas including fundraising, season ticket sales and corporate sponsorships. Buskirk's external team was named the winner of the 2010 PRISM Awards for department excellence, and has been selected as the NCAA Pack the House Challenge winner three years in a row.

The revenue generating advancements have been supported by the addition of multiple strategic business processes being installed. The advancements include the creation of LTAC, Team Tech 100 and the LA Tech Kids Club in the fundraising area. Ticketmaster was contracted to implement the full Archtics ticketing package, and a newly formed call center was established to support the tickets sales efforts. 2011 will mark the first year of The Aspire Group partnership (TAG), as the new Fan Relationship Management Center began operations on June 1st. The FRMC will house a manager, and up to six sales consultants on the LA Tech campus, focused on advancing ticket sales revenues.

Under Buskirk's first two years leading the external affairs department, corporate sponsorships tripled with a restructured sponsorship sales approach, and advancements will continue as Learfield Sports was contracted to officially operate LA Tech Sports Properties, officially beginning operations for the 2009 season. Additional upgrades include contracting Rickabaugh Graphics as a part of the rebranding of new logos, and the partnership with CBS sports as the official website provider for LA Tech athletics.

The external affairs advancements have also made way for a new Daktronics state-of-the-art high definition video display scoreboard for the 2009 season. The HD-16 mm video display board will be the largest in the Western Athletic Conference.

Buskirk came to Louisiana Tech after working at UTSA as the Assistant Athletic Director for External Affairs. Buskirk oversaw the external affairs areas of fundraising, marketing, corporate sponsorships, ticket sales, merchandising, trademark licensing, branding, website revenue generation, courtesy car program, promotions and spirit squad, along with being the assistant tournament manager for NCAA Championships including the NCAA Final Four.

Under his direction, UTSA athletics experienced a dramatic increase in its external components, including more than doubling corporate sponsorship revenue in Buskirk's first 12 months directing the department. Buskirk was instrumental in negotiating with XOS Technologies to be the official website provider of UTSA athletics while also instituting the UTSA athletics re-branding campaign.

Buskirk was heavily involved in the direction of the NCAA Championships that the City of San Antonio hosts. He was the assistant tournament manager and directed marketing efforts for the 2006 NCAA Volleyball Championship, 2006 NCAA Women's Basketball San Antonio Regional, and the 2007 NCAA Men's Basketball South Regional. Buskirk was also a key committee member for the 2008 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Final Four hosted by UTSA.

Other additions to the UTSA external department included partnerships with local media giants Clear Channel, FOX TV, and Time Warner Cable. Buskirk also instituted new creative ticket sales strategies including a telemarketing call center that dramatically increased ticket sale efforts.

Prior to his time at UTSA, Buskirk served as the athletics marketing director at Lynn University in Boca Raton, Florida, where he also served as an adjunct professor in the College of Business and Management. The Columbus, Ohio, native served as a market research analyst for the NBA's Miami Heat before joining the Lynn staff. Buskirk earned his bachelor's degree in sports management from Ohio State and an MBA in sport management from Florida Atlantic University.

During his time at Ohio State, he also worked as a coach for men's and women's tennis at Columbus West High School and as assistant men's basketball coach at St. Charles Prep in Columbus.

A native of Columbus, Ohio, Buskirk lettered in football, basketball, tennis and golf at West High School, where he was a teammate of Michael Redd, who starred at Ohio State and now plays for the NBA's Milwaukee Bucks.

Away from the office, Buskirk is an avid golfer who is always working to lower his handicap, and enjoys reading books on leadership and motivation. Buskirk's wife Audrey is the Coordinator of Marketing and Healthy Woman Advisor for Northern Louisiana Medical Center.

MALCOLM BUTLER

Associate Athletics Director/ Media Relations

A 1994 graduate of the Louisiana Tech journalism department, Butler joined the athletic department in July of 1999 as the assistant athletic media relations director.

Butler was then promoted to director four months later and served in that capacity until the fall of 2007 when he was promoted to associate athletic director.

The Ruston native is in charge of media relations for women's basketball, softball and men's golf and also serves as the secondary contact for football while overseeing the daily operations for the entire department.

During his time at Louisiana Tech, Butler has been instrumental in promoting numerous high-profile student-athletes. He has also worked closely with a number of highly-successful head coaches, including 4-time Hall of Famer Leon Barmore, current Tennessee head football coach Derek Dooley and current Lady Techster women's basketball coach Teresa Weatherspoon.

Over the course of his tenure, Louisiana Tech's Media Relations Department has proven to be one of the best in the state of Louisiana. Over the past nine years, members of the Tech media relations department have won a total of 32 awards at the annual Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA) state SID contest – the third most behind only LSU and Northwestern State (33).

During that same period of time, Butler has garnered 23 of those awards which is second most among all state SIDs behind only LSU Associate Athletics Director Michael Bonnette (24).

Butler is part of a senior staff at LA Tech that has been instrumental in garnering a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech athletics department has also finished in the Top 10 two of the past three years in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

He was instrumental in the forming the partnership between Louisiana Tech and CBS College Sports in the fall of 2007 in the redesign and hosting of the athletic departments website, www.latechsports.com. The website has undergone two redesigns since the inaugural release.

As part of the agreement with CBS College Sports, a new web-streaming platform - LA Tech All-Access was created - which allows fans from all over the world to watch live streams of almost all of the university's home athletic events. LA Tech All-Access annually streams more than 125 live events.

Butler has served as the host media coordinator for three NCAA Women's Basketball First- and Second-Round sites hosted by Louisiana Tech (2000, 2001 and 2003) while also serving as the host media coordinator for the 2008 WAC Baseball Championships hosted by Louisiana Tech at J.C. Love Field in Ruston.

In addition to his media relations responsibilities, Butler has served as the radio broadcaster for the nationally-prominent Louisiana Tech Lady Techster basketball team for the past 12 years, including the past 11 as the play-by-play announcer.

During that time, he has broadcast more than 350 women's basketball games - including 15 NCAA Tournament games. He has also broadcast in excess of 75 softball games, including four in the 2008 NCAA Tournament, and served as the color commentator on numerous Bulldog football broadcasts. Butler is also the host of Inside Tech Basketball with Teresa Weatherspoon, a 30-minute radio show.

Butler implemented a fundraising campaign for his department in the fall of 2007 and over the past five years he has raised over $30,000, which has been used to purchase additional equipment, software and other essentials within the media relations department.

He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA), United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) and Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

MARIE PIPES

Associate Athletics Director/ Chief Financial Officer

Marie Pipes will begin her 27th year at Louisiana Tech and her fourth as associate athletics director - chief financial officer in the athletic department.

Pipes is responsible for the day-to-day business operations of the athletic department, including overseeing the individual budgets for 16 varsity sports, monitoring athletic funds of the Louisiana Tech Athletic Foundation, serving as liaison with the university's business offices and supervising the athletic ticket office.

She is part of a senior staff at LA Tech that has been instrumental in garnering a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech athletics department has also finished in the Top 10 two of the past three years in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

This past year, Tech earned its highest finish ever in the Western Athletic Conference Commissioner's Cup as its student-athletes continued to excel on the playing fields.

Pipes previously served as the budget manager for the College of Engineering for six years where she had similar duties. She was also in the College of Liberal Arts as the dean's assistant handling day-to-day business in the office while working with budget planning for the year.

In 2002, she received the Distinctive Professional Performance and Conduct Award from the Institute of Micromanufacturing at Louisiana Tech.

Pipes has earned two degrees from Louisiana Tech University and completed a master's certificate in technical writing.

She is a current member of the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA). She is also actively involved in the American Cancer Society and serves as the co-chair for the Relay for Life Survivor's Dinner as well as on the Executive Committee for the ACS Relay for Life in Lincoln Parish.

LEAH BEASLEY

Assistant Athletics Director/ Marketing and Game Management

Leah Beasley enters her seventh year as a member of the Louisiana Tech athletics department staff, including her sixth as the assistant athletics director for marketing and game management.

Some of Beasley's responsibilities include game management supervision, coordinating the booking of many of the halftime activities for Tech home events, serving as the main liaison between the Tech athletics department and the Tech student body and faculty and staff, as well as working closely with many of the coaches for marketing ideas for their programs.

During her time at Louisiana Tech, Beasley has proven her merit as she has been directly and indirectly associated with numerous department awards.

Since its inception by the NCAA in 2007, Beasley has taken the lead on Louisiana Tech's participation in the NCAA's Pack the House Challenge - a marketing promotion geared towards increasing the awareness of women's basketball across the country.

Beasley's creative marketing campaigns have helped LA Tech earn the top spot among the Western Athletic Conference schools for four straight years, making it the only program in the country to win it every time.

Her 2010 NCAA Pack the House marketing campaign of "Cage the Tigers" won the bronze award given out by NACDA for the Best Single Day Attendance Promotion.

This past year, Beasley's 2011 NCAA Pack the House marketing campaign of "FAIR-well Fresno" drew a crowd of more than 7,000 fans to the Thomas Assembly Center as promotions included a real live Fair with carnival rides and food outside the Thomas Assembly Center.

Beasley has also been a part of a staff at LA Tech that has been instrumental in garnering a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech Athletics Department has also finished in the Top 10 the past two years in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

Beasley also served as the athletic department's point man for Bulldogs Tackling Breast Cancer, a fundraiser started by Dr. Allison Dooley, wife of former LA Tech AD and head football coach Derek Dooley in 2007. During its four years, this fundraising campaign raised more than $50,000 for the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure Foundation in northeast Louisiana.

She also serves on several campus and conference committees, including the WAC's Championships Committee and Game Management Committee, and the University's Marketing Advisory Board, Spirit Squad Committee and Traditions Committee.

Beasley lettered for four years at Louisiana Tech as an outfielder on the Lady Techster softball team, earning Academic all-WAC honors every season and earning all-America Scholar Athlete awards two seasons.

The Ruston native earned her bachelor's degree in marketing in May of 2005 and her master's degree in marketing in August 2006.

LISA MERRITT

Assistant Athletics Director/Academics

Lisa Merritt enters her fifth year as a member of the Louisiana Tech athletics department staff serving as assistant athletics director for academics.

Merritt joined the athletics department after serving for 11 years in the LA Tech speech department with her husband Kevin where she taught speech classes while serving as an academic advisor for students majoring in speech communication.

Since joining the Tech athletics department, Merritt has helped the University's student-athletes excel in the classroom. For the second consecutive year, Tech saw eight of its 16 NCAA sanctioned programs earn their highest multi-year APR score ever with all 16 programs being penalty free. The Bulldog golf team and Lady Techster bowling team were both honored nationally by the NCAA with Public Recognition Awards, based on their most recent multi-year APR scores.

Tech student-athletes also recorded their highest Graduation Success Rate(GSR) and highest four-year graduation rate ever this past year as the University ranks No. 1 in the state of Louisiana among Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) public institutions and second among all WAC schools. Tech was one of only two WAC schools and one of only three state schools (LSU, Tulane) that had multiple teams honored.

LA Tech's student-athletes continue to excel on an individual basis as well, including numerous individual success stories such as sprinter Antoinette Cobb earning the 2010 Honda Inspiration Award and catcher Clint Ewing becoming one of eight finalists nationally for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award (this one year after he earned a spot on the 2010 ESPN The Magazine Academic all-American Team).

Tech's student-athletes also show incredible diversity when it comes to majors as each of the University's five colleges and virtually every degree program on campus boast at least one Tech student-athlete.

In her current role, Merritt oversees the student-athletes' academic progress and success while advising them regarding class schedules and degree plans, monitoring eligibility status and providing general academic guidance.

Merritt also runs the athletic academic center, provides "Life Skills" seminars for student-athletes, meets with prospective recruits, and serves as faculty advisor for SAAC (Student-Athlete Advisory Committee).

SAAC is a pro-active group of student-athletes communicating views or comments on WAC and NCAA rules and governance, which helps to ensure academic and athletic excellence for all student-athletes. Members of SAAC are also active in various community service projects such as hosting an annual Halloween carnival as well as serving as greeters for the annual St. Jude's Radiothon, participating in the Big Event, and supporting the WAC's charity of choice.

Merritt oversees and reviews the advising process to ensure compliance with both university and NCAA policies and serves as a liaison between faculty and coaches, as well as speaks at "New Faculty Orientation" each fall and during the year to the University Senate. She also meets recruits and their families to describe the college experience and how it will affect the student-athlete.

Merritt earned her bachelor's degree in agricultural economics in 1991 and master's in speech communication consultancy in 1994 both from Oklahoma State University.

Outside of work, Merritt is a huge health and fitness buff who loves cycling (road and mountain), running and swimming. In 2002, Merritt and her husband completed the Florida Ironman Triathlon

Merritt and her husband Kevin reside in Ruston and have a seven-year old daughter named Maisie and an infant daughter named Ivy.

CHANCE SNOW

Assistant Athletics Director/ Ticket Operations

Chance Snow returned to his alma mater in June as the Assistant AD for Ticketing in the Louisiana Tech Athletics Department.

Snow, who worked in the Tech Athletics Department as an undergraduate student, replaced Zach Williams, who accepted a position in the comptroller's office on campus.

The longtime Louisiana resident is one of the youngest Division I ticket managers in the country at a Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) program after spending the past two years as the director of ticketing at Louisiana-Monroe.

He was instrumental in streamlining office procedures in the ULM ticket office, helping ULM earn successful and finding-free audits. Snow, who also facilitated the process of converting ticket printing to a digital process at ULM, helped improve customer service while managing relationships with customers and donors.

Snow began his association with the Tech Athletics Department in August of 2007 as a student worker in the external affairs area. He then moved to the ticket office where he became an integral part of the daily operations of the department while also assisting with the implementation of a number of systems and processes, including Ticketmaster.

He also assisted the athletics department in the selling efforts for the 2008 Independence Bowl, where LA Tech sold its full allotment. Snow was also interim ticket manager for a six month stint at LA Tech prior to the hiring of Zach Williams.

As an undergraduate student at LA Tech, Snow was actively involved in Student Government Association, Student Advancement Team, Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity, and FFA and was chosen as an Orientation Student Leader in 2008.

Snow earned his bachelor's degree from Louisiana Tech in agriculture business with a minor in business in August of 2010.

MASON ELLENBERGER

General Manager/ LA Tech Sports Properties

Mason Ellenberger serves as general manager for "LA Tech Sports Properties", the Ruston-based entity designed to oversee all aspects of the 10-year partnership between the University and the collegiate marketer Learfield Sports.

At LA Tech, Ellenberger is responsible for spearheading all elements of the relationship between LA Tech and Learfield Sports, which was announced in late July 2008 and includes managing and selling multimedia and sponsorship rights for the Bulldogs and Lady Techsters.

Ellenberger is also responsible for all aspects of the LA Tech Sports Network which broadcasts over 250 Louisiana Tech games, daily shows and coach's shows throughout the year.

During the 2009-10 athletic season, Ellenberger and his team at LA Tech Sports Properties were recognized as the #1 new growth property in the Learfield Sports portfolio.

In Ellenberger's previous role as the Team Sports Marketing Manager for Alltel Wireless, he led Alltel's strategic team sports marketing efforts in the United States. He oversaw the national promotions and activation of the sponsorship stable owned by Alltel Wireless in the US including the professional and collegiate sponsorships.

Prior to his years at Alltel, Ellenberger spent the previous 13 years in strategic sales leadership, sports marketing and public relations roles in the telecommunications and entertainment industries.

The Birmingham, Ala. native has served on numerous endowment boards and board of directors for sports and education organizations including Pagnozzi Charities and the Arkansas Aeronautical Education Center.

He has been honored by White House Communications Agency for providing critical communications for the President of the Unites States and White House Staff. Ellenberger holds a BBA and MBA in Marketing both of which he graduated Summa cum Laude. Ellenberger is also an Eagle Scout and a long-time supporter of the Boy Scouts of America.

He is married to the former Wanda Jackson from Mobile, Ala., and the couple has two sons, James and Hunter.

CHRIS BRISTER

Account Executive/LA Tech Sports Properties

Chris Brister enters his first full year serving as account executive for LA Tech Sports Properties, overseeing every aspect of the Bulldogs and Lady Techsters rights, including certain television and radio rights, hospitality, sponsorships, event marketing, official website advertising and venue signage.

Brister, who served as an intern with LA Tech Sports Properties before being promoted to account executive in February, also assists General Manager Mason Ellenberger in all facets of LA Tech Sports Properties, including growing the LA Tech Sports Network which broadcasts over 250 games, daily shows and coaches shows throughout the year.

The 26-year-old will also serve as the engineer for all broadcasts on the LA Tech Sports Network, including traveling with the Bulldog football team.

Prior to coming to Tech Athletics, he served as an assistant golf pro for four years at the Country Club of Jackson, Frenchman's Bend Country Club and most recently Squire Creek Golf Course.

Brister will earn his bachelor's degree in speech communication with a sports marketing minor from Louisiana Tech in the spring of 2012.

He is married to former Tech cheerleader Tori Soto and the couple has a two-year-old son, Rhett.

RYAN GOTTLIEB

Manager/Aspire at LA Tech

Group's Fan Relationship Management Center (FRMC) which services Louisiana Tech University Athletics.

Ryan's responsibilities include overseeing the FRMC, which is a third-party ticketing sales and service initiative whose primary objective is generating new ticket sales revenue and growth across all sectors, including full and partial season plans, group tickets, improved customer retention and ensuring excellent customer service.

Ryan joined the Aspire Group in the Georgia Tech FRMC in August of 2009 as a part-time sales consultant. By Thanksgiving of that year, the University of South Carolina graduate was already among the leaders in Men's Basketball Season ticket sales and was therefore promoted to a full-time position.

In March of 2010, the Atlanta native was promoted again, this time to a Senior Sales Consultant where he led GA Tech in new season ticket sales for 2010-11 Men's Basketball as well as 2011 Football.

As one of the leaders at the GA Tech Center over the past twelve months, Gottlieb has played an integral role in hiring, training and mentoring numerous team members, while maintaining his "top of the board" sales productivity.

ADAM McGUIRT

LTAC Director

Adam McGuirt begins his fifth year with the Louisiana Tech Athletics family as the director of the Louisiana Tech Athletic Club (LTAC), working in the Division of University Advancement.

At Louisiana Tech, McGuirt is responsible for all areas of athletic development, including donor relations and booster club administration.

During his previous four years at LA Tech, McGuirt has been instrumental in helping more than double the number of LTAC members which has resulted in a large increase in private donations.

McGuirt also works closely with the Alumni Association in the development and implementation of events for alumni and friends throughout the state of Louisiana and surrounding areas.

McGuirt has also been a part of a staff at LA Tech that has been instrumental in garnering a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech Athletics Department has also finished in the Top 10 two of the past three years in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

This past year, Tech recorded its highest finish ever in the Western Athletic Conference's Commissioners Cup as its student-athletes continue to excel on the playing fields.

A native of Shreveport, McGuirt graduated from Louisiana Tech in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

McGuirt is married to the former April St. Andre, and the couple has three daughters: Lily, Sophie and Emily.

TOMMY SISEMORE

Facilities Director

Some of Sisemore's varied duties include serving as travel coordinator and business manager for the football team, handling all aspects of team travel, including hotel, food and travel arrangements.

Sisemore also handles all the financial expenses incurred in the travel process. Sisemore is part of an administrative staff at LA Tech that has been instrumental in garnering a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech athletics department has also finished in the Top 10 two of the past years in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

Prior to working in the athletic department, Sisemore spent 17 years working in the Louisiana Tech Physical Plant.

Sisemore and his wife Stephanie, who is a Louisiana Tech graduate, are the proud parents of two daughters. Jessica is a Louisiana Tech graduate and currently working on her master's degree while Anna-Claire is a sophomore at Louisiana Tech.

PATRICK WALSH

Associate Media Relations Director

Patrick Walsh begins his third year at Louisiana Tech as part of the media relations department, his first as the associate media relations director, serving as the primary contact for football, men's and women's cross country and men's and women's track and field.

Walsh came to Louisiana Tech from The Citadel, where he last served as the primary contact for baseball and cross country while serving as the secondary contact for football, as well as the webmaster for CitadelSports.com. He also oversaw game operations duties for The Citadel Baseball at Joseph P. Riley, Jr. Park.

At The Citadel, Walsh was involved with a trio of publications that were recognized on a national scale by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), with his 2007 track and field media guide finishing 24th in the nation. Walsh was heavily involved with the 2008 football guide that finished eighth among Division I-FCS programs and the 2006 football guide that was 12th among I-AA teams.

A member of CoSIDA, Walsh also serves on the Publications Committee and was a judge for the 2007 women's golf media guide publications contest.

Walsh arrived at The Citadel following a seven-month stint as the Sports Information Assistant at Newberry College in Newberry, S.C., a NCAA Division II member of the South Atlantic Conference. At Newberry, Walsh was responsible for media relations and game operations for Indians baseball, cross country, tennis and volleyball, as well as being the assistant contact for men's basketball.

Walsh was also in charge of marketing and promotions for several Newberry sports. His work helped lead Newberry Volleyball to a NCAA Division II top 20 ranking in attendance. In addition to those duties, Walsh was also the play-by-play announcer for Newberry volleyball and baseball radio broadcasts.

Walsh is a 2005 graduate of the University of South Carolina where he majored in Sport and Entertainment Management and was a member of the South Carolina Honors College. At USC, he was a student assistant in the Sports Information office where he worked with several Gamecock sports and was the public address announcer for South Carolina Baseball at Sarge Frye Field.

While at South Carolina, he was recognized by the College Sports Information Directors Association (CoSIDA) for his work on the 2003 South Carolina Track and Field Media Guide, which was named second in the nation, and for the 2002 South Carolina Volleyball Media Guide which placed first in the region.

Walsh, born in Oxford, Ohio, currently resides in Ruston along with his wife, the former Blair Brandon of Fort Worth, Texas.
